A NOTE FOR HIS MOTHER

AN EXPRESS [illegible] AVENUE.

Two of the Fleeting [illegible] Dead Men Plentify Plenty [illegible] Hot Pursuit, a Running [illegible] the Robbers and the Pursuers.

PALMER, Pa., May 27.—Two of the robbers who held up the train at Magee Junction last Tuesday morning and murdered Express Messenger Hopkins were killed yesterday in Buffalo Run on the St. John's River. The other [illegible] escaped like a wild beast [illegible] and will probably be run down [illegible].

About 12.30 o'clock a posse [illegible] gathered into the [illegible] "Come to Buffalo Run" [illegible] Sheriff Dyson [illegible] and a special train soon [illegible].

At 11.30 a.m. Gunner [illegible] H. Wigg, the guard placed at the [illegible] Bridge, saw three men coming from the south on the railroad tracks. As the first passed these four shots at the others the guards called, "Hands up," and he obeyed. The second and third drew their revolvers, and the guards knew that the desperate robbers were within five feet of them.

The Battle of Death.

The firing was began by the robbers and a bullet grazed Wigg. Wertz fired his shotgun loaded with buckshot and "Jim" Williams fell. The robbers' bullets plowed holes in the little house on the bridge, to which Wertz hastened for his revolver. The man in advance ran towards Palatka. The other man ran backward and was shot in the leg by Wertz.

A number of [illegible] among whom were Dr. Benjamin E. Morgan and Mr. Willard of the Express Company, arrived about this time. One of the robbers, the large man who killed Saunders, had taken to the swamp. They pursued him, and suddenly a ball ripped through Dr. Morgan's vest. He saw the robber behind a fallen tree and fired with his shotgun loaded with buckshot, mortally wounding the fugitive.

The bodies were laid on the bridge and afterwards brought into town on a freight train, accompanied by the guards who had shot Williams and Supt. Myers, who happened at the bridge about the time of the occurrence.

A Note For Mother.

The murderer, when he heard the pursuers coming, had written the following on the back of a map as he lay behind a tree:

"DEAR MOTHER,—The time has come that you and I shall part, and I hope you will not grieve after me, for I have no fear. I would write more, but I have no time. Kiss the children for me and tell them to do better than I have done and they will live longer than I have. Farewell, dear mother.

"Send this to Susan Bedgood, Arabi, Dooly County, Ga. I never expect to give up a thing, and I ask you to send me home at Arabi, Ga. So with this I close forever; please send my body to Arabi, Ga."

On this man was found a piece of bacon and on Williams an oilcloth hat, taken from a fisherman last night. Williams has been recognized as a former flagman on the railroad. The other corpse was identified by "Black Diamond" as that of the man who halted him Saturday morning when he went forward to the express car.

His face was covered with gore and blackened with powder. Before he died he said that, being desperately wounded, he shot himself in the mouth with his pistol.

The Bedgoods are a prominent family in Georgia, and the train robber's uncle is said to be a merchant in Arabi.

A sheriff's posse, with deerhounds and residents of Penial, are pursuing the other robber and Supt. Myers and a party are going on a special to their assistance. His capture is expected every minute.

His clothing, found on the bank of the Niagara, seemed to point to suicide. Three months later a dead body was found below the falls exactly answering Crandall's description. His wife and relatives positively identified the body as that of Crandall and part of the insurance money was paid. The insurance associations being still suspicious the matter was taken into court in March, 1887.

DEATH OF A FREAK.

It Weighed Only 50 Pounds, and Had a Negro Wife.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 26.—Silvester Silvey, a museum freak, died last night at the City Hospital of consumption. He was a native of Ceylon. He married a colored girl named Cooper. He was 20 years old, unusually small, and at the time of his death did not weigh over 50 pounds. His leg below the knee was not larger than a man's wrist, and his wrist was no larger than two fingers of a man's hand. His chest and limbs were covered with a thick growth of black hair two inches long. At one time the hair on his head reached to the ground. It was straight and coal black.

GOSSIP FROM OTTAWA.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND TROUBLE SETTLEMENT.

A Mixed Occurs in Reference to "The Modus Vivendi" Proclamation, But Everything is Expected to Smile Smiles To-day—A Budget of Interesting Capital News.

OTTAWA, May 27.—Some little difficulty and delay in giving effect to the modus vivendi agreed on between Canada and Newfoundland for the present year has been experienced on account of the similarity of the wording of the acts of the two countries, which only allow their enaction as the result of action taken by the other country. It looked at first as if it was a case of "who can speak first," without either party being allowed to speak until spoken to. It is understood, however, that a way out of the difficulty has been found after a very free interchange of telegrams between the two Governments, and it is confidently expected that proclamations will be issued to-day (Friday) in both Newfoundland and Canada which will restore the trade of the two countries to the old basis.

Chit-Chat of the Capital.

It is understood that His Excellency the Governor-General will be represented at Sir Alexander Campbell's funeral at Kingston by Lord Kilcoursie, A.D.C. Neither Sir John Abbott nor Sir John Thompson will be able to attend, and so far as known the Government will be represented at the funeral by Hon. Frank [illegible].

The Marine Department received word yesterday of the wreck of the Government steamer Isadra on Queen Charlotte Island, in the North Pacific. The Isadra was on route to Behring Sea and had Mr. James Macoun of this city on board. All on board were saved and returned to Victoria.

STRANGE THINGS SEEN AT SEA.

Polar Animals Taking a Ride to Southern Seas.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Captain Sanders of the steamship Ems, which arrived this morning from Bremen, reported that on May 21, in latitude 43 degrees 21 minutes, longitude 48 degrees 26 minutes, a large iceberg was sighted. The passengers on deck thought that they saw human beings on top of the iceberg, but when the steamer came closer to the ice it was discovered that two polar bears were piloting the ice mountain to southern seas.

Watson, Minister of Public Works.

WINNIPEG, May 27.—Robert Watson, M.P. for Marquette, was sworn in as member of the Greenway Cabinet yesterday. His portfolio is that of Public Works, and he succeeds Smart, who is to get the portfolio of Provincial Secretary. McLean, the former secretary, is to hold a cabinet seat without portfolio.

It is rumored in political circles here that Senator Boulton will contest Marquette when it is opened. He was beaten by Watson before as a Conservative, but this time will run as a free trader.

Jumped to His Death.

CALEDONIA, Ont., May 27.—An old man who was a passenger on the train yesterday committed suicide by drowning in the Grand River near Caledonia, about midnight. The name of the unfortunate could not be learned. He is said to have been slightly deranged and that he escaped from his wife who was taking care of him on the journey from Toronto to Caledonia.

For Assaulting the Paymaster.

OTTAWA, May 27.—At the Police Court yesterday a man named Green was sent down for trial on a charge of murderous assault upon Mr. Abbott, paymaster of the Rideau Canal, on Dec. 17 last. It will be remembered that Abbott was knocked down in his office with a piece of hose, in which was placed a lump of lead, and a bold attempt was made to take away from him a satchel containing a large amount of money, with which he was setting out to pay the hands on the Rideau Canal.

Abbott identified Green as being the guilty party.

Terribly Gored By a Cow.

GODERICH, May 27.—John, the 8-year-old son of George Garton of Wawanosh, was driving a cow, when she made a furious rush and struck him in the lower jaw with her horn, tearing his lip badly and knocking out nearly all of the teeth in the lower jaw, together with some parts of the jaw adhered.

He Eloped With Three Women.

OTTAWA, May 27.—Edmond Corrisse, ex-hackman and alleged pegilist, eloped on Sunday night with nothing less than three women. The absconders have gone to Chicago. Corrisse leaves a wife behind him.

The women that went with him were residents of an island in the Rideau River near Hurdman's bridge.

Has Hydrophobia Symptoms.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J., May 27.—Elmer Hardy, while at a party at the residence of a friend, was suddenly attacked last evening with convulsions, in which he exhibited the symptoms of hydrophobia. He barked, growled and snapped like a dog, and tried to bite himself and every one who approached him.

The young man has been addicted to excessive cigaret smoking, and his physician, Dr. E. H. Barber, thinks that while he is not suffering from hydrophobia, he is suffering from a very violent form of nicotine poisoning, which has affected his brain, spinal cord and heart, producing the peculiar symptoms resembling hydrophobia.

Hardy has been growing steadily worse, and four men are required to hold him constantly.

Found Dead in the Bush.

MARKDALE, Ont., May 27.—Maria Irwin, a young woman of Walters' Falls, deranged in her mind, wandered away from her home in August last.

Yesterday the children of Walter's Falls school discovered the remains in the edge of a bush but a few rods from the road.

The body was easily identified by the clothing, and had not been molested by either animal or bird.

Found Her Body in a Pond.

GALT, May 27.—The body of Mrs. Nancy Stewart, aged 68, of con. 10 Beverly, who disappeared from her home Monday, has been found in a pond near the Gore of Puslinch, about one mile from her home. It is supposed she set out from home to meet her daughter, who had gone to attend a prayer-meeting, and having lost her way accidentally fell into the pond and was drowned.

Police Chase a Thief in a Yacht.

BUFFALO, May 26.—Christopher Wolfe, wanted in Tonawanda for stealing $5 from his father, was arrested here to-day. He had shipped on the barge Clement, and the police chased him nearly five miles up the lake in a yacht. While returning to the city he jumped into the water and tried to drown himself.

Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1892.

THE Toronto News, Independent Conservative, says:—"Of all the titles bestowed by kingly caliber upon [illegible] valve, Hyde, Hastings, and asked for her Majesty, either [illegible] on any previous occasion, none was better deserved than the one conferred upon the Premier of Ontario. Personally incorruptible, head of one of the best governments that has ever existed in Canada, thoroughly loyal to the Dominion and the Empire, Mr. Mowat stands to-day without a superior in these confederated provinces."

HER MAJESTY may be quite certain that at least one of the titles she bestowed on May 24th will be sustained by dishonourable or dishonest acts of the bearer. She knows that even if she lived to see her 146th instead of her 73rd birthday, she would never find Sir Oliver Mowat ejected from a Cabinet for assisting in the robbery of the public treasury. She knows that Sir Oliver will ennoble rather than disgrace the title she has so worthily bestowed.

No; the Empire does not need a straight-jacket—it is distinctly crazy—it has taken a very short trip and is out of its head, but it is perfectly harmless, except to its readers. The dreary drivel, to the extent of half a column, which it printed yesterday in connection with the Globe and Sir Oliver Mowat's knighthood, is not only nonsense impregnated with malice, but, too silly to be amusing. It insinuates that the Globe is hostile at heart to Sir Oliver, because the latter has accepted a title. Sir Oliver Mowat stands too high in the hearts of the people to be affected by the hostility of even a real newspaper as the Globe is—he has much more to fear from the friendship of the Empire.

L'ELECTEUR says a habitant from the Isle of Orleans entered its office the other day and complained that having brought thirty bushels of excellent potatoes to the Quebec market, he could get no more than from ten to fifteen cents a bushel for them. The editor replied that the farmers of the island had helped to elect to Parliament a member who was a protectionist and an enemy of closer trade relations with the United States, which would open the American markets to the products of Lower Canada. "You are right," said the habitant, "but with us voters sell themselves like cattle, and unfortunately those who spare a bribe have to suffer for the crime." This is true of farmers in other places.

Prison Reform.

The Prisoners' Aid Association of Canada is asking the co-operation of the press and the church in the cause of Prison Reform and in their efforts to rescue destitute and neglected children from a criminal career. It will be remembered that a commission was appointed by the Ontario Government to enquire into and report upon the cause and prevention of crime in this province. This commission reported a year ago, making some very important recommendations, and especially with regard to juvenile crime, which they found to be sadly on the increase in the province. These recommendations were unanimously endorsed by a large and most influential conference held in Toronto in November last, and composed of Prison Reform experts, representatives from all the churches and from thirty-two other bodies. They now wish the Churches to join in urging the Ontario Government to take up and deal with this important question without further delay; and they also wish the Churches to join them in petitioning the Dominion Government to co-operate with the Local Government in inaugurating these desirable reforms.

As these recommendations of the Prison Reform Commission have the hearty endorsement of our best prison experts, and as the best sentiment of the country has been shown to be wholly in their favour, we can see no reason why the inauguration of these much-needed reforms should be longer delayed; and if fresh legislation is required from the Dominion Government in order that full effect may be given to these proposed reforms, we trust such legislation will not be withheld. The Churches have all, without exception, pronounced in favour of these reforms. The second pronouncement will doubtless be more emphatic and, let us hope, more effective.

TORONTO RACES.

Another Grand Day's Sport at the Woodbine Yesterday.

TORONTO, May 26.—There was another grand day's sport at the Woodbine yesterday, and notwithstanding the unpropitious weather the attendance was large. The results follow:

Favorites were successful in five out of six races. Fleurette won at even money. Lady Superior captured the second race without odds, for or against. Richal was 5 to 2 on Evangeline won 7 to 5 against, and Tactician ran 7 to 2 to 1 against.

The sixth race was a paradox. Had it been a Surprize, there would not have been a Searle, and as there was a Searle it proved a surprize. Examined, the 12 to 5 favorite, ran third, while No. 1 and 2 started at 6 to 1 against. Flip Flap, at 9 and 3 to 1 against, was backed heavily by the stable and the accident lost a barrel of money.

"German Syrup"

The majority of well-read physicians now believe that Consumption is a germ disease. In other words, instead of dying by the constitution being killed by innumerable small creatures living in the lungs having no business there and eating them away as caterpillars do the leaves of trees.

A Germ Disease.

The phlegm that is coughed up is those parts of the lungs which have been gnawed off and destroyed. These little bacilli, as the germs are called, are too small to be seen with the naked eye, but they are very much alive just the same, and enter the body in our food, in the air we breathe, and through the pores of the skin. Thence they get into the blood and finally arrive at the lungs where they fasten and increase with frightful rapidity. Then German Syrup comes in, loosens them, kills them, expells them, heals the places they leave, and so nourish and soothe that, in a short time consumptives become germ-proof and well. ●

Offensive Sore Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—I take pleasure in testifying to the great healing qualities of your medicines. I had the misfortune to injure my leg, and through cold and neglect it broke out in a running sore, my leg becoming inflamed and very painful, and the discharge was very offensive; various remedies failed to help me when I had the good fortune to try your B. B. B. and Burdock Healing Ointment. Before I had finished the second bottle the discharge had stopped, and in two weeks more my leg was as well as ever. ULSTER OUTRAGE.

By a Question Mr. [illegible] Events of 1886

LONDON, May 26.—Mr. Thomas Sexton again referred to the alleged row at Belfast Saturday and said that he had information that entitled him to move that the House adjourn unless Mr. Jackson, Chief Secretary for Ireland, proposed a satisfactory reply.

Mr. Sexton claimed that his information was to the effect that a boy had been brutally beaten and seriously hurt by a mob of other boys solely because he was a Catholic.

He demanded to know what the Government would do in the matter and why Mr. Madden, the Attorney-General for Ireland, had made the response he did yesterday when questioned on the subject.

Mr. Morley said that the House wanted to know if the Government was fully informed as to the transaction, because in Belfast the letting out of waters was a serious thing.

Mr. Sexton said he would await a further report, and would later call attention to the origin of the Belfast riots in 1886 and the conduct of those concerned in this most significant event.

FATAL HISSES.

Tragic Death of a Performer's Wife in a Paris Theatre.

PARIS, May 26.—A terrible tragedy took place this evening in the Theatre d'Application.

The wife of a tenor named Peralde, who could not bear to hear her husband hissed by the audience, died suddenly in the lobby, her husband meanwhile continuing to sing and play his part on the stage.

The body was removed to one of the boxes and by the manager's orders the play was not interrupted.

EMPEROR NEARLY KILLED.

Thrown Into a Ditch Through the Bolting of Four Coach Horses.

BERLIN, May 26.—The Danziger Zeitung says that Emperor William narrowly escaped being killed in a runaway between Schlobitten and Proskelwitz. The Emperor was driving with Count Dohna, when the horses became unmanageable.

One of the horses fell while the carriage was being whirled along the edge of a low embankment, and the shock threw the Emperor from the driver's seat into the ditch. Fortunately he escaped with a few bruises.

A SIKH VICTORY

A Malay Leader Defeated and Driven to the Jungle.

SINGAPORE, May 25.—A detachment of Sikhs has defeated the forces under the Malay leader Matkilan, who has taken an important part in the Pahang rebellion.

The engagement took place a short distance from Raub, one of the Pahang towns in the possession of the British.

Matkilan had previous to the fight burned several villages.

The enemy has retreated to the jungle.

A Slippery Customer.

PARIS, May 25.—Thomas O'Brien, the notorious American bunco steerer, who was extradited from London to New York and subsequently escaped while in charge of officers at Rochester, N.Y., was arrested yesterday upon the arrival of the steamer Marseilles at Havre.

Two hours later he made his escape from the French police and is still at large.

It is believed that a companion of O'Brien bribed the detectives who had the bunco steerer in charge.

A Pious Empress.

LONDON, May 25.—A sensational court story comes from Vienna to the effect that the Empress of Austria wishes to retire to a convent, and that the proposal will shortly be submitted to the Austrian House of Lords.

Consumption and Lung Difficulties

Always arise from particles of corrupt matter deposited in the air cells by impure blood. Purify that stream of life and it will very soon carry off and destroy the poisonous matter, and like a crystal river flowing through a desert will bring with it and leave throughout the body the elements of health and strength. As the river, leaving the elements of fertility in its course, causes the before barren waste to bloom with flowers and fruit, so pure blood causes the frame to rejoice in strength and health, and bloom with unfading beauty. Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. A Pleasant, Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for constipation and headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy for ladies in clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1 dw

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1890.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece; frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

EXTENSIVE CHANGES IN

THOMAS KELLY'S

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PRICES WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy NOW, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

For Musical Bicyclists

An English firm is introducing to the attention of bicycle riders abroad a decided bicycle novelty. The device consists of a neat arrangement of a number of small bells, turned to scale, with corresponding spring keynotes, attachable by a light screw clamp to the handle bars. The keynotes being set at a suitable distance from the hand, the rider is enabled to manipulate them with his fingers quite easily. By special arrangement sets of bells to play in harmony can be supplied for the use of clubs, and, with a little practice, some excellent effects may thus be produced. Even with a single octave a rider has an opportunity of relieving the monotony of a solitary ride in an agreeable manner.

A Trespass Case Tried.

County Police Magistrate Edmison held a court at Norwood yesterday afternoon and tried two cases. Jas. Morrison vs. David Barrie for assault, Jas. Morrison vs. George Barrie for assault. Mr. W. F. Johnston appeared in behalf of the defendants. All the parties concerned reside in Dummer township. It appears a side road runs between the farms of the two parties who reside side by side. It is a public highway although it has never been used as such. The Barrie boys claimed exclusive privilege to the road and erected two fences across it, one at each end of the farm to prevent Morrison from using it as a lane, which he was in the habit of doing to get to the back fields of his farm. Morrison went back to plow a few days ago, leaving both the gates fastened down. The defendants put them up and on plaintiff's return from work, he threw them down again. He was met by the defendants at their home and compelled to go back to put them up. He did so and on his return was talking to Mrs. Barrie, who was seated in a wagon which was laden with furniture. The conversation grew a little warm, and Morrison, thinking that he was in danger of being hurt by the defendants, hit the horses a crack with the whip and started them off full gallop. In doing so he frightened the horses belonging to Barrie, causing them to run away and smash all the furniture in the wagon. The defendants pursued the plaintiff and caught up to him as he arrived at his father's gate. Plaintiff's father ordered them off, but they refused to go. After ordering them to decamp three times, the latter produced a cocked revolver in hurry to scan up a little. They then retired. The court fined each of the defendants $5 and costs.

Death of an Old Cupecoy Resident.

Mr. Isaac McNeely, who has been gradually failing for some time, died at his residence, Omemee, at 12 o'clock Thursday evening. He was a consistent member of the English church, highly respected in the community, and his demise is very much lamented.

Riders of Steel Steeds.

Owing to the boisterous weather last night the bicycle's could not have their weekly practice on the track of the P.A.A.A. grounds. Only two wheelmen materialized, and seeing none other of their fraternity they returned home and discomsolate. The members of the Bicycle Club don't seem to "stand in" very well with the Clerk of the Weather, as during the last three weeks rain has interfered with their hebdomidal runs. The club will send about twenty members to Kingston when the Dominion Wheelmen's Association meets there on July first.

Presbyterian General Assembly

Some of the Business to Come up Before it.

The eighteenth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, will open its sessions in the Crescent Street church, Montreal, on Wednesday, June 8th, at 7.30 p.m. The sermon will be preached by the retiring moderator, the Rev. Dr. Wardrope, Guelph. Then a new Moderator will be elected.

Among the numerous questions and items of business to come before the court are the receptions of ministers from other churches; the question of appointing a paid travelling secretary in connection with the work of foreign missions; the question of summer sessions in the colleges; reports from colleges; home and foreign mission reports; reports upon the state of religion, Sabbath schools, temperance, Sabbath observance, French evangelization, augmentation of ministers' stipends, widows' and orphans' fund, aged and infirm ministers' fund, statistics, welcome to the Jews, etc.

Between 300 and 400 Commissioners are expected to be present. The Committee of Arrangements have their hands pretty full in providing homes for such a number. It is probable that a neat pamphlet, as a souvenir of the Assembly, will be published and distributed among the visitors. Besides the list of Commissioners, and the names and addresses of their entertainers, it will contain a large amount of useful information about places of interest in Montreal, railway, postal and train service, business establishments and other matters. The getting up of this has been put into the hands of the Rev. J. Nichols and Mr. W. Drysdale.

A Sad Accident.

A Member of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F., Meets Death on the Rail.

About three o'clock yesterday afternoon word reached the C.P.R. here that a fatal accident employee of theirs, Mr. Thos. E. Shortsleeves, had been killed on the track at Buffalo Junction, near Sherbrooke, Quebec. The young man attempted to step on a through freight and it is supposed, missed his footing and fell beneath the fatal wheels. The deceased was formerly a telegraph operator at Manvers about four years ago and while stationed there joined the Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F. He was also a warm operator in Peterborough for a short time. His remains passed through here on No 5, at 5 o'clock this morning to Elora, where his relatives live and where he will be interred. A number of Oddfellows were at the station this morning. The Peterborough Lodge contributed a handsome wreath, which was placed on the coffin of their deceased brother by Bro. S. Clegg, P.G. Last evening at the regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge a resolution of condolence sympathizing with the grief-stricken family in their sorrowful loss was moved by Bro W. Cowie, P.G., seconded by Bro. A. Johnston, P.G. The secretary was instructed to draw up the resolution and forward it to the family.

The late Mr. Stevenson was an energetic young man, and during the winter months studied medicine. He had completed two years of his medical course. He made many friends in Peterborough who will regret his unfortunate demise.

A Pleasant Surprise.

George Street Sunday School Boys Remember Their Teacher.

A very pleasant surprise was accorded Mr. John Glass, teacher in George street Methodist Sunday school, last evening. The boys of his Sunday school class are very much attached to him and in order to show in some tangible manner their appreciation of his services, they met at his residence No. 566 Aylmer street, and presented him with a handsome silver-headed cane, beautifully engraved, accompanied by the following address, which was read by Master Willie Nicholls, the presentation being made by Master Fred. Braden.

To our much loved teacher, Mr. J. Glass:

DEAR SIR,—For some time it has been the earnest desire of our class to make some grateful acknowledgement of the faithful service and loving counsel bestowed by you on us; and, as a token of our regard for you, we ask you to accept this cane, trusting it will serve as a gentle reminder of the many Sunday afternoons spent with your class of boys of 1892.

(Signed)

FRED. C. BRADEN, REGGIE DIXON, MELB. GREEN, VERNON FREEBURN, ROLLIE IRWIN, WILLIE NICHOLLS, DAWSON RICHARDSON, ERNEST ROTHERFORD, GEORGE MIGHT, THOMAS BRADLEY.

Mr. Glass made a suitable reply, after which refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening spent.

Dummer.

The Late Mrs. F. MacNaughton.

It is with regret that we chronicle the death—on the 18th inst.—of Janet MacNaughton, of Dummer, relict of the late Peter MacNaughton, in the 68th year of her age. Deceased was born in the county of Lanarkshire, Scotland, on the 16th of May, 1824, and emigrated to Canada in 1831, settling in Dummer, where several years afterwards she was united in marriage to her late husband. On the death of her husband she was left with a family of eight children—the youngest a babe in her arms—to face the trials and difficulties of this world, but cheerfulness faced her responsibility, and, before her death, had the pleasure of seeing them well settled in life, all living near her except the youngest son—Dr. MacNaughton, of Westwood—and two daughters, one of whom resides at Lucknow, Ont., and the other at Elora, Ont. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and was widely known and highly esteemed. The funeral took place on Thursday and was largely attended. The grief stricken family have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.—Register.

Assessors Dead.

Mr. Robert Hall, assessor for the Township of Asphodel, died suddenly on Wednesday morning last. He was attending to his duties as assessor, and was in the township hall when he was taken ill. He was conveyed to his residence, where he died in a few hours. The funeral took place on Saturday last, and was largely attended by the residents of the township. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and was highly respected by all who knew him.

Sunday Services.

Rev. Mr. Greene will preach in St. John's church to-morrow morning and evening. In the morning he will preach a sermon to children. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. C. Davidson and Rev. C. B. Kenrick. Rev. Mr. Smethurst, of King, preached from the words, II Kings, II chapter and 9th verse. The preacher said Elijah's taking up of Elisha was a type to the Ascension of Christ taking his ascension. The speaker told the story of Elijah, of the ascension into Heaven and his throwing his cast, and how he let fall his mantle on Elisha, and how Elisha asked of Elijah that a double portion of his spirit should rest upon him. The Lord in his ascent on the Mount of Olives was our guard Elijah. Did he in his triumphant ascension not promise to the disciples what Elisha desired of Elijah, the elder son's portion? We find Christ's apostles carrying on the work. Christ came to make us happier and better. He laid down.

ORGANIC LAWS AND PRINCIPLES

which we have, even though slowly, been carrying out. He came to teach us the value of life. The world of that day did not value life then as they do now. The ancient Roman thought that he was doing an honorable thing and dying a noble death when he took his life by his own hands. In ancient time the weakly child was slain, but to-day a greater grasp and a firmer hold is put upon life which is valued beyond measure. Christ also gives the great blessing of freedom. At the time of His pilgrimage on earth the greater part of the world was in slavery or warfare. Christ's brotherly love and kindness bore fruit, and notice the results of that teaching and example to-day. In consequence we have a world of peace. God gives us grace by strengthening more and more the foundation that he witnin us. He left behind us His Spirit and promised that we should carry on His good work by His blessing and guidance. Scientists were every day finding out more about the laws and forces of nature, so Christians find out more and more the plan of God and His salvation. Christ came to give us spiritual life and freedom from sin. We recollect on this day that our Priest has gone to Heaven to intercede for us. He is unceasingly praying for us, and we remember that by His going to Heaven He left us His Holy Spirit, and this day we fittingly keep in recognition of the great event. Christ has gone from whence He came.

During the evening the choir rendered special music appropriate to the occasion. They also sang an anthem very effectively. The offertory at the close of the service was for the choir fund.

Suffering Children

Our girl was a beautiful baby, fair and plump and healthy. But when she was two years old, some humor out behind her ears and spread rapidly over her head and festered down to her eyes, and into her neck. We consulted one of the best physicians in Brooklyn, but nothing did her any good. The doctors said it was caused by a scrofula humor in the blood. Her head became offensive to the smell and dreadful to look at. Her general health waned and she would lay in a large chair all day without any life or energy. The sores caused great feebleness and burning, so that at times we had to restrain her hands to prevent scratching. For 2 years with this terrible humor. Being urged to try Hood's Sarsaparilla we did so. We soon noticed that she had more life and appetite. The medicine seemed to drive out more of the humor for a short time, but it soon began to subside, the itching and burning ceased, and in a few months her head became entirely healed. She is now perfectly well, not a particle of the humor, and her skin is clear and healthy. She seems like an entirely different child, in health and general appearance from what she was before taking

She Suffered Fearfully

When the Weather Is out of Joint!

The weather at this writing suggests Waterproofs, Mackintoshes and Umbrellas, of which we have a complete assortment.

For utility, comfort and appearance, there is no substitute for a Mackintosh when the weather is out of joint. Give a lady her waterproof or gossamer and she is prepared for any kind of weather. We have some of the finest goods that are made, and in entirely new patterns. We have made a deep cut in the prices, so we can offer some as low as $2.00 for a quality that has the touch of a kid glove.

At $1.25 we offer an umbrella that is impervious to water and the strength of which would test the fury of a Kansas cyclone. Recent purchases enable us to offer a large lot of umbrellas at much below regular values.

Umbrellas re-covered while you wait.

We have an important special sale of Prints and Dress Goods going on at present. We venture a good deal by putting them down to the nominal prices they are selling at, but a clearance must be made at once. Purchasers need not fear that the bargains are all gone, for if the rush continues for a month there would still be astonishing bargains left.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

[From London Advertiser, Advertiser Co. & DOMINION.]

Mr. Amyot moved an amendment to the motion that the Speaker do now leave the chair for the consideration of the Supply bill in Committee.

Dr. Landerkin, M.P., seconded the amendment.

Hon. Mr. Angers, in speaking on the question, said that he would not enter into anything in the way of political discussion with regard to this question of the preservation of the fisheries. He thought there would be no difficulty, as the opposite side of the House would be prepared to vote for the amendment. He would point out that the control of any difference of opinion as to the admission of any vessel in question to its waters away and reported to the House.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the competence to any way. He held that the only place to try the charges against the Fisheries Protection was the House of Commons. This was the first time that a Minister had taken exception and the House had refused to make the investigation which had proposed to refer the matter to a tribunal appointed by the accused himself. In every previous case he held the House had made the investigation itself, quoted the cases of the Pacific Scandal in 1873, the Rykert matter in 1880 and the Tarte-McGreevy charges of last year. He contended that the charges now brought were not those made by the member for West Ontario (Mr. Edgar), and pointed out that the 10th charge, which referred to the expenditure of $100,000 in 22 counties, was omitted altogether. It had been stated that to take up this charge would be to virtually try 22 election cases, but he did not agree with this and argued briefly that this matter of the hundred thousand dollars should be fully investigated. In conclusion, he moved an amendment:

That the charges preferred against the Postmaster-General by the member for West Ontario be referred to a select committee of five members to be struck by the House.

Hon. Mr. Mills seconded the amendment, after which the debate was continued by Messrs. Chapleau, Flint, Davin and Fraser up to recess.

After recess Mr. Fraser concluded his remarks, and was followed by Sir John Thompson, who made a short speech. He replied generally to the objections to a commission taken by the Opposition, and referring specially to the statement that the charges had been narrowed down, said that if Mr. Edgar or any one else had any other charges to ask he would guarantee that if they were made specifically they would be referred to the present or some other committee.

The debate was continued until 11.30, when the members were called in, and after Major Sam Hughes had warbled a sweet little ditty, the House divided and Mr. Laurier's amendment was lost, yeas 32, nays 79.

Sir John Thompson's motion was then carried by 47 majority, and the House adjourned at 11.50.

Wonderful Stories Afloat—Proof in the Shape of Nuggets—A Veritable Klondike—Speculation Rife.

Victoria, B.C., May 23.—Wonderful stories from Lillooet district that an entire Indian family, consisting of parents and three children, have been murdered. The family, which lived at Anderson Lake, went to Bridge River to work the Place Diggins, as was their annual custom, about March 20.

A day or two ago two Indians called at their tent on the bank of the river. Examination showed bloodstains on the sack of flour and a pillow, marks on the rocks and ground where bodies were dragged to the river, and hair and bloodstains on the rocks. BESSIE MAY PRIDHAM.

Saved From a Life of Misery!

A Bad Case of St. Vitus' Dance—A Young Girl Terribly Afflicted—Paine's Celery Compound Cures Her After Skilled Physicians Fail—Neighbors and Friends Astonished—Glad News For Fathers and Mothers.

Grateful parents speak with joy and pleasure regarding the wonderful effects of Paine's Celery Compound when used for the diseases of children. Loving fathers and mothers are terribly distressed when they see their little ones suffer from month to month, and continually getting worse, even while under medical treatment.

Experience has amply demonstrated the truth of the assertion, that Paine's Celery Compound, as a medicine, has no equal for all diseases which have their origin in the nervous system.

Chorea, or St. Vitus' Dance, is common with the young; is a terribly dangerous nerve disease which requires special attention and treatment. Thousands of boys and girls have spent their lives in misery and torture owing to the neglect of parents, and improper treatment by doctors.

A nerve disease requires a nerve food—a medicine that will strengthen and brace up the great nerve system. There is only one agent known to the medical faculty that can bring about these desired results, it is Paine's Celery Compound.

A letter or testimonial has just been received from a well known photographer, of Amherst, N. S., Mr. D. R. Pridham, which tells of the extraordinary cure of his little daughter by Paine's Celery Compound. The little girl's condition was dangerous—critical—and her disease caused the parents great fear and alarm.

The publication of this letter will, no doubt, cause many parents to think deeply, and will be the means of convincing thousands of the necessity of using the same means that so quickly restored to perfect health and vitality a loved daughter.

Mr. Pridham, under date of May 9th, writes as follows:

"It is with profound gratitude that I now give you my opinion of your valuable remedy, so well known as Paine's Celery Compound.

"About five years ago my daughter's health became so impaired that we felt very anxious concerning her. She complained of severe pains in the left side, also on the top of her head, and in the spine. The pains gradually got worse until she lost control of her limbs; we even found that her speech was affected.

"We consulted several skilled physicians. They pronounced it Chorea or St. Vitus' Dance. The doctors prescribed various remedies for three years without affording any relief. She was so badly afflicted that she could not eat or sleep. She could not put a cup to her mouth at her will.

"After all other resources were exhausted I was advised by a friend to try your Paine's Celery Compound. I resolved to give it a test, and immediately purchased five bottles and began to give it to my daughter according to directions. As soon as the fourth bottle was finished I was agreeably surprised to notice a marked change for the better, so I continued with the Compound, and she rapidly improved. When the fifth bottle was done she was in perfect health, and as far as I could see, completely cured. She has taken no medicine for four months and goes to school regularly. Many thanks for your valuable remedy, Paine's Celery Compound.

"Yours truly,
"D. R. PRIDHAM,
"Photographer."

—The Bobcaygeon Independent says that progress is being made in the repairs to the canal works at that rustic hamlet. The water has been shut off, and the stone piers for the swing bridge are being rebuilt. The new lock gates will soon be in their place, and the water will be let into the canal at the earliest moment.

It is not theory but fact—that Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the work strong. A fair trial will convince you of its merit.

News About Town

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with coughs, sore throat, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles cost 50c and $1. dw

It is a very sad thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung troubles, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is taken regularly. Spread the news everywhere that this great emulsion will make flesh and blood, cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throats, and lung troubles tending to consumption. In big bottles 50c. and $1. at Peterborough drug stores. dw

LORD SALISBURY'S FALL.

Thrown From His Carriage in the Streets Of a Runaway

LONDON, May 27.—Lord Salisbury, the Prime Minister, had a narrow escape from serious injury and death this morning.

He was passing through St. James' square when the spirited team of horses attached to his carriage took fright at something in the street and bolted. The horses dashed [illegible] and collided with a hansom cab, the carriage was overturned, and Lord Salisbury was pitched out of the carriage through a window. He was severely shaken up, but was quite cool. In response to anxious inquiries from the bystanders he said he was not hurt in any way.

The coachman was thrown from the box and sustained severe injuries.

Lord Salisbury appeared to be more concerned about him than about himself.

PARIS, May 27.—M. Deloporte-Lassimonne, husband of the woman who was killed by Mme. Reymond, last Saturday night, refuses to allow her body to be buried in the family vault. He declares that her life was such that she was not worthy to lie beside the bodies of his dead relatives.

There is still no trace of M. Reymond, and the suspicion grows that he has made away with himself.

COPENHAGEN, May 27.—The fetes in honor of the golden wedding of the King and Queen of Denmark began yesterday.

Queen Victoria has sent an autograph letter to the King and Queen congratulating them upon the happy occasion. Among the presents received are a costly chandelier from Emperor William and a marble statue from the Prince of Wales. The children of Denmark have subscribed for a golden wreath to be presented to the royal couple.

There is a special jubilee charity fund which amounts to 150,000 kroners.

The throng of princes and royal visitors, with their suites, is so great that accommodations can not be found for all in the various royal palaces. Many visitors are consequently lodged in private apartments.

Early in the day all the chorus societies proceeded to the Amelienborg Palace and serenaded the King and Queen and their Imperial and Royal guests.

King Christian, who was seen standing by a window with his guests, stooped and lifting in his arms his great grandchild, Prince George, infant son of the Crown Prince of Greece, stepped out on the balcony. His Majesty thanked the singers for the great pleasure they had given him, and his remarks were greeted with cheers from the singers and vast throng that had congregated at the palace.

At 1 o'clock there was a grand procession of the imperial and royal personages from the palace to Christianborg Church, where divine service was held.

The procession included the King and Queen of Denmark, the Czar and Czarina, the King and Queen of Greece, the Prince and Princess of Wales and their two daughters, Princess Victoria and Princess Maud, and the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland.

The Czar was attired in the uniform of the Danish Life Guards, and the King of Greece wore the uniform of an admiral of the Danish navy.

The procession was halted to enable the King to receive addresses that were presented by various deputations and by the municipal authority.

WOULD NOT TOAST THE POPE.

French Catholics Deny His Right to Interfere in Politics.

PARIS, May 27.—A very important document, the author of which is a person of high standing in the French Catholic party, is published yesterday. The document is a complete history of the late Catholic congress, and the writer clearly shows that it resulted in the Catholics refusing to recognize the Pope's right to interfere in French politics. Indeed, the relations between the Holy See and the Catholics were so strained that the congress did not return thanks for the papal benediction, which was sent on the understanding that the Catholics assembled at the congress would recognize the necessity of laying down arms which they had taken up against the Republic. Moreover, at the official breakfast, with which the congress was closed, the leaders of the Catholic party refused to propose the time-honored toast in honor of the Pope, and it was an obscure Catholic who finally proposed the toast.

Mr. Hugh Caldwell, Clydesdale, Ont., writes:—My daughter was troubled with female weakness, and for more than a year was under the care of doctors and taking medicine without getting relief. Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. "August Flower"

I had been troubled five months with Dyspepsia. The doctors told me it was chronic. I had a fullness after eating and a heavy load in the pit of my stomach. I suffered frequently from a Water Brash of clear matter. Sometimes a deathly Sickness at the Stomach would overtake me. Then again I would have the terrible pains of Wind Colic. At such times I would try to belch and could not. I was working then for Thomas McHenry, Druggist, Cor. Irwin and Western Ave., Allegheny City, Pa., in whose employ I had been for seven years. Finally I used August Flower, and after using just one bottle for two weeks, was entirely relieved of all the trouble. I can now eat things I dared not touch before. I would like to refer you to Mr. McHenry, for whom I worked, who knows all about my condition, and from whom I bought the medicine. I live with my wife and family at 39 James St., Allegheny City, Pa. LeBRUN'S OLD STAND,

GEORGE STREET.

The Dear Wife and Mother.

Nervousness the Chief Cause.

Many a dear wife and loving mother in Canada to day, is fretting, pining and wasting away, and husband and friends wonder why this should be. The physician has been called in, and sage individuals have gravely given their opinions. A score of ailments are named—guessed at—but still the patient woman suffers. She goes on using remedies that are of little use; in the majority of cases these remedies rather aggravate the disease and tend to greater weakness.

The woman of our country suffer largely from nervous diseases caused by overwork, worry, excitement and badly ventilated dwellings. Nervousness is detected in the face and eyes; sleeplessness, irritability, morbidness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and neuralgia break them down and make them wrecks on life's sea.

Ordinary drugs and patent medicines cannot restore health, strength and vitality. It requires a special nerve food, an agent that will build and vitalize. There is only one acknowledged remedy for this great work; it is Paine's Celery Compound, which acts quickly, powerfully and gently on the great nerve system. Physician knew it, and acknowledge its power and superiority over all other medicines; thousands of our best Canadian people have used it and have found new life, strength and vitality. The women of Canada have reason to be thankful for the existence of Paine's Celery Compound. We believe they are truly grateful, their letters and testimonials prove it. We are in a position to know that, to day, hundreds of loving wives and mothers are ministering to their families, who, had it not been for the life-giving power of Paine's Celery Compound, would now be in the silent tomb.

Wives, mothers, your condition is serious; you owe a duty to your family and friends; act wisely and intelligently; act quickly and with decision.

"Reptile" Campaign

The Ottawa Journal (Independent Conservative) says:—"The Globe's revelations of the campaign methods of 1887 should be enough to make Canadians who are not office-seekers or hunters for patronage blush for shame and determine that so far as they can help a new leaf shall be turned in our politics." True. The first step would be to get rid of the guilty men—to punish the Ministers who organized the repulsive and drive from public life all who took money from them for boodle purposes. But, unhappily, that is a stupendous task under existing conditions. The bribery conducted on system for the last thirteen or fourteen years has impaired the moral fibre of the whole people. It is certainly useless to look for reform within the Tory party. All the same, the Journal deserves credit for the efforts it is putting forth to revive political virtue, even though, as far as its party is concerned, it be but a voice crying to solitude.

The best of all ways
To lengthen our days
Is to use Pierce's Purgative Pellets, Sir!

For nine tenths of the diseases of the body begin with constipation or the clogging up of the sluice-ways, through which the impurities of the blood escape, so that they are reabsorbed into the system. The Purgative Pellets act gently but thoroughly upon the stomach and liver, and are the best laxative known. Without racking and straining the organs, they open the bowels and restore a natural, healthy digestion. Unequaled in dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, piles, or any of the resulting diseases. o

An Honour to Uncle Sam.

The House of Representatives at Washington has taken the very important step of passing a resolution declaring that the appropriation for the World's Fair shall not be paid unless the doors of the Exposition shall be closed on Sunday. Their action will be adversely criticised in some quarters, and there will be some grumbling from European visitors who are not accustomed to a strict observance of the day; but in the churches there will be great rejoicings, and the action of the House will be strongly commended.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the merit by which Hood's Sarsaparilla has won such a firm hold upon the confidence of the people.

No Other combines the economy and strength which make "100 Doses One Dollar" true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Possesses the Combination, Proportion, and Process which make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for constipation and headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy for ladies in clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1 dw

D. L. Caven, Toronto, Travelling Passenger Agent, C.P.R., says: Ani-Dandruff is a perfect remover of Dandruff—its action is marvellous—in my own case a few applications not only thoroughly removed excessive dandruff accumulation, but stopped falling of the hair, made it soft and pliable and promoted a visible growth. dw

Cure For Chapped Hands.

Dear Sirs,—I think it is a privilege to recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for chapped hands, swellings, sore throat, etc. I recommend it to all.
dw Mrs. Geo. Ward, Josephine, Ont.

Offensive Sore Cured.

Dear Sirs,—I take pleasure in testifying to the great healing qualities of your medicines. I had the misfortune to injure my leg, and through cold and neglect it broke out in a running sore, my leg becoming inflamed and very painful, and the discharge was very offensive; various remedies failed to help me when I had the good fortune to try your B. B. B. and Burdock Healing Ointment. Before I had finished the second bottle the discharge had stopped, and in two weeks more my leg was as well as ever. I feel justified in recommending it to the public as a cure if only given a fair trial.
dw Geo. Laurie, Portage la Prairie, Man.

If there ever was a specific for any one complaint, then Carter's Little Liver Pills are a specific for each headache, and every woman should know this. Only one pill a dose. Try them. dw

No Time Should Be Lost

Slight symptoms and little troubles should not be given undue importance, but when the kidneys and women should be on guard to the many symptoms which indicate disease of the kidneys and liver. The comforts of true life are often shut out by a lazy liver. Note some of the symptoms: a constipated state of the bowels, pain in the small of the back, often acute and severe, a feeling of lassitude and weakness, furred tongue, and offensive breath.

When any of these serious and distressing symptoms are experienced, the true path out of all difficulties and dangers in the use of that old and tried remedy, Kidney-Wort. This valuable preparation acts immediately upon the kidneys, liver and bowels, restores perfect and harmonious action, and confidence in a vigorous digestion.

Kidney-Wort in the past has saved thousands of valuable lives when other remedies proved unavailing.

BABIES OF NO ACCOUNT.

Their Market Value in New York Exactly $1 Apiece.

New York, May 27.—A borrowed baby, and a pauper baby, too, has just saved the life of one of the wealthiest society ladies of this metropolis.

Early yesterday a fine carriage was driven hastily up before the Bellevue Hospital and a lady, alighting, begged of the matron the loan of a little baby for a few days. Minnie Jones, a young mother, was easily persuaded to surrender up her two-weeks' old babe. The visitor gave her name as Miss Charlotte Pace.

The infant was without delay whirled away to the fine mansion at 311 Fifth-avenue with the aristocratic name "Le Grand B. Cannon" on the doorplate. It was learned that some lady within was very ill and had the delusion that she was the mother of a child. Her continual cries for her baby had really made her ill. Miss Pace was a professional nurse.

"I often get babies for my patients," said she. "I can get them for $1 apiece. They are cheaper than puppies."

CONNY VANDERBILT MAY DIE.

The Father Utterly Prostrated by the Death of His Son, William H.

New York, May 27.—It is feared that Cornelius Vanderbilt's mind may become unbalanced because of his grief for the death of his eldest son, William H. He is watched constantly and at night some one sits up in his bedroom. The distracted father is utterly prostrated and his mind has been seriously affected by the shock of his bereavement.

Shot by His Cousin.

Emerson, Man., May 27.—Silas Parks was accidentally shot by his cousin yesterday. The ball entered his back. He will likely recover.

Rescued the Prisoner.

Berlin, Ont., May 27.—One of the excursionists who accompanied the West Toronto Orangemen to this town was placed in the lockup on a charge of drunkenness. Shortly afterwards a number of his friends proceeded to the lockup, broke open the door and released the prisoner.

No trace could be found of the culprits and nothing has been done.

Suicide from an Ocean Steamer.

New York, May 27.—The Inman line steamship City of Paris arrived yesterday. Capt. Watkins reported that on May 21 John Henry, a second cabin passenger, committed suicide by jumping overboard. It is supposed that he was temporarily deranged. He boarded the ship at Queenstown and had no one with him.

Like a Mad Dog He Died.

Bridgeport, N.J., May 27.—Jarvis Woodruff of No. 6 Mount Vernon-street, this city, died yesterday after suffering two days with all the symptoms of hydrophobia.

Mr. Woodruff was at work last October in the glass factory of Moore, Jonas & Moore, when he was bitten by a bull dog. Nothing more was thought of the affair until two days ago, when he began to have spasms at intervals. Steadily the stricken man grew worse and finally became so violent that it was with the greatest difficulty that his attendants, two stalwart men, could control him.

Dr. Smith said he believed it was a clear case of rabies.

Consumption and Lung Difficulties

Always arise from particles of corrupt matter deposited in the air cells by impure blood. Purify that stream of life and it will very soon carry off and destroy the poisonous matter, and like a crystal river flowing through a desert will bring with it and leave throughout the body the elements of health and strength. As the river, leaving the elements of fertility in its course, causes the before barren waste to bloom with flowers and fruit, so pure blood causes the frame to rejoice in strength and health, and bloom with unfading beauty. All medicine dealers sell Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. dw

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS

Norman, Ont., January 15, 1891.

W. H. Comstock, Brockville, Ont.

Dear Sir,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. Atwell.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be

An Explosion at the Edison Works.

Yesterday afternoon about half past five o'clock an explosion of a mild character took place at the Edison Works. A large sheet iron oven measuring about 16 x 24 closed in with brick work, used for baking armatures, suddenly exploded with a loud report, hurling the roof of the oven entirely off and scattering the brickwork. The sides of the oven remained intact with the exception of a few heavy cracks in the brickwork. One man in passing the front of the oven at the time of the explosion, had his whiskers and hair badly singed and narrowly escaped serious injury. The cause of the explosion is not exactly known, but it is supposed to be from the accumulation of gases evolved from the baking armatures, at a high temperature. Work will not be stopped in that department, but the oven will be rebuilt at once.

Lake Navigation and G. T. R. Suburban Trains.

In view of the intention of the Grand Trunk railway to begin of the running of the summer train service on the Lakefield and Chemong branches on June 26th, the travelling public and the navigation interests of the northern lakes require that this date be anticipated by a fortnight—the summer service should be in operation by the 15th of June at the latest. Of course the Grand Trunk conducts this service on business principles and it is submitted that, with this in view, the earlier date for opening the summer train service would pay. Excursions have already begun and the traffic lost between the 15th and 26th would be no inconsiderable item. The public would be delighted with the adoption of the 15th of June for beginning the summer train service and the steamer owners whose interests are, in this matter, in sympathy with the railway, would be delighted.

First of the Season.

The band concert given in the Grand House Park last night was was a great success. Hundreds lined the various walks and avenues, listening to the several selections discoursed during the evening, and were charmed by the fine music rendered. The evening was cool and pleasant, and from the first selection to "God Save the Queen," those present spent the time supremely. One thing noticeable by all is that the band stand is far too small to accommodate the members of the band who were 30 strong last night.

A Baby Changes Hands.

The population of Peterborough has been increased, rather involuntarily, however, at the expense of Toronto. A Peterborough lady encountered a respectable appearing woman at the Union station, Toronto, yesterday, with an infant in her arms. The stranger requested the town lady to hold the child a moment, while she looked after her baggage, and she, consulting only the impulse of a kind heart than the promptions of calculating prudence, complied. Of course the mother did not return for her child, which Mrs. ——— ——, unable to get rid of otherwise, was compelled to bring home with her. Inside the child's clothing was a note from its mother to the effect that she had determined to leave it with the first lady whose face won her confidence, and beseeching that if it were not claimed within a month "for God's sake not to desert it."

Gun Club Match.

The Wind Protects the Birds, Causing the Score to be Very Low.

A Gun club match took place on the Riverside Park yesterday afternoon between sides captained by Capt. R. Tivey and vice-Pres. J. D. Collins. The former side won by 13 birds. The wind was very strong, blowing mainly from the south west, protecting the bird and also causing them to go very irregularly in their flight. Five rounds were shot and the highest score made was 9 birds by Capt. Tivey. Messrs. John Clancy and J. Nugent are new members of the club and had their first practice yesterday. Another match will take place this afternoon. Following is the score of yesterday's match:—

FOR RATEPAYERS' READING

Sewerage Scheme Correspondence.

Copy of the Correspondence Which Has Passed Between Mr. Alfred Hawkesley, C.E., and the Chairman of Committee of the Lower Chemong and Assessment of the Municipalities of the Original Fifth.

The town clerk has handed the EXAMINER the following correspondence, a perusal of which will enlighten the ratepayers upon some details of which they have not hereto-fore been possessed:

MR. CAHILL'S FIRST LETTER.

PETERBOROUGH, April 11th, 1892.

DEAR SIR,—I was pleased to see by Dr. Bryce's letter that you are coming here with him for Saturday next. I wish to submit the following for your consideration in order that you may have time to consider the matter.

I. Will the grades admit of the sewers being raised, say 2 feet, that is, make the cutting 2 feet less at the lowest point?

II.—Would a 20 or 22 inch pipe be sufficient to carry off the sewage at the outfall for the next ten years, supposing 40 per cent. of the present population (10,000) were to use the sewers?

III.—If so, would a large saving be made in the outlay?

IV.—What are the reasons for adopting the present route for the outfall in preference to Park street?

I am, sir, yours etc.,
THOS. CAHILL

MR. MACDOUGALL'S REPLY.

TORONTO, April 14th, 1892

Mr. Alderman Cahill, Chairman Sewerage Committee, Peterborough:

DEAR SIR,—I have perused the questions you ask in yours of the 11th:

I.—Regarding the depth, I presume you allude chiefly to Aylmer street sewer. All the sewers can be raised to be nine feet deep, if found necessary, except George street, which must be deep enough for cellar drainage. Aylmer street sewer can also be raised, subject to certain questions of sewers on side streets, which can be discussed later on. To raise Aylmer street sewer will make a saving in cost.

II.—A 24 inch pipe will carry off the sewage of 10,000 people with a modification of the present proposed grade on the outfall sewer.

III.—By using a 24-inch pipe, a considerable saving can be effected in the outfall sewer.

IV.—Lock street was chosen for the outfall, (a) to catch the George street sewer, (b) because the land is lower on Lock street than on Park street, and (c) because it is the shortest line to the river. There is considerable fall in the land from Monaghan road eastward on Lake street and the others to the south of it.

Faithfully yours,
ALLAN MACDOUGALL.

MR. CAHILL'S SECOND LETTER.

PETERBOROUGH, May 9th, 1892.

DEAR SIR,—We have considered to submit to you for definite answer the following questions and also to ask your opinion on the subject as a whole.

I.—What is the smallest size pipe you would consider safe to put down for main and outfall sewer, which would answer the requirements of our present population, (10,300) say, for 10 years, assuming that 50 per cent were using the sewers?

II.—Can the building of the main sewer from Townsend to Lake and on Lake to George street be dispensed with for the present and be made subsequently part of the system? If so decided upon, and that only on George street be built at present including the outfall of course?

III.—Can the grade of the whole system be raised and to what extent?

IV—In the event of the whole of these changes or any of them being feasible, what would be the probable saving in cost?

I might say that my own ideas are that it might be found economical to put down a smaller outfall sewer than was at first intended, and if the population increases and they use the sewers largely and more particularly, if that portion of the town south of Chamberlain street and west of Aylmer street should be fairly built up within the next ten years, it might be found advisable to run a pipe down Park street to the river, thereby relieving the present (proposed) main outfall sewer.

I shall be glad to hear from you as soon as you find it convenient on these points and any further suggestions and recommendations you may think advisable to make.

I am, yours etc.,
THOS. CAHILL

MR. MACDOUGALL'S REPLY.

TORONTO, May 19.

Mr. Councillor Cahill, Chairman Committee on Sewerage:

DEAR SIR,—I take leave to reply to your letter of the 9th, in which certain questions are put to me.

Given a population of 10,000, 50 per cent, of whom are using the sewers, what is the smallest sized pipe I would consider safe to put in for the outfall?

I. I propose to stop the trunk sewer on Aylmer street, and carry it down Townsend after discharging all the storm water at the crossing of the creek; the sewage only will be carried to the George street sewer. I propose to make George street the trunk sewer, and carry it to the river along Lock street. I find this will raise the grade of the outfall sewer all the way from Sherbrooke street, and make less cutting. I find that if the foregoing arrangement is carried out a fifteen-inch pipe is the smallest which can be used.

II. The building of a large sewer on Aylmer street can be dispensed with by draining the sewers into George street at Sherbrooke and making that the trunk sewer.

III. I cannot advise your committee to lay any sewers at a less depth than 9 feet, and so far as the 9 inch sewers are concerned I do not think any saving can be made in their price. When the level of running sand is struck it will be advantageous to raise the grade and avoid this material.

IV. In the event of the above named changes being carried out the cost of the trunk sewer will be as follows:

One lineal foot 15 inch pipe, double at canal railway culvert pipe	$12,940
Manholes, $6.0, penstock and flushing, $140	1,200
Steel pipe to river	800
Alterations on Townsend street, say	800
	$15,640
The cost of outfall as per estimate	$21,560
Brick sewer on Aylmer	7 7 8
15 inch pipe on George	3 575
Saving	$17,185

I find on plotting the levels of Park street which you sent me the other day, that it will be practicable to lay a sewer on that street, from Townsend to the river, which can be made the main sewer if the population exceeds the capacity of the sewer laid on Lock street. I find that this sewer can connect to the system as designed; it will be deeper than the Lock street sewer, and will be 7,000 feet long.

I would suggest that you adopt an 18 inch sewer for the outfall; this will suffice for 10 years, and will be cheaper in the end than 15-inch.

The grade of the outfall is so flat, it will be necessary to keep it more than half full to have it self-cleansing.

I have read Mr. Fitzgerald's letter in the EXAMINER of the 14th. I find nothing in it to remark upon, the alterations proposed by your letter of the 9th, to which this is an answer, covers all the grounds.

Respectfully Submitted,
ALLAN MACDOUGALL.

SUMMARY OF PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH REPORT.

The following is from the report of the Provincial Board of Health giving their consent to the sewerage system under certain conditions. The report is all summed up in the following:

1st. Your committee approves of the plans of separate sewerage prepared for the town of Peterborough by their engineer, Mr. Macdougall.

2nd. That in view of the partial expense incidental to any scheme your committee deems it desirable that the amount of money required to be raised in the town at first be the smallest compatible with the character of good work.

3rd. That for several years the work will not be so much that of carrying sewage as of house water and cellar drainage, and hence the pollution of the river will not be large.

4th. That while the Board approves of the placing of the sewerage in the river for the present, it does so on conditions-viz., that whatever pollution is complained of and can be fairly shown to be productive of results prejudicial to the interests of the town or individuals either in the town or immediate, the town must then complete the system as outlined in the report by spreading for the filtration of the sewerage and other methods satisfactory to this Board before fowing the effluent into the river.

5th. That the town must undertake from the beginning the control of those industries as woollen mills, tanneries, etc., whose wastes may injure crops, etc., either by the odour or the heats developed by it. This precaution is necessary in order that the town may be free from any action for damages which might be brought by individuals using cattle pastoring on the flats below. It is the understanding that the proposed plans set forth in Mr. Macdougall's report comprise such as will meet the views of Peterborough's moderately patient existing interests in other sewer polities, your committee would recommend the scheme for the approval of the Board.

(Signed)
PETER H. SMITH,
J. D. MACDONALD,
H. VAUX.

KISHEGOO—Suddenly at Chemong on Friday, May 27th, 1892, Adelaide Crowe, daughter of Jeremiah Crowe, Hiawatha, and wife of Isaiah Kishgoo, aged 24 years.

TERRIBLE ITCHING

Used Everything Five Months. In Three Weeks not a Scar or Pimple. Cured by Cuticura.

When my baby was three months old his cheeks and forehead began to break out with white pimples on red surface. In a few days itching commenced, which was terrible. After he would rub it, matter would come from the points. In a short time it spread over the top of his head, then scabs soon formed on head and face. We used everything we could hear of for nearly five months. It grew worse all the time. I saw your advertisement of the CUTICURA REMEDIES in the "Chicago Weekly." We purchased CUTICURA REMEDIES and commenced their use. In three weeks' time there was not a sore or pimple, not even a scar, on head or face. He is nineteen months old now, and has no signs of the disease. His scalp is healthy and he has a beautiful head of hair. (See portrait herewith.)

MRS. OSCAR JAMES, Woodston, Kan.

My infant, eighteen months old, was afflicted with skin eruptions on his hips. Bad sores came on other parts. All remedies failed until I procured CUTICURA. Cured by use and no return of disease.

MRS. A. M. WALKER, Carsonville, Ga.

When the Weather Is out of Joint!

The weather at this writing suggests Waterproofs, Mackintoshes and Umbrellas of which we have a complete assortment.

For utility, comfort and appearance, there is no substitute for a Mackintosh when the weather is out of joint. Give a lady her waterproof or gossamer and she is prepared for any kind of weather. We have some of the finest goods that are made, and in entirely new patterns. We have made a deep cut in the prices, as we can offer some as low as $2.00 for a quality that has the touch of a kid glove.

At $1.95 we offer an umbrella that is impervious to water and the strength of which would test the fury of a Kansas cyclone. Recent purchases enable us to offer a large lot of umbrellas at much below regular values.

Umbrellas re-covered while you wait.

We have an important special sale of Prints and Dress Goods going on at present. We venture a good deal by putting them down to the nominal prices they are selling at, but a clearance must be made at once. Purchasers need not fear that the bargains are all gone, for if the rush continues for a month there would still be astonishing bargains left.

ONTARIO'S LT.-GOVERNOR

HONORABLE GEORGE KIRKPATRICK SECURES THE OFFICE.

At a Meeting of the Cabinet Saturday the Member for Cornwall Was Chosen and Accepted the Position—To Be Sworn In To-day and to Enter Upon His Duties at Once.

OTTAWA, May 30.—The question of the Lieutenant-Governorship of Ontario was settled at Saturday's meeting of the Council by the appointment of the Hon. George A. Kirkpatrick, M.P. for Frontenac, ex-Speaker of the House of Commons, and a member of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Canada.

It is understood that Hon. Mr. Kirkpatrick will be sworn in to-morrow and leave for Toronto at once.

The appointment is [illegible] and gives excellent satisfaction.

OTTAWA, May 30.—It is expected that Mr. [illegible] motion about the dual language and separate schools in the Manitoba will occupy the attention of the House the greater part of this afternoon and evening, with a few questions by members, motions for papers and private bills sandwiched in.

The motion is pretty certain of defeat, the only question being whether it will receive more than the 32 votes Mr. McCarthy's bill to the same effect got.

Canada at the Worlds Fair.

OTTAWA, May 30.—Professor Saunders, Canadian Commissioner to the Chicago Columbian Exhibition, left last year, has returned from a trip to Queenscland the Maritime Provinces, where he saw the Governments of all the provinces, except New Brunswick, the members of which happened to be absent at the time of his visit, and received most satisfactory assurances of the hearty co-operation of the Provincial Governments with the Dominion Government in having Canada creditably represented at the World's Fair. Special care will be taken with regard to the fruits and cereals of the different provinces, and Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island will each have a fine display of fish and fish products, while Quebec will furnish a lumber trophy and other suitable displays.

Altogether it looks as if Canada might repeat the Centennial Exhibition in 1876.

SAME OLD STORY.

Tragic Death of a Farmer's Son in South Easthope.

LISTOWEL, Ont., May 30.—Several years ago Joseph Dietrich of South Easthope loaded a gun and placed it on top of the cupboard, where it was entirely forgotten. Mrs. Dietrich had placed it on a table in the room, not knowing it was loaded. During her temporary absence her 7-year-old son entered the room, and seeing the pistol took it from the table and went outside. The hired man, noticing the boy with the pistol, went to take it from him, when in the effort it was discharged, the contents passing into the abdomen of the little 5-year-old boy who was standing close by. The ball passed downwards into the thigh, from which it was extracted by the doctor, but the boy only lived a short time.

DROWNING RECORD.

Result of Attempting to Change Positions in a Small Rowboat.

QUEBEC, May 30.—A party of four excursionists en route from Montmorency Falls to the Island of Orleans attempted to change positions in a small rowboat, which upset. Foreman McClure of the Montmorency Cotton Mills and A. Marquis, station agent of the Montmorency Railroad, were drowned.

Under His Skiff Dead.

GANANOQUE, Ont. May 30.—William Latimer, a River St. Lawrence boatman well known to summer tourists, was found drowned yesterday at a point west of Grindstone Island in Canadian waters.

When discovered the tiller rope was found to be wound around his wrist and the skiff bottom up.

Drowned While Logging.

OTTAWA, May 30.—James McCormack, employed on Gilmour & Higbson's boom near Chelsea, was drowned yesterday while booming logs.

Judge Skinner Drowned.

OTTAWA, May 30.—Last night Mr. Skinner, M.P. for St. John, received intelligence of the drowning of his brother, Judge Skinner, and left for St. John, N.B., to-day in the Sault train. It appears that Judge Skinner formed one of a fishing party en route to Indiatown on the north side of the Miramichi River when their canoe capsized and Judge Skinner was drowned. Up to Saturday night the body had not been recovered. The deceased was junior by a couple of years of his brother the member.

HAD TWO WIVES.

One of Whom He Married on a Trip to Canada.

MEDINA, N.Y., May 30.—Quite a sensation was caused here Saturday by the announcement that A. B. Hathaway, who died here a few days ago, had two wives living at the time of his death. Hathaway was over 80 years old. After the death of his wife he married again, but was separated from No. 2, who went west.

A certain Mrs. Croxen was in the meantime taken into the employ of Mr. Hathaway as housekeeper. Last summer the pair took a trip to Canada, attending the Toronto fair and visiting other cities in the Dominion.

Yesterday a will was brought forth, in which Mrs. Croxen is bequeathed $1500 and the use of the family residence in Parkavenue for life. Mrs. Croxen says she was legally married in Montreal to Hathaway and produced a marriage certificate to that effect.

A CAVORTING CYCLONE

THAT DESTROYED 150 HOUSES AND KILLED MANY PEOPLE.

Many was Lifted From Its Wheels And Carried Two Blocks—A Horse Found Himself on the Roof of a House—The Powers of the Air in a Monstrous Mood—List of Those Killed.

WICHITA, Kan., May 30.—A storm came up from the southwest and approached the city with a rotary motion, appearing to be some distance out the news. When it reached here it descended upon the centre of the city with appalling force. Suddenly it lifted, sucking everything into its grasp and as suddenly dropping it.

Trees were torn from their roots, houses turned around and strewn promiscuously about the city, and they landed on the upper floors of the cabs. Freight cars which stood on the track on the East Lake line [illegible] were picked up and carried a distance of 300 feet.

In one instance a house was completely taken from the ground and carried to the top of a two-storey building. A little child was taken out of its cradle, carried a distance of two blocks and dropped upon the ground without being injured.

The loss to property alone in this city will be $600,000, as nearly all the stocks of goods were destroyed by the cloud burst which followed the tornado.

It had taken all roofs away. Reports from the country are very discouraging. It is safe to say that 150 buildings are completely wrecked and 250 more are partially wrecked.

The following is a list of those known to have been killed and injured by the cyclone: Frank D. Campbell, James Hastie, Leonard Adamson, Ida Jones, Mrs. Asher and sister, Kittie Strachan.

Prof. Mayer and Hort Upson are missing and were probably killed. Lieut. William French and Cadet Samms of the Salvation Army, Mrs. Murphy and a child named Hattie Hodges are badly injured. Charles Stoner, Gus Coley, Dick Weaver, Carrie Mitchell and Ed. Forsyth, seriously injured.

The streets are impassable and nothing but ruin exists everywhere. Twelve bodies have been taken out of the ruins and something less than 75 persons are injured. The Col. Robinson block runs took fire. Strenuous efforts are being made to rescue the people buried there.

It is now believed the list of dead will number between 20 to 30.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The Globe Democrat's Wellington special says the loss by the cyclone will aggregate $500,000.

Two hundred brick and wooden buildings were destroyed. The house of Esquire Smith was levelled and several members of the household were mangled, two probably fatal.

AN ALGOMA MURDER.

A Canadian Pacific Engineer Killed Near Chelmsford by Unknown Parties.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., May 30.—The mutilated remains of J. Norsky, a locomotive engineer on the Canadian Pacific Railway, were found on the track one mile east of Chelmsford yesterday.

Friday was payday and it is thought he was murdered for his money. In this the murderer or murderers were foiled, as Norsky, on receipt of his pay, sent it to his wife, who lives in this town.

COLLISION ON DETROIT RIVER.

The Owner of a Tug and a Chief Engineer Drowned.

DETROIT, May 30.—About midnight last night the steamer City of Mackinac collided with the tug Washburn in the river opposite this city, resulting in the drowning of John Hurley and Chief Engineer Robinson of the steam barge Majestic, who were on board the tug.

The tug was nearly cut in two, but the engineer beached it on the Canadian shore before it sank, thus saving the lives of the four other men on board.

The Mackinac was but slightly damaged.

A Large Railroad suit in the Southern States.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 28.—A railroad suit has been brought up in the United States Circuit Court here which involves about $19,000,000.

The case is that of S. W. Varey vs. the Houston & Texas Central railroad.

The suit is brought to set aside the sale of the railroad, which is now under the control of the Southern Pacific.

Arrested in Brooklyn for Extensive Theft of Diamonds.

NEW YORK, May 30.—John McGregor, 14 years of age, of Toronto, Canada, was arrested on Saturday night in Brooklyn on charges of larceny, amounting to several hundred dollars.

He engaged board in Sixth-avenue, and three days after, while the family were at dinner, he entered the room of Mrs. Thomas Dean and took her diamond earrings, a diamond breast pin and a gold watch and chain.

Other charges were brought against him by a restaurant keeper.

The Electricity Killed Two Men.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 30.—A number of men were working on a traveling crane in the blacksmith shop of the Edgar Thomson steel works Saturday. The boom came in contact with the electric light wires and cut the insulation. In an instant the full force of the current was conducted along the iron frame work of the crane and all the men in contact were knocked insensible.

All but three of the men soon recovered. The others were carried outside the shop and restoratives promptly administered. Two died a few minutes after they had been removed, one remaining unconscious.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY HONORS.

Additional Persons Upon Whom Her Majesty Bestowed Favors.

LONDON, May 30.—The whole list of what are called birthday honors fills nearly two columns, the Queen celebrating her birthday by a somewhat lavish distribution of awards.

In addition to the names already called Sir Evelyn Baring has been granted a peerage. Perhaps no man's services have been greater. Sir Evelyn Baring has been for nine years the ruler of Egypt. He has had under him two Khedives and seven ministers. The Egypt of to-day is of his making.

The Permanent Clerk is exalted in the persons of Mr. Courtenay Boyle of the Board of Trade and Mr. Godfrey Lushington of the Home Office; both receive the coveted K.C.B., and one henceforward Sir Courtenay and the Godfrey to the end of time.

The most notable of the unofficial names in that of Mr. George Findlay, general manager of the London and Northwestern Railway, the greatest railway corporation in England, and is generally regarded as the highest railway honor to the engineer and road agent in the Northwestern. His reward is to be knighted next to Sir George Findlay.

SAVED BY AN UMBRELLA.

A Little Girl Terribly Gored by a Vicious Cow.

CORNWALL, Ont., May 30.—A little girl, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Hall, Pitt-street, had a narrow escape from probably fatal injuries. She was going along Second-street about 1 o'clock when a vicious cow being driven by a boy attacked her and catching her on its horns threw her on to the grass plot in front of St. John's Church. The infuriated brute followed the child there and had commenced to gore her when Mr. C. H. Cline came along and succeeded in rescuing her. He opened his umbrella and drove it at the cow, distracting its attention from the child, when he picked her up and placed her out of danger.

The cow in the meantime turned its attention to the umbrella, which it charged at viciously. It was finally secured and tied up.

The child was badly injured.

PREMIER ABBOTT is the fifth signer of the famous annexation manifesto of 1849 to be knighted by Her Majesty. The others were Sir David Macpherson, Sir Alexander Galt, Sir John Rose and Sir Hugh Allan. It is strange that such a large proportion of avowed and impenitent annexationists should receive Imperial honours. Mr. Sol. White expects a decoration shortly. The way to secure a knighthood and a prominent position in the Conservative party, is, the Ottawa Free Press says, to advocate annexation.

JUDGING from the number of Lieutenant-Governors of provinces who have died in office, there is not likely to be much of a struggle for the position occupied by Sir Alex Campbell. Quite a number of provincial lieutenant-governors have died in office since confederation. Hon. Joseph Howe was Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia when he died in 1873. Lieutenant-Governor Crawford, of Ontario, died in 1875, and a year later the Quebec governorship became vacant by the death of Hon. Rene E. Caron. In 1880 Lieutenant-Governor Chandler, of New Brunswick, died suddenly. Hon. A. W. McLelan, Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, died two years ago, and now another Ontario governor has died in office.

The Methodist Conferences.

The Annual Conferences of the Methodist Church in Canada, which will be held soon, will discuss at least two questions of general interest. One is the readjustment of the boundaries of the conferences, which are regarded by a good many Methodists as too small. The other is the institution of an order of deaconesses. In the United States and in England such an order has been found to be an excellent means of enlisting the zeal and energy of women in Home Mission work, visitation of the sick, etc. The women usually dwell together in a home, connected with which is a hospital; in Chicago they wear a uniform, which is found to be a great protection to women whose duties call them into dangerous quarters of the city, especially at night. The principal objection to the plan to most Methodists is its resemblance to the system of convents and nunneries. But the deaconesses make no vows and bind themselves to no life-long service. The General Conference in 1890 passed the following resolution upon motion of Rev. A. M. Phillips:

"That this conference, feeling the importance of a more definite recognition of woman's work in connection with the Methodist church, recommend that that each Annual Conference may, if deemed desirable, make provision for such a systematic organization of consecrated Christian women as will give them an official relation to the church, similar to the order of deaconesses in primitive Christianity. Such women, being duly qualified, shall be employed as aids to the pastor. No vow shall be exacted from them, nor uniform dress required, neither shall life long service or enforced residence be necessary."

The General Conference is the great legislature of the church, and it does also the most important portion of the administrative work, including missions, education, etc. But there is left for the Annual Conference a large amount of business connected with the pastoral work of the church, including supervision over students, and their reception and ordination, and the stationing of ministers.—Globe.

That Tired Feeling.

Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken in season. This medicine invigorates the kidneys and liver to remove the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore the action and invigorate the liver.

Health Department.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called constiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it tends to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carnes, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

Young's Point.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The festooned congregations of the woods and groves are here again, and can now be heard throughout the morning and evening discoursing their sweet melodies.

May 24th was duly observed here. No less than six flags were displayed showing the patriotic feeling of the citizens. Three boats passed through during the forenoon, carrying excursionists to view the scenery on the back lakes. Quite a number availed themselves of the opportunity. The events of the day was an interesting game of lacrosse ball played between the married and the single men, resulting in a victory for the former. The club being recently organized, the high score is justifiable:

The Order of Knighthood Elevated.

The Montreal Witness says:—Whether Canadians should accept such honours (Imperial titles) has always been a much discussed question. Conservatives accept them readily while Liberals hesitate about it, and often end by rejecting them. Sir Oliver Mowat [illegible] refused the title, though [illegible] doubt, he appreciated the honour, and in the present instance he has accepted it apparently because it is spontaneously offered by the Imperial authorities who have learned to esteem the man whom the people of Ontario so highly honour, and who has sacrificed much for his Province. Mr. Mackenzie, Mr. Blake and Mr. George Brown all refused similar honours. All had personal reasons, apparently, for refusing, but all seem also to have held that titles had better not be accepted by the public men of a new and democratic country like Canada. The Globe tells us that George Brown refused knighthood because his name was gazetted with the knights who were concerned in the Canadian Pacific scandal and whom he was rightly denouncing as scoundrels. Certainly the order of knights has been somewhat elevated in Canada by the entrance into it of Sir Oliver Mowat.

The delicious sensations of healing, easing, clearing, strength-gathering and recovering are unknown joys. For German Syrup we do not ask easy cases. Sugar and water may smooth a throat or stop a tickling—for a while. This is as far as the ordinary cough medicine goes. Boschee's German Syrup is a discovery, a great Throat and Lung Specialty. Where for years there have been sensitiveness, pain, coughing, spitting, hemorrhage, voice failure, weakness, slipping down hill, where doctors and medicine and advice have been swallowed and followed, the gulf of despair, where there is the sickening conviction that all is over and the end is inevitable there we place German Syrup. It cures. You are a live man yet if you take it.

DATE OF THE DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT STILL UNCERTAIN.

A Tithe Row in England—The Mayor of St. Petersburg Arrested for Complicity in the Grain Frauds—Roseberry on Home Rule—General Foreign News.

LONDON, May 28.—At Coventry a mob resisted the officers who had been sent to enforce distraint proceedings for the nonpayment of the Vicar's rate, and prevented the sale of the goods that had been seized to satisfy the claim.

The auctioneer left the scene of the proposed sale under the protection of the police. Nobody was hurt.

When returning from church the Vicar was hooted and jeered at by a howling mob. In the evening he was burned in effigy.

ANOTHER MONTE CARLO VICTIM.

The Date of Dissolution Still Worrying the Members.

LONDON, May 28.—A Cabinet council was held yesterday for the special purpose of determining the date for the dissolution of Parliament. It was attended by all the Ministers except Mr. Stanhope.

Communications made to members after the council indicated a decision to proceed with the Irish local government bill and the abandonment of the intention to resort to early dissolution.

Mr. Balfour promises a definite declaration on the eve of the Whitsuntide adjournment.

It is understood that Mr. Balfour demanded of his colleagues time to complete his scheme of legislation, even though a winter session was required.

Mr. Gladstone to Mr. Balfour.

LONDON, May 28.—In the House of Commons Mr. Balfour moved the vote on account.

Mr. Gladstone said that the time was opportune to ask the Government its intentions in regard to the termination of the session. He did not wish to retard business, but the House felt that the time was approaching when such a declaration of the Government's intention could be reasonably expected. He did not he added, desire to press the Government to name a particular day for the dissolution of the House, and declared that he was not so anxious for the early arrival of the day as that. An explicit statement on the course of the business should be made, so as to enable the House to form a judgment and make arrangements to the advantage of the members, without distinction of party. [Cries of "Hear, hear."]

Mr. Balfour agreed with Mr. Gladstone that an appropriate occasion might early be found to make the declaration he desired. He must, however, defer until a better occasion any statement in behalf of the Government regarding the matter.

Mr. Labouchere said he did not think the House felt much indebted to Mr. Balfour for the information he had furnished. [Laughter].

Now is the time to take a good family medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the greatest merit, and is a popular favorite.

THE LATEST PARIS MURDER.

M. Reymond Emerges From His Hiding Place and Tells the Terrible Story.

PARIS, May 28.—Immediately after the assassination of Mme. Lamimonne in the Rue du Rocher on Saturday by his wife M. Reymond went to the home of his mother, where he remained in seclusion until yesterday.

The police had made enquiries at the house of the elder Mme. Reymond, but had accepted her assurances that she had not seen her son for several days.

Yesterday M. Reymond went before a magistrate and narrated all the incidents of the tragedy. He was confronted with his wife.

ROSEBERRY ON HOME RULE.

Liberals Will Not Be Indifferent to the Claims of Ulster.

LONDON, May 28.—The Earl of Rosebery, in an address at Birmingham yesterday, said that Mr. Joseph Chamberlain had transformed Birmingham from a Liberal town into a Tory pocket borough.

Mr. Gladstone, being out of office, could not frame a scheme for Home Rule in Ireland nor arrange plans for a Government which was not yet in existence.

Whatever scheme was adopted, however, the Liberals would not be indifferent to the claims of the people of Ulster.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

Despondent By Losses, a Young American Blows Out His Brains.

NICE, May 28.—James Welbregg, aged 32, an American who left New York in the early part of May for a pleasure tour of Europe, committed suicide at Monte Carlo on Tuesday last.

Welbregg played for several days at the Monte Carlo gambling tables and lost about 100,000 francs.

On Tuesday, while in the reading room of the Casino, he shot himself fatally with a revolver, dying soon after.

A MAYOR IN JAIL.

Charged With Being Privy To the Adulteration of Flour.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 28.—Mayor Likhatcheff has resigned office on account of attacks made upon him in connection with the distribution of food among the starving peasants.

He is said to have been privy to the adulteration of flour by provincial officials and to have enriched himself with hush money.

His conduct will investigated by a special commission chosen by the Czar.

The Danish Festivities.

COPENHAGEN, May 28.—Ten thousand veterans, wearing the medals earned by their services, marched in a body to the Amalienborg Palace, in this city, to offer their congratulations to King Christian on the celebration of his golden wedding. The King addressed them from the steps of the palace, warmly thanking them for the proof of their fealty to him.

The Mappins Burglarized.

LONDON, May 28.—Thieves, by means of ropes, scaled the 60-foot wall that incloses the rear of the building occupied by Mappin Bros., manufacturers of silver, electroplate, etc., last night, and forcing their way into the building plundered the firm of 3000 ounces of silver.

Around the World in Eighty Days.

Did Jules Verne ever think that his imaginary Phileas Fogg would be eclipsed by an American girl, who once made the circuit in less than seventy-three days? But Phileas had to take "second money." The fame of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has gone around the world long ago, and left its record everywhere as a precious boon to every nation. In the whole world of medicine nothing equals it for the cure of scrofula of the lungs (which is consumption.) Coughs and bronchial troubles succumb to this remedy, and the blood is purified by it until all unsightly skin blotches are driven away. Don't be skeptical, as this medicine is guaranteed to every purchaser. You only pay for the good you get.

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PRICES WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy now, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

The Result of Gossip.

A sad case is reported from Belleville. Some time since a scandal-loving busybody circulated a story about a lady, the wife of a prominent citizen, and a leading worker in the Bridge street church. There was not a particle of truth in the fabrication, but the victim, being of a sensitive disposition, took it so much to heart that she became insane, and was, on Tuesday, removed to the asylum.

Gun Club Practice.

Eight members of the Peterborough Gun Club held a practice at Riverside Park Saturday morning. Capt. Tivey made a great record, scoring 13 birds out of a possible 15. The wind played havoc with many of the marksmen, causing their scores to be very low.

Turner's English Girls Company

That play at the Opera House Saturday, June 4th, were in St. Paul recently, and the Globe of that city says of them:—"An unusually large audience greeted Turner's English Gaiety Girls Company yesterday at Hilton's play house. The strong features of the burlesque company were appreciated, and the demonstrations of approval by the audience at times drowned the music of the orchestra. The dancing of Mlle Lucille captivated the house, and the encores she received testified that she danced her way into the heart of many. The wing dancing of Miss La Mountain and the serpentine dance by four graceful damsels were taking specialties. In the concluding burlesque the entire strength of the company gave a bewildering spectacle of a score of dazzling costumed girls executing an intricate march. The costumes and scenery were worthy special mention."

The Town Sets Up its Carriage.

A meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee was held on Saturday night. The committee after a careful consideration decided to purchase the three horses at Mr. Terry Smith—the grey team and the bay horse. The committee purchased another horse to match the bay one, the cost of the two teams amounting to $580. The committee were allowed $600 wherewith to purchase two suitable teams, and in view of Mr. Smith's horse being trained the committee knowing the soundness and worth of the three animals, decided that their move in the matter was the best one possible. The committee released Mr. Terrence Smith from his contract, to take effect on June 1st. Messrs. Ernest Lawrence and John Murphy were appointed teamsters, the latter to take charge of the stables and the latter under the Algoma and Northwest Evangelization.

George Bushin, of the Algoma and Northwest Evangelical and Colportage Mission, is making his ninth annual visit to Peterborough in the interests of the work. The cash received for supplies has been $440 15. The entire contributions have been $1,198.05. Peterborough contributed to the same, $20.25, which is gratefully acknowledged, and the appeal for the work for another year renewed, so as to enlarge the work and make it more effectual for Christian life and character. Saturday's Baseball.

The Peterborough Victorias met the Millbrook team at 10 to-day—A Good Game—Peterborough Triumphant.

The first of a series of baseball matches to be played between the Millbrook and the Peterborough baseball teams took place on the P. A. A. A. grounds on Saturday afternoon. The game was very exciting throughout, and the large crowd present pulled itself hoarse on new victory seemed imminent for the Millbrook team, and again as the Peterboroughs steadily and successfully forged ahead. The Millbrook men were in great form; their batting was probably better than that of the Peterboroughs. Pomfret and Cluff, on the battery are strong and quick, but where the team's weakness lay was at the bat. McCabe, for Peterborough, pitched a splendid game, very few base hits being made of his delivery. Hoag went into the box for the second and third innings and twirled the sphere very effectively. During the remainder of the game he played short stop very cleverly. O'Brien's catching helped the team on to victory. Evans on second played a wide awake game and made the only double play of any man on either team. Parks made a two base hit for the Millbrooks and in the eighth Bishop pounded the leather for a three bagger. For Peterborough McCabe made a two base hit and he and Barnes each made the three bagger, the former succeeding in making two of them. During the ninth innings three men were on base, two being out, McCabe went to bat and struck out for a three base hit allowing all the men on the bases to come home, while he himself stole home, thus securing four runs for the town and practically winning the game. The fielding of both teams was weak and there is great room for improvement. W. J. Drope umpired the game and his decisions gave satisfaction. The finish of the game during the last the innings was exciting, as it was doubtful which side would win. The score by innings was:—

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Peterborough	4	1	2	0	0	2	4	0	0	—13

Police Court.

MONDAY, May 30th, 1892.

In the absence of the magistrate, Councillor A. V. R. Young, J. P., presided on the bench.

Ed. Mercency, Water street, was charged with using grossly insulting and abusive language to Miss Polly Arnold on Tuesday, May 24th. A. Stevenson, B. A., appeared for the defendant. The language alleged to have been used took place in a di-pute at Mercency's house on the Queen's Birthday. The charge was not proven and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Henry Lahey, engineer on the steamer Mary Ellen, Young's Point, drove into town on May 1st with a horse and top buggy, putting up at the American Hotel Sunday morning his horse was removed from the stable without his knowledge or consent. He at once notified the police and a strict look out was kept for those who had misappropriated the horse and conveyance. Mr. Leahy ran across his conveyance near St. Peter's church at noon, and it is alleged the animal bore marks of being driven some distance. At the police court this morning the parties were brought up on the charge that they did appropriate or caused to be appropriated to their own use a horse and buggy, the property of one, Henry Leahy, without his knowledge or consent depriving the owner of the use thereof. Mr. Leahy wanted to withdraw the charge but the crown would not allow this. The case was enlarged until Saturday next.

Attempted to Take his Life.

Adam Dobbin, an old offender, was arrested by the police about 11 o'clock this morning

Mayor Kendry's residence and immediately answered the call. Chief Reazel found the man in a lot adjoining the Mayor's residence, surrounded by a large crowd. The drunken victim had a jack knife and was attempting to take his own life with his own hand. He said he was standing on his own land and that he had a right to do so he pleased, and if he determined to put a glorious end to himself it was nobody's business. The man had a whetstone to sharpen his knife and the idea was no imaginary one. The bystanders succeeded in securing the weapon from him but in so doing he aimed a blow at Fred White, which happily missed its aim. On the way to the cells prisoner swore, prayed, kicked, yelled, shouted and screamed, and it was not until after considerable difficulty that he was lodged behind prison bars by Chief Reazel and Officer Adams. When in the cell he again attempted to end his earthly existence by stuffing his coat in his mouth and laying flat on the floor and holding his nose tightly with his hand, so that he could not breathe. The man was found in this desperate condition a few minutes afterwards by Chief Reazel, who handcuffed him, after which the would-be victim went to sleep, and is now nursing his drunken temper in the land of Nod. Dobbin impressed all the evil possible upon the police, Mayor and magistrate when he was secured in the cells.

The Christian Alliance

Eight Three Hour Services Yesterday—Conducted by Rev. Messrs. Simmonds and Zimmerman—Large Attendance and Interesting Addresses.

Yesterday was a field day for the Christian Alliance colporteurs in Peterborough. Three evening meetings were held yesterday, one in their hall on George street at 3.15 o'clock, and the other two in the Opera House at 8 and 8 o'clock. These meetings were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Simmonds and Gilmore, editors of the Bethany Christian Alliance Church, Toronto. The first o'clock meeting in the Opera House was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Zimmerman spoke from Hebrews 10th chapter and 22nd verse, "Let us hold fast to the profession of our faith without wavering, for He is faithful that promised." After speaking of the blessedness of "holding fast," the speaker said that God looked at the heart of man and not at his outward appearance. He said they professed to believe that the Bible was the inspired Word of God. He believed everything was inspired about it, and he liked to see God's word as the ground upon which he was building his hope for time and for eternity. The Bible stood out above all the conceptions of the ages and all the hypocrisy of the present day. He found in it all that kept his soul vigorous and full of life. All should hold fast to the profession of their faith in the word of God. It was a light over our pathway to guide us into truth and righteousness. The speaker said he believed the Bible taught us that

MAN WAS UNIVERSALLY CORRUPT.

There was no middling man at all—no middle state. Man was either a Christian or was not. He was either the son of God or the son of the devil. Jesus Christ said, "He that is not for Me is against Me." If we were children of God we must receive God as our Redeemer and Saviour and have our sins pardoned, washed away in His own precious blood. The Christian Alliance also believed in the importance of being born again, and unless we were born again we could not see the kingdom of God. That was their faith as far as mankind was concerned. They also believed in the redemption of mankind through God giving His only begotten Son to die for us that whosoever believeth in Him might not perish but have everlasting life. Salvation was secured for us through Christ's death, and we should hold fast to the profession of Christ in the atonement of our sins. They held fast to the redemption of our Lord Jesus Christ in their will and stand, and they also held solidly to the doctrine of regeneration through the Holy Ghost. They held fast to the good old doctrine of sanctification—of being cleansed from sin. They understood by that, Jesus Christ coming to dwell within and taking hold of the soul, inspiring it with His life, His being and His thoughts. Jesus Christ came in and took possession of us and by His grace and by His power He keeps day by day. He was keeping us in the blood upon the mercy seat, and we believe it is the business of a Christian to be kept day by day by the holy power of Jesus Christ. They believed in the Holy Ghost coming in and sanctifying and keeping His people to walk in fellowship and sweet communion. They also in Christ answering prayer in regard to human diseases and ailments as well as to spiritual wants, when it was to be done to his glory and service. The speaker said he was mentally conservative in doctrine; he believed in holding fast to that which was good. Christ's disciples when given their mission to go abroad, were to heal the sick as well preach the gospel. The speaker told an incident how when he was crossing the Atlantic several years ago with a party of some seventy-four on board, he was troubled with a very painful eye which was so inflamed that it gave him no rest night or day. On the morrow was the Sabbath, and he intended to conduct three services on that day, besides he had the responsibility of the care of all those boys. So he went to God in prayer, and putting the facts before Him, God answered prayer, and immediately all the pain and inflammation were removed from the injured organ. The speaker related several incidents of divine healing under his notice, where God has cared in answer to prayer, when the healing was to be done in order that the person so healed intended to use his talents and his all for the glory and service of God. He mentioned these cases to show what they meant by God healing in answer to prayer in compliance to the condition that we glorify Him. They believed in the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. They believed in spreading the Gospel to all nations of the earth, preaching Christ unto every creature. We should hold fast without wavering. Je us says he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea tossed about by wind and doctrine. If we were only faithful to God on our part He was always faithful to us.

After the taking up of a collection and singing of a hymn, Rev. Mr. Salmon addressed a few words to those present, urging that Christ was the only assurance, the only hope, and the only salvation. He would not give up that trust he had in God—no, not for all the world. He spoke at some length on the responsibility of parents bringing up their children in the way they should go—not waiting for some one else to correct them, but the parents themselves, by their devout, godly lives and teachings, to instil in the young minds a taste for things eternal. Children should see God living and dwelling in their homes; in the character of their parents. He closed with an earnest exhortation for all to accept Christ as their Saviour, to become converted and flee from the wrath to come.

In the evening a large number were also present, the singing was lively and cheerful, and the addresses brief and earnest. Rev. Mr. Salmon spoke on "Sin and its Evil Consequences," and recommended Christ as the only cure from it. Mr. Zimmerman also gave a few practical words of counsel and admonition.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

There was a large attendance at the young men's meeting Saturday night. Mr. Harry Kennedy gave an earnest and helpful talk on the "Life of Christ." The singing was inspiring, being led by the orchestra. The after meeting was profitable.

Mr. J. H. Beal led the Bible study and consecration service Sabbath morning with much profit and blessing to all present.

The open air service Sabbath afternoon in Central Park was a great success. The singing led by the orchestra was hearty, and the large crowd present listened, we trust, with profit to the short Gospel address.

Last evening the hall was crowded at the Gospel and song service. Sheriff Hall gave a practical address on "Daniel," which was very helpful.

Monthly meeting of the Board of Directors on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Bible study for young men Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Topic, "The two Natures," led by Mr. Isaac Richardson.

A Case for S. P. C. C.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has a case under its surveillance that if all that is alleged be true, calls for severe measures. A girl, young and delicate, is said to be treated most cruelly, starved and made to work like a dog. People, as a rule, have little idea of the cruelty practised upon unoffending children.

Mr. Warren D. Wentz
of Geneva, N.Y.,

Tells of His Fearful Sufferings After Gastric Fever and His Cure by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

All who know Mr. W. D. Wentz give him the best of recommendations for honesty and integrity. For many years he has worked for Mr. D. P. Wilson, the harness maker and member of the Geneva Board of Health. He says:

"I was taken sick last October with gastric fever and my chance for recovery was considered almost hopeless. After 7 weeks the fever slowly left me, but I could not eat the simplest food without terrible distress. It seemed that I had recovered from the fever to

Die of Starvation

I took pepsin compounds, bismuth, charcoal, cod liver oil and malt until my physician confessed that his skill was about exhausted and he did not know what else to try. Everything I took seemed like pouring melted lead into my stomach. I happened to think I had part of a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla that had been in the house for two or three years, that I found had benefited me previously for dyspepsia. I began taking it and soon began to feel better. I have now taken a little over two bottles and can truthfully say I feel well again and can eat anything without distressing me, even to which I have been unable to touch for years. The English language does not contain words enough to permit me to express the praise I would like to give to Hood's Sarsaparilla."

W. D. WENTZ, 194 Castle St., Geneva, N. Y.

A Good Voucher

"I have known Mr. Warren D. Wentz for many years and can vouch for him as a man of veracity and one well known about here. I have sold him several bottles of

during the past few months." M. H. PARTRIDGE, Druggist, Geneva, N. Y.

Ottawa, May 31.—Yesterday being private members' day the House has got through with quite a fair amount of work, such as it was, and the spicy paper promises a much slimmer appearance than it is at end of this stage of the session.

The Speaker Elected Promptly.

The first business was the announcement by the Speaker that the seat for Frontenac had been vacated by the acceptance of the office of Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario by the Hon. S. A. Kirkpatrick and that he had issued his warrant for a new election. In this connection it might be mentioned that the new Lieutenant-Governor was sworn in at noon to-day. He was entertained at dinner in the Senate restaurant this evening and left for Toronto to-night.

The Dual Language Resolution.

After a few unimportant questions had been answered, Mr. Armstrong moved his resolution:

That it is expedient that power be given to the Legislative Assembly of the Provisional Territories after the next general election of members of said Assembly to deal with all matters pertaining to education and the use of dual languages in the courts and in the proceedings of the said Assembly, providing, however, that no school section as at present constituted shall be interfered with without the consent of the parties composing such section.

In support of his motion he said that he acted entirely for himself and not for his party. He thought the matter ought to be settled and that the fairest way to settle it was to leave it to the people of the Northwest, as his resolution proposed. He said that he had an utter abhorrence of the idea that it was the duty of the majority in this country to stamp out the language of the minority.

Mixed Race a Strength.

He considered mixed race a strength rather than a weakness to a country and instanced the case of Great Britain as an argument in favor of it. There over a million persons spoke Welsh, and no one thought they should be compelled to use their own language. He dwelt on the subject of state rights, touched a little on the southern rebellion, shirmished around a trifle in ancient history, quoted the modern instances of Russia trying to abolish the Polish language and of Denmark endeavoring to compel the German inhabitants of Schleswig-Holstein to speak Danish, and wound up by moving his motion.

Clarke Wallace Has an Amendment.

Mr. Clarke Wallace thought the resolution was a contradictory one and the part of it dealing with existing schools was likely to prove troublesome. He thought that the Northwest should be given the same powers as other provinces, especially with regard to education. With regard to dual language he was not quite satisfied with the compromise arrived at two years ago, but was willing to let the law stand as it is. In conclusion he moved in amendment:

That in the opinion of this House the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories, should be empowered to deal with all matters relating to education in the Northwest Territories.

Mr. McCarthy Speaks.

The debate was continued by Messrs. McMullen, Devlin, Scriver and Macdonald, (Huron), after which Mr. McCarthy said he agreed with the last speaker that the matter must be faced and it might as well be faced now. The Northwest had almost all the powers of a province, and it was yet to be shown why the powers of the Assembly should be limited in regard to education and dual language. He argued at some length in favor of the Northwest Assembly being given the most full and absolute control of education, and in favor of Parliament taking back into its own hands the question of dual language. He said that no person wanted to interfere with the sacred right of speech. Everybody has the right to speak his own language, but it was a different matter establishing two official languages. He held that the British North America Act established only one language for the whole country except the Province of Quebec, and that a second language should not have been introduced in the Northwest. In conclusion he moved an amendment to the amendment that:

It is expedient that the limitation and restriction upon the authority of the Assembly of the Northwest Territories in the matter of education and the enactment restricting the use of the French language in the courts and the compulsory publishing of its ordinances in that language should be repealed.

The Debate Adjourned.

The debate was continued by Mr. Mills up to 6 o'clock, when it went over under the rules of the House, and it is doubtful whether it will be reached again this session.

Sunday Observance.

After recess Mr. Charlton's Sunday Observance Bill was taken up and occupied all the evening.

On the motion to go into committee on the bill a division took place and the motion was carried by a vote of 77 to 50.

In the committee a long discussion took place on the clause relating to work on newspapers on Sundays and the clause was finally struck out by a vote of 98 for to 85 against.

The clause relating to running trains on Sundays was slightly amended and the committee rose at 11.30, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

The House then adjourned.

JACK ALLAN HAS ELOPED

MONTREAL SOCIETY SHOCKED TO ITS FOUNDATION.

The Son of One of the Proprietors of the Allan Steamship Line Deserts His Family and Elopes With the Wife of a Bank Inspector.

MONTREAL, Que., May 31.—Two members of Montreal's best and wealthiest society have elopers looking behind in this one case a sorrowing wife and in the other a broken-hearted husband.

Mr. John S. Allan, more commonly known as "Jack" Allan, the eldest son and heir to Andrew A. Allan, one of the partners in the Allan Royal Mail Steamship Line, has been in company with the wife of Mr. R. Y. Hebden, who is prominently connected with the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. Allan leaves behind him a beautiful wife about 30 years old, and five young children. Mrs. Hebden leaves a husband, a baby 2 years old and two boys 10 and 12 years of age.

The First False Step.

Mr. Allan met Mrs. Hebden about two years ago. Mrs. Hebden went to Montreal from Chicago with her husband, who was then inspector of the Bank of Montreal. Her attractive face, refined manners and good family readily gained her an entrance to the select social circles in which the Allans moved. Mr. Hebden installed his wife in a beautiful home on Sherbrooke, the most fashionable street of the city, and there she entertained sumptuously.

Allan, who is familiarly called "Jack," seems to have been smitten with Mrs. Hebden from the first, and from the day they met the two became devoted friends. They walked, drove and skated together and frequently were seen in one another's company at the opera and theatre. So often did they appear in public that tongues began to wag and unfavorable comments on their intimacy were freely uttered.

Gossips Begin To Talk.

Unmindful, apparently oblivious, of the criticisms they provoked, the couple continued to see each other in public and in private. One night, however, Mr. Allan and the woman he seemed to admire most attended an amateur performance of the "Yeomen of the Guard" at the Academy of Music. They occupied a box with curtains drawn. Their presence and peculiar behaviour were soon discovered and produced a scandal.

Mrs. Allan is said to have been the first to break with her husband. He having repeatedly broken pledges to her that he would have nothing more to do with Mrs. Hebden, Mrs. Allan finally informed him that she could trust him no longer and that they must part. She soon after sold all her possessions and with her children sailed for England. Allan was then free and his attentions to Mrs. Hebden became more marked.

The Flight.

In April Mr. Hebden made arrangements to remove to New York to act as joint manager of the New York branch of the Bank of Montreal. It was intended that he should go on May 1, while Mrs. Hebden and the children were to follow Wednesday next. Hebden reached New York according to his plans. It seems that on the Saturday evening previous a cab called at the Hebden residence. Mrs. Hebden got into it and was driven away. She has not since been seen in the city. The day before three of her trunks were taken away, about the same hour that four trunks belonging to her niece, Miss Ashford, were sent aboard an Allan steamer bound for England. Mrs. Hebden left a letter addressed to her husband, the contents of which have not been revealed.

The latest information locates the eloping couple in a village not many miles from Quebec. Allan has a wife of rare beauty and five small children, while Mrs. Hebden left, besides her husband, three children—two boys and a baby two years old.

Past History of the Elopers.

Young Allan is the heir to his father's estate and his escapade has been a great shock to the old gentleman. Allan has been known as a "high flyer" for years and has thrown up a salary of $20,000 a year as manager of the Allan Line Montreal office. A year or two ago he became infatuated with a former London barmaid named Rae. She threatened when the break came to publish compromising letters, but suppressed them for a consideration.

Mr. Hebden, who is a well-built man of soldierly appearance, is the son of the late Rev. Dr. James Hebden, who was rector of the Church of the Ascension in Hamilton, Ontario. His mother and sisters live in that city. He was educated in England and became an officer in the English army. He left the service and went with the Bank of Montreal 17 years ago. He is an excellent business man and his promotion has been rapid.

His wife was a Miss Patterson, whom he met and married in England.

The Husband Informed.

Information was telegraphed to Hebden last Monday that his wife was about to go off with Jack Allan. Mr. Hebden was thunderstruck when he learned the sad news. He came to Montreal to-day and found that Mrs Hebden had run away from her home and her children, and that she had been gone about four days. Nobody could tell what had become of her. He returned to New York on Friday with his children.

HEBDEN IN NEW YORK.

To Build Up a New Home for His Children.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Mr. R. Y. Hebden, whose wife eloped from Montreal with "Jack" Allen, is at the Windsor Hotel with two of his children, one of whom, Kenneth, a bright little golden haired fellow, is a cripple with hip disease. Mr. Hebden has engaged the flat in the Dalhousie in West Fifty-ninth-street formerly occupied by Manager A. M. Townsend of the Hong Kong Bank and as soon as he gets it in order will send for his eldest boy, Bertie, whom he left in Montreal in the school of St. John the Evangelist, and build up another home for the children. His friends will urge him to ask for a divorce at once.

Death Hidden in His Heart.

READING, Pa., May 31.—Henry Bricker is suffering from blood poison and his condition is critical. The rubbing of his colored flannel shirt against his body caused the trouble.

Poisoned by a Hen's Foot.

MASCOUTAH, Ill., May 31.—The first known instance of blood poisoning from a hen's peck has occurred here. Emma Bloomer, daughter of a farmer, was pecked on the arm by a hen yesterday. The young woman was taken sick, and the arm swelled to unnatural proportions. A surgical operation was performed, but her recovery is doubtful.

The Business Block By One Wedge.

BUTLERVILLE, Ohio, May 31.—A peculiar accident did up the business block here. A wedge and sledge were left by workmen and fell down between the floors of the second story. The sledge broke through the ceiling and struck the counter. All the goods were covered with dust, and nearly $50 worth of stock was ruined.

"Tennessee" Pitched Over.

ST. LOUIS, May 31.—Tennessee Pitcher, of this city, a local boxing instructor, was struck by a train at Kirkwood, a suburb, and thrown over a fence. He was badly injured, but will recover.

A Chance for Spaniards.

MADRID, May 31.—Spanish Ambassador Polo de Bernabe, Senor Pidal, Minister of Public Works, and a number of other prominent Spaniards have left for Paris, where they will confer with Minister Blaine, who is now in that city, with a view to the negotiation of a treaty of commerce between the United States and Spain.

JACKSON THE VICTOR.

Slavin Knocked Out in Two Hotly Contested and Terrible Fistfights.

LONDON, May 31.—The National Club was crowded to suffocation last night with sportsmen anxious to witness the Slavin-Jackson fight. The entrance however was much obstructed by the crowd that the owner of the building refused to allow any more to enter without a ticket.

Two hundred policemen kept order outside the clubhouse, where a surging mass had assembled with the expectation of being admitted.

Lord Lonsdale opened the proceedings with a speech and the fight then began.

After the first few rounds it was evident that Slavin had no chance of victory. The latter was much taller and heavier than Jackson, and had been expected of him, and from the outset Jackson kept his long left arm constantly in Slavin's face. Twice in the first round Slavin clinched and was ordered by the referee to break away.

During the succeeding rounds until the eighth Jackson kept punishing Slavin in the mouth and left eye. In the ninth round Slavin made another effort to keep on equal terms with Jackson, but received stinging blows on the mouth and eye.

Slavin came up very game for the tenth round, but he was weaker than he looked. After a few exchanges, however, a swinging right-hander in the throat sent him against the ropes, dazing him, and before he recovered Pete was on him with both hands and fought him all around the ring and inflicting terrible punishment, finally knocking him out before two minutes of the round had expired.

Jackson was then declared the winner amid terrific cheering.

Jackson tipped the scales at 196 pounds and Slavin at 188. Jackson's seconds were Parson Davies, Joe Ceoynski and Jem Young. Slavin's seconds were his brother Jack, Tom Williams and Tom Burrows. Mr. Angle was referee.

All the arrangements for the fight were admirable and the contest was one of the fairest seen in a long time.

Burns Whips McCarthy.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Burns whipped McCarthy in eight rounds at the Coney Island Athletic Club to-night.

Both Have Wonderful Records—Slavin's First Defeat.

The records of the men show an almost complete list of victories. Their wins are about equal, and four and three drawn battles are credited to each. Yesterday Slavin had his first defeat marked against him.

From a glance at the records of the men printed below it will be seen that all of Slavin's fights have been much shorter in duration than Jackson's.

Slavin is 30 odd years and stands 6 feet 1 in. in his stockings. He weighs, in condition, about 190 pounds. Jackson is two years older, half an inch taller and fully 15 pounds heavier than Kilrain's conqueror. He gave Slavin his first lesson in boxing. The results of their performances in the ring follow:

LURED TO DEATH.

Man He Killed One of the Assassins Before Passing Away.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., May 31.—W. J. Jones, manager of the Sandwich, Ill., Manufacturing Company, who has been under the influence of liquor for several days, with a considerable sum of money on his person, was called from his wife's side last when he had reached home last night by a message stating that his presence was required at the Ogden House.

That was the last seen of Jones until his body was found this morning in a dark street near the hotel. He had a bullet hole in his abdomen and his skull had been crushed. He had a revolver clutched in his hand and was still alive but speechless.

A block away close to a blood-stained hack the dead body of one Jack Wade was discovered with a pistol wound in the breast. Wade also had a revolver.

The driver of the hack, Tom Crogan, has since been arrested with a man named James Maher.

The indications are that the double tragedy occurred at the point where Wade's body was found, and that Jones' supposed corpse was dragged through the yard of a disreputable house with the intention of concealment, when Jones recovered, again showing fight. Maher, Wade and Crogan are all hard characters and are supposed, with robbery for a motive, to have sent the message which decoyed Jones from home.

It is probable that he did not succumb when struck on the head and that a remarkable pistol duel between himself and Wade followed on the lonely street at midnight.

A CRAZED WIDOWER.

Prayers and Attempted Suicide on a Wife's Grave.

HASTINGS, Eng., May 31.—Three weeks ago a married woman named Waite died suddenly. Her husband has ever since been prostrated by grief, and last evening he went to the Borough Cemetery, knelt down by his beloved's grave, produced a rosary and recited the prayers of the Roman Catholic service for the dead, and then placing a pistol to his head discharged two shots. He was alive when found, but will not recover.

Souvenirs of Jack Sheppard.

LONDON, May 31.—A couple of many relics which are souvenirs of the notorious Jack Sheppard were offered for public competition amongst other articles of furniture at the old Blackfriars, Portsmouth-street Lincoln's Inn Fields. This house has a history of its own. It was a favorite resort of Jos Miller, who died in 1738, and to the first edition of whose jests, which have rendered his name so famous, was published in the course of the year following.

The Premier congratulated the Ambassador on the success of his mission to Washington, and expressed the hope that the commercial treaty between France and Spain would be concluded soon.

Two Accidents

Occurred on the C.P.R. Yesterday.

Ottawa, May 31.—(Special)—Two accidents occurred on the C.P.R. yesterday, which, though fortunately not attended with loss of life, were very serious. The first happened at Smith's Falls, where a freight train was wrecked, and the second at Carleton Place, where a passenger train ran into a freight. In the latter accident the engineer of the passenger train had his leg broken, and the fireman was severely injured about the head. Premier Ross Will Not Resign

The Speaker Will Call Parliament Together Again.

The first business that the new Speaker will have to perform will be to call parliament together again. It has been decided by the Government of Ontario by the Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick and that he had issued his warrant for a new election. In this connection it might be mentioned that the new Lieutenant-Governor was sworn in at noon to-day. He was entertained at dinner in the Rossin restaurant this evening and left for Toronto to-night.

The Dual Language Resolution.

After a few unimportant questions had been answered, Mr. Armstrong moved his resolution:

That it is expedient that power be given to the Legislative Assembly of the North-west Territories after the next general election of members of said Assembly to deal with all matters pertaining to education and the use of dual languages in the courts and in the proceedings of the said Assembly, providing, however, that no school section as at present constituted shall be interfered with without the consent of the parties composing such section.

In support of his motion he said that he acted entirely for himself and not for his party. He thought the matter ought to be settled and that the fairest way to settle it was to leave it to the people of the Northwest, as his resolution proposed. He said that he had an utter abhorrence of the idea that it was the duty of the majority in this country to stamp out the language of the minority.

Mixed Race a Strength.

He considered mixed race a strength rather than a weakness to a country and instanced the case of Great Britain as an argument in favor of it. There over a million persons spoke Welsh, and no one thought they should be compelled to use their own language. He dwelt on the subject of state rights, touched a little on the southern rebellion, skirmished around a trifle in ancient history, quoted the modern instances of Russia trying to abolish the Polish language and of Denmark endeavoring to compel the German inhabitants of Schleswig-Holstein to speak Danish, and wound up by moving his motion.

Clarke Wallace Has an Amendment.

Mr. Clarke Wallace thought the resolution was a contradictory one and the part of it dealing with existing schools was likely to prove troublesome. He thought that the Northwest should be given the same powers as other provinces, especially with regard to education. With regard to dual language he was not quite satisfied with the compromise arrived at two years ago, but was willing to let the law stand as it is. In conclusion he moved in amendment:

That in the opinion of this House the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories should be empowered to deal with all matters relating to education in the Northwest Territories.

Mr. McCarthy Speaks.

The debate was continued by Messrs. McMullen, Devlin, Scriver and Macdonald, (Huron), after which Mr. McCarthy said he agreed with the last speaker that the matter must be faced and it might as well be faced now. The Northwest had almost all the powers of a province, and it was yet to be shown why the powers of the Assembly should be limited in regard to education and dual language. He argued at some length in favor of the Northwest Assembly being given the most full and absolute control of education, and in favor of Parliament taking back into its own hands the question of dual language. He said that no person wanted to interfere with the sacred right of speech. Everybody has the right to speak his own language, but it was a different matter establishing two official languages. He held that the British North America Act established only one language for the whole country except the Province of Quebec, and that a second language should not have been introduced in the Northwest. In conclusion he moved an amendment to the amendment that:

It is expedient that the limitation and restriction upon the authority of the Assembly of the Northwest Territories in the matter of education and the enactment restricting the use of the French language in the courts and the compulsory publishing of its ordinances in that language should be repealed.

The Debate Adjourned.

The debate was continued by Mr. Mills up to 6 o'clock, when it went over under the rules of the House, and it is doubtful whether it will be reached again this session.

Sunday Observance.

After recess Mr. Charlton's Sunday Observance Bill was taken up and occupied all the evening.

On the motion to go into committee on the bill a division took place and the motion was carried by a vote of 77 to 50.

In the committee a long discussion took place on the clause relating to work on newspapers on Sundays and the clause was finally struck out by a vote of 26 for to 56 against.

The clause relating to running trains on Sundays was slightly amended and the committee rose at 11.30, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

The House then adjourned.

The Beauty of Flowers.

By a Juvenile Contributor.

This subject, although it appears to be small, is very suggestive. There are very few things in nature that give us a better idea of beauty than the different kinds of flowers. Woodland scenery is attractive, and, more so, when sailing along our Canadian lakes and rivers, at sunset, in the springtime, when the green fields add to its beauty. The bush woods forest would seem to be drear and lonely without the improvements made by our pioneers.

Why sounds yon stroke on beach and oak,
And who comes here to chase the deer.

The village, town or city would be cheerless not having any trees, plants or flowers, but our gardeners and fruit growers have beautified them by their careful attention and successful labours, also the carpenters have added to its appearance by their beautiful designs in buildings. But yet they do not compare with the Wilding green or woodland flower.

There are different opinions as to the best kind of flowers, but to make a good choice we ought to cultivate our taste. The tinted rose, white lily, daisy, and forget-me-note, are among some of the best. But we girls have a delight and admiration for the innocent May flower, not only because of its wild attractiveness, but, simply for the pleasure which we get in searching for them in the woods.

ALBERTA.

A Mysterious Principle.

How We May Enjoy its Blessings.

We are blessed by a mysterious principle known as life. By its influence we are enabled to maintain our existence in the midst of agents which are constantly seeking our destruction. Our bodies are composed of elements which exist everywhere in the matter around us, but gathered into new combinations and moulded into peculiar forms.

Men and women—the old and young—are not all blessed with vigorous, strong, robust life. Unfortunately for Canada, we have our thousands who barely move and breathe; they do not possess that vigor, strength and health which means true life. Can any one individual assert that the weary, tired, broken down, nervous sleepless and dyspeptic man or woman enjoys life as they should? We know that many of them are weary and tired of lives of suffering.

Hold! suffering mortals. Do not despair; maintain courage and hope; there is rescue for you, if you wish to walk the pleasant highway of health and true life. Know you not that Paine's Celery Compound banishes the foes by which you are beset? Are you not aware that this remedy emancipates the slaves of disease and suffering?

You have been seeking for freedom from pain for many years; physicians and advertised remedies have deceived you. Now you have the true agency of health offered, will you accept it? We guarantee cure, satisfaction and new life; canst the power of mortal man pen more grander blessings?

Paine's Celery Compound is a conqueror; its triumphs are multitudinous and wonderful. Try it, and know what true life means.

—Commissioner Rees has received orders to farewell to the Canadian branch of the Salvation Army, and sails for England on 23rd June. This order takes Salvationists by surprise. Commandant and Mrs. Herbert Booth take charge of the work. They are at present in charge of the forces in the old country. The Commandant, one of the best known officers in the Salvation Army, visited Canada about four years ago.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called constiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Cassan, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

To "Shantyman," Elmount.

Dear shantyman friend, this time I must
Although you're unknown to me;
I hope, by the way, to meet you some day
For I believe you're a real oddity.
You were kind enough, brother, to invite me me and—well, another,
To take a trip to Kinmount,
But, sir, I'm so shy I couldn't ask her, not I,
So on that trip please don't count.

I'm a bachelor sure, and what, sir, is more,
I always expect to be one,
For, due to this shyness there's a sort of a dryness
On the part of the girls towards Simon.
But say, say, you have got lots of cheek, have you not?
(At least in your letter your letter you show it)
For you said I'd thy blues, and that's check now to me
In speaking of a poor brother poet.

I presume, though, my friend, you did not intend
That I should at all feel offended,
But you don't always find the people inclined
To take things as you intended;
But on this you can count, should I go to Kinmount,
On you Mr. Shantyman I'll call,
So all being well, I will ring your door bell,
Some evening, perhaps in the fall.

I know I'd enjoy your company, my boy,
But say, have you got any stamps?
If they talked up to me, I know how it would be,
I'd feel as though thatched with fly blisters.
This feeling I had when but a small lad,
And it seems to grow worse every day,
I've tried every plan, cure, this shyness to cure,
But I find it will work its own way.

When from home I get out, it puts me about,
For I'm sure to make some big mistake,
If a fair one I meet I try to look sweet,—
I'm sure to go off in a shake.
But why or not why, you feel I'll try
And get back to Kinmount some time,
Where, if it's fine weather, we'll write verses together,

LATEST NEWS BY CABLE

THE BRITISH FLAG IN MOROCCO CAUSES TROUBLE.

London Society News—The Bishop of Norwich Upheld by the Privy Council—Spanish Crops Injured by the Hailstones—A Statue Erected in Garibaldi's Honor—Uproarious Students in Paris.

LONDON, May 30.—In the House of Lords Lord Dunraven moved for a copy of the motion agreed to by the Canadian Parliament on April 25 regarding preferential trade with the United Kingdom. He considered the motion as a distinct proposal for reciprocity with every part of the Empire. This was the first time, he added, that such a proposal had been advanced by a self-governing colony in a practical shape. He thought that the suggestion should be attentively received by Great Britain. Lord Salisbury had made a very practical suggestion at the beginning of the session, when he proposed that the colonies should be invited to confer with the Home Government on the subject. The resolution was an expression of Canada's readiness to give Great Britain the preference in her markets if Great Britain gave her equal preference in hers. It was perfectly obvious that the preference that Canada suggested would be of enormous advantage to Great Britain. It would greatly increase the latter's export trade with Canada, and would expand her manufacturing industries. But as Great Britain levied no duties on food imports, it would be necessary to place an ad valorem duty upon them, purchasing a reduction of the duty imposed on British manufactured goods by Canada by imposing a lower duty on Canadian raw food products imported into Great Britain than that levied on similar imports from other countries. A duty on food products would only increase the price of a loaf a farthing, and would give immense impetus to corn-growing in the British Empire.

Lord Dunraven's motion was then agreed to by the House.

LONDON, May 30.—Earl Grey has written a long letter to the Times protesting against Lord Salisbury's Hastings speech.

He asks whether negotiations with foreign powers now on the basis of reciprocity are more likely to succeed than were negotiations of successive ministries for 30 years.

He continues, "After the conclusion of the peace of 1815, when we had considerable concessions to offer we were unable to grant favors to one nation without offending another, and the practice of making varying tariffs to various countries would throw the whole system of revenue and trade into confusion.

Lord Salisbury assigns no intelligible reason for incurring all the difficulties that would be involved by carrying his views into practice. The free trade policy of 40 years has seen an enormous growth in our trade.

Our wealth has increased and our trade has flourished in a manner unexampled in any former period of our history. Attempts to negotiate treaties with foreign nations commenced by the treaty with France in 1860, have never had good results.

We should have the courage to either openly adjure the doctrines of free trade and try what we can achieve by a retaliatory policy or else adopt a manly course by returning to the policy of free trade in its entirety, as acted upon from 1846 to 1860, namely, duties for revenue purposes only."

LONDON, May 30.—G. W. Smalley cables to The New York Sunday Tribune: The Duke of Argyle lends the support of his name and character and long service in the Liberal cause to Lord Salisbury's Ulster declaration. He goes even further than Lord Salisbury. The Prime Minister said that Ulster, if put under the heel of the Roman Catholic majority, might resist. The Duke of Argyle boldly asserts that resistance would be right. "We have no right to expect the allegiance of the minority in Ireland if we cast away their liberties." Such is the language of one of the ablest, most high-minded men in public life.

LONDON, May 30.—The program which has been prepared for the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire, which will open on June 28, shows considerable progress in the protectionist movement.

The proposed resolutions favor a commercial union of the Empire; the establishment of differential rates between Great Britain and her colonies; the preference of home products as against foreign products, Great Britain to grant a tariff discriminating against foreign grain; the formation of boards of labor arbitration in all centres of industry; an imperial registration of trade marks and an imperial penny postage.

Finally, the Chamber of Commerce of Leith proposes an international monetary union, with a unification of the currency of the Empire.

How She Became a Missionary.

"I am doing missionary work a good deal of my time," was the reply of one of the most charming women of New York, to a friend, who asked how she busied herself. "I see by your looks you wonder what I mean by that. I'll tell you. A few years ago life was a burden to me. I had been a victim to female weakness of the most aggravated character for a long time, and the doctors failed to help me. Existence was a long, steady, terrible torture—a lingering, living death. One day I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised in the newspaper. Something in the advertisement impressed me favorably. I caught at the glimmer of hope it held out as a drowning man is said to catch at a straw. Still, I did not dare to hope. But I got the medicine, and behold the result! I feel so well, so strong, and O, so thankful, that I go about telling other women what saved me. In no other way can I so well show my gratitude to God, and to the man who has proved such a benefactor of women, and my love for my suffering sisterhood." b

EXTENSIVE CHANGES IN

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a Sweeping Clearance Sale of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of [illegible] all new and fashionable goods for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. EVERY YARD A BARGAIN! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE ENORMOUS RUN ENTHUSIASM!

Come and buy now. If you want to reap the great benefit of the immense sacrifices which must be made during the Positive Alteration Sale.

A Close Call.

Last evening as the 5.12 G. T. R. express was due to leave, a team of horses attached to the ash wagon of Mr. George Stevens, public scavenger, was standing alongside the track, between Hunter and Brock, facing north, while the driver, Mr. Henry Tyler (not the President of the Grand Trunk), was in the yard after ashes. When the express came howling out of the station the horses took fright and tried to cross the track near Brock street. It appears that one of them caught his foot between the rail and the planking. At any rate the horses were on the track, but the driver of the engine seeing the danger, put on the air brakes and the train was stopped, but not before the cow-catcher struck the horses, injuring one of them, only slightly, however. The air brakes did the business, if one stopping of the train had depended on the horses broken the horses would have been killed and the train, perhaps, derailed.

Turner's English Girls Company

will play at the Opera House, Saturday, June 4th. We copy the following from the St. Paul Pioneer Press:—Turner's English Gaiety Girls proved a drawing card at Hilton's yesterday, the house being crowed at both matinee and evening performance. The company is unquestionably one of the best burlesque organizations on the road, and their performance is full of vim and mirth and enjoyment. The first part is styled a "reverend" and it affords opportunities for the introduction of Terpsichorean and musical specialties of exceptional brightness and merit. Among the numbers which received greatest applause were the serpentine dance by Misses Russell, Pinckney, Hazel and Rose La Montain; Turner and Russell in a musical comedy sketch; Miss Lestlie in [illegible] dancing and Fred Barth in his inimitable [illegible] business. The performance closes with a burlesque, in which the Gaiety Girls go through the many movements of an Amazonian march with red lights, forming a dazzling picture.

Bicyclists on a Spin.

Twenty members of the Peterborough Bicycle club held a delightful run to Lakefield and return last night. They left the market square at 7.20 o'clock, and arrived in Lakefield at 8.30 o'clock. The boys state that the spin was one of the pleasantest yet held, and that the roads are in fine condition. The members of the club will meet at the P.A.A.A. grounds on Thursday night to practice wheeling on the track. Let there be a large turnout. It will be decided on what night the club will hold its hob-demidol spin. It is expected about twenty-five wheelmen will go to Kingston on July 1st, to take part in the great meet in that city. There is some talk among the boys of running an excursion. It would be a capital thing.

He thinks they reside somewhere south of Rice Lake. Any person having this knowledge will kindly communicate with Mr. Wm. A FATAL RAILWAY WRECK.

A Freight Train Jumps the Grand Junction Track.

Engineer Percy Elliot Killed—The Driver Seriously Scalded and Otherwise Injured—Cars Piled in Heaps of Splintered Ruins—Loss of Property—Evidently the Work of the Tramp Wrecking Fiend.

At five o'clock this morning a smash-up took place on the Grand Junction Railway between Campbellford and Stirling — four miles south east of the former place — which resulted in the death of one man, and the serious, and probably fatal, scalding and injury of two others.

A special through freight passed through town at 2.35 this morning, bound for Belleville. It was in charge of conductor Fair, engine No. 616, driver, Robt. Johnston, fireman, Fred. Murray, head brakeman, Robt. Purdy and rear brakeman ——— Shields. The train consisted of 16 heavily laden cars.

The accident was the result of a deliberate attempt

TO WRECK CONDUCTOR STANTON'S TRAIN.

At four o'clock this morning a farmer removed a tie placed across the track in such and such a position as to derail any train that struck it on its end. It is supposed that another tie had been placed further on, for the special freight, just beyond a culvert, not far from where the farmer removed the tie, while running at special speed, left the track and ran for about ten car lengths on the sleepers. The engine then rolled over into a ditch six or eight feet deep, the cars from behind piling up and crushing down the engine under a lofty mass of splintered timber. [illegible] The car next the tender laden with timber, plunged clear over the engine and was hurled on the far on the fence, some of the fragments of timber being found far in the adjoining field. Mr. J.C. Moyses and Mr. L. Huffman, of Belleville, who came by the 8.20 train, described the mass of ruin as the saddest example of the wreck of matter and imaginable. The track north of the wreck is torn up for 200 feet, and the engine is partially covered with coke, which formed part of the cargo, while the destruction of material matter is deplorable, it is dwarfed into insignificance by the loss of human life, which it is pretty certain has taken place. Robert Purdy, of Lindsay, whose home is Port Hope, one of the veteran brakesmen on the line, buried under the mass of crushed timbers and debris near the engine, must be fearfully hurt, has not been got out at the date of writing—2.30 p. m.—and though his heart-rending groans can be heard there is but little hope that he will be rescued alive. Robt. Johnson, driver, with genuine pluck stuck to his engine to the last, had both arms and his back severely scalded and one of his legs broken, besides suffering from internal injuries. He was taken out more dead than alive and in possessed of extraordinary vitality if he survives. Fred Murray, the fireman was more lucky than his mate. He jumped and got off with slight scalds. He was able to walk about in the neighborhood of the wreck. Conductor Fair and brakesman Shields were in the van, and escaped, as the last six or eight cars were not injured.

Intelligence of the smash was telegraphed at once to Belleville and Peterborough and a wrecking train was at once despatched from the former place in charge of Superintendent Riddell, Wrecking Superintendent Clark and Mechanical Superintendent Robb. A special also left Peterborough in charge of Conductor Morris, to bring in Conductor Stanton's passengers. Meantime Dr. Bogart, of Campbellford, Dr. Mellajohn, of Stirling, and two other surgeons were on the spot to look after the injured train hands. Fifty employes of the road were soon at work clearing the line, which they had not completed at 4.30 this afternoon.

The passengers on Conductor Stanton's train lay in Stirling from 6.30 to 10 o'clock, when they were run out to the scene of the wreck and transferred to Conductor Morris' special, arriving in town at 2 o'clock.

Of course at the present there is no information available to decide what was the real cause of the run-off.

THE LATEST PARTICULARS.

A telegram received at four o'clock states that the body of the unfortunate Purdy has been found. It was taken from the great mass of ruins, dead. The remains were removed to Campbellford. The line which was supposed to be cleared by four o'clock, is not yet clear.

Alleged Street Watering.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Although gentle reminders have appeared lately in both papers as to the wretched style of street watering now in vogue, no improvement has been made. It is simply disgraceful that it is not better done, when it is remembered what we have to pay. Whose fault is it? Why has the area of last year over which the watering carts travelled been decreased? I hope the councillors in favor of the same districts as last year, will hammer away at the other members until they gain the day. In the meantime let us have better service.

Two Able Expositions

of Scripture Truth by the Rev. George Macrostie in the Gladstone Street Methodist Church on Sunday.

The EXAMINER has been favored the following summary of the services in Gladstone street Methodist church on Sunday, which we publish:

Two very interesting, instructive and practical sermons were preached on Sunday by the pastor of the church, Rev. George Macrostie. Text in both morning and evening was Matthew 26, 15—"But Peter followed afar off." The personal application of the questions from the heart and conscience were, What was Peter? whom did he follow? when, where, how, why and what were the consequences to himself and to others? Mr. Edwards gave the history of Peter from the time that he was called to be an apostle up to the time when he denied his Lord and Master. In answering the most important question, Why did Peter follow afar off? the speaker said he could not agree with many others that it was on account of unbelief. Nor could he entertain the idea that a number of Biblical scholars held, that it was through disappointment. The best answer he could give to the question was that of wounded pride, and that spirit of Peter's was found to-day in almost every church throughout Christendom. People there are in every congregation who, like Peter, take offence very easily, but their services are not fully appreciated, and follow their Saviour afar off. What were the consequences of Peter following afar off? It resulted in open denial of the Saviour and in shame and disgrace and the other apostles fled from their Lord and Master, and our Saviour being beaten as well as divine must have felt it very keenly, for at a time when He needed His most intimate friends, to rally around Him they followed Peter's action and forsook Him and fled.

In the evening discourse, Rev. Mr. Edwards took occasion to draw lessons from Peter's sudden change from being so impulsive and courageous companion and apostle to that of a deserter who followed his Lord at a distance.

The following points were beautifully brought out:—

1. Backsliding in heart and falling from grace is possible.

2. A man may fall from grace no matter what age or position he occupies in the church of God. Seniority and leadership in no guarantee against falling into sin.

3. A man may fall who has been blest with the very best Gospel teaching.

4. There is a possibility of falling from grace and backsliding, though having the advantages of faithful and loving pastoral care.

5. The loudest and highest professions are not always to be relied upon.

6. Most disastrous results may grow out of an act when divine direction is not sought and gained.

The sermon was well thought out and beautifully applied. At the evening service, while the collection was being taken up, Mrs. Clyde Green, Miss Fawcett, Mr. A. L. Davis and Mr. Steers rendered a beautiful quartette, considered by many the finest rendition ever heard in the church.

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. Ware of Ashburnham.

Mrs. Charles T. Ware, whose death was noted in yesterday's issue of the EXAMINER, was a native of England. She was a daughter of Lieutenant Moe of Her Majesty's Navy, and came to Canada with her parents, settling in Peterborough, her father taking up land on what is now the site of the Little Lake Cemetery, which was known as Moe's Point at the time the cemetery company acquired it in 1851. Here she was married to her late husband, Mr. Charles T. Ware, who died about 40 years ago. The deceased lady has been for over half a century a respected resident of the town. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at 4 p.m.

Catarrh and Neuralgia

Good authority has said that "neuralgia is the cry of the nerves for pure blood." The prompt action of Hood's Sarsaparilla on the blood, combined with its toning and strengthening effect upon the nerves, make this a grand medicine for neuralgia and also for catarrh, etc. We commend this letter to all having such troubles, and especially to

Suffering Women

"For a good many years I have been suffering from catarrh, neuralgia and

General Debility

I failed to obtain permanent relief from medical advice, and my friends feared I would never find anything to cure me. A short time ago I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. At that time I was unable to walk even a short distance without feeling a overtake me. And I had intense pains from neuralgia in my head, back and limbs, which were very exhausting. But I am glad to say that soon after I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I saw that it was doing me good. When I took 3 bottles I was entirely

Death-like Weakness

Cured of Neuralgia

I gained in strength rapidly, and can take a two-mile walk without feeling tired. I do not suffer nearly so much from catarrh, and find that as my strength increases the catarrh decreases. I am indeed a changed woman, and am very grateful to for what it has done for me. It is my wish that this my testimonial shall be published in order that others suffering as I was may learn how to be benefited." Mrs. M. E. MERRICK, 57 Elm Street, Toronto, Ont.

MONTREAL'S ELOPEMENT

THE FUGITIVES HAVE BEEN TRACED TO BOSTON

And Are Supposed to Have Taken Passage For England—Mr. Hebden Will Bring Up a Divorce Suit in New York—Allan's Previous Proclivities With Another Man's Wife.

MONTREAL, Que., June 1.—The elopement of "Jack" Allan and Mrs Hebden was the sole topic of conversation in Montreal yesterday. Men and women alike have gossiped of nothing else. Not for years has this city been stirred to its depths as by the publication of this sensation in Canadian high life.

They Went to Boston.

I have found out where this pair of sleepers went when they left this city in haste and reputation. They drove straight to the Canadian Pacific Railway station and took the 5 o'clock express for Boston.

This I have on the authority of the expressman who took Mrs. Hebden's trunks to the Canadian Pacific Railway depot and that of a Montreal gentleman who was aboard the train, and saw "Jack" Allan and his companion. "There is not the slightest possibility of my being mistaken in what I tell you," he said. "I knew 'Jack' Allan well and have had frequent business dealings with him. I saw him walking on the platform before the train started with a lady heavily veiled, whom I supposed to be Mrs. Allan, not being acquainted with that lady."

Seen in Boston.

"Did you see anything of the pair after they reached Boston?"

"I did, I saw Mr. Allan help the darkeyed woman into a carriage, get in after her himself and drive away. I have no idea where they went."

It being certain, then, that the runaways went to Boston, the question is whether they have remained there or have continued their journey possibly by sea to Europe. Said a gentleman holding a prominent city office this afternoon, "I cannot imagine what possessed 'Jack' Allan to do such a thing. Mrs. Hebden must have had some strange power over him to make him throw up a brilliant future for her sake."

His brother, Hugh A. Allan, has been summoned from Boston to fill the place occupied by "Jack" Allan as manager of the steamship line.

Every one in Montreal speaks of Mr. Hebden in the most complimentary terms, and sympathy for him in his sorrow is as general as is denunciation for Mrs. Hebden in her disgrace. A more devoted husband and father could not have been found in the whole Dominion, his one ambition during recent weeks having been to have his wife and little ones with him once more in a happy New York home.

The elopement was undoubtedly precipitated by the knowledge that Mr. Hebden was coming on last week to complete arrangements for the moving. During the four days Mr. Hebden spent here he scarcely left the place which had been his home, and almost the only caller he received was Father Woods of St. John the Evangelist's Church, who spent hours trying to help him. What passed between them or what revelations of domestic misery Mr. Hebden made will never be known, for the priest's lips are, as he told me, sealed with the seal of the confessional.

NEW YORK, May 31.—R. Y. Hebden, his two children and their nurses are still at the Windsor Hotel. Mr. Hebden has not heard from his wife since she eloped with Allan.

Walter Watson, manager of the Bank of Montreal, said yesterday that Hebden would begin attending to his duties again to-day as usual.

"He will simply try to live matters down," said Mr. Watson. "He has his two children with him and he will go to housekeeping very soon."

"'Jack' Allan's infatuation for Mrs. Alice Rae in Montreal, previous to his elopement with Mrs. Hebden, was mentioned yesterday. Mrs. Rae and her husband are now in this city. Mr. Rae was seen by a reporter yesterday and denied that his wife was an adventuress or that she had ever been a London barmaid. She is the daughter of Andrew Wesley, London manager for the French banking-house of Devaux & Co., he alleged, and received her education in Paris. This is Rae's story of Allan's connection with his wife:

"We were married in London and went to Montreal in 1886. As our circumstances were poor my wife became cashier for the Bodega Wine Company and I secured a place as checker for the Allan Line of steamers. It was at the Bodega that Mrs. Rae first met 'Jack' Allan. After we got a little money we started a saloon called 'The Cottage,' the license being in my wife's name. Allan became a constant visitor to 'The Cottage,' buying quantities of champagne every time he came. Four months after we took the place I became sick and went to England. While I was gone Allan's attention to Mrs. Rae became marked. At one time he stayed a whole week at 'The Cottage,' and when he wasn't there he seems to have spent most of his time in writing letters to my wife, urging her to go away and live with him.

"I returned in September. Among the first passengers to board the steamer when it reached Quebec was a detective named Cross, whom I knew slightly. Cross exhibited a remarkable friendship for me, and finally showed me a big roll of money, saying he had instructions to offer me the whole of it if I should stay away from Montreal. I refused and as soon as I got home went gunning for 'Jack' Allan. He discreetly left town and so did that time.

"I then brought suit for $10,000 damages against him. I found an extraordinary collection of letters which 'Jack' Allan had written to Mrs. Rae. 'Jack' offered me $3000 for the letters, but I wouldn't take it."

Rae has secured a position in Newark, N.J., and his wife is cashier in a retail store on the west side.

There is on one of the Hungarian railways an engine the tenth anniversary of whose service has just been celebrated. It bears a famous name, that of Charles Dickens, and has a record quite as fine for an engine as was Dickens' as a writer, having traversed in the 10 years of its life over 1,000,000 miles. It is an express engine, and can cover a mile in a minute with very little trouble. In September last it had completed its 2651 round trips between London and Manchester, besides making some 60 odd other journeys, at a total coal consumption for the 10 years of 19,515 tons.—Harper's Young People.

THE REDISTRIBUTION BILL UNDER DISCUSSION.

Mr. Laurier Pronounces the Act An Infamous Gerrymander—He Continues His Criticism To Quebec and Other Members Will Speak With Reference to Ontario and the Other Provinces.

OTTAWA, June 1.—At 23 minutes past 3 o'clock yesterday Sir John Thompson moved the second reading of the Redistribution Bill, and half a minute later Hon. Mr. Laurier was on his feet and amid the plaudits of his followers commenced his criticism of the act, which he denounced as an infamous gerrymander. He said that he would confine his own criticism to the Provinces of Quebec, leaving Ontario and the other parts of the Dominion to be dealt with by his followers. He first attacked the new representation given to Montreal, and claimed that that city was not entitled to any further representation, as, although the city had nominally only three representatives, there were actually 13 members of the House who were residents of Montreal and who represented the interests of that city. He did not desire, he said, to see the American system adopted, which required a delegate to reside in the district he represented, but he thought that Montreal was as much represented by those of her citizens who were elected for other constituencies as she was by Sir Donald Smith and the two other members elected for the city.

He denounced the redistribution of the Montreal district as infamous. Of the 25 constituencies in the Montreal district affected by the bill 12 are now represented by Conservatives and 13 by Liberals, but by the bill under consideration this minority of one would be converted into a majority of four for the Conservatives. He then took up the different districts as arranged, pointed out in detail how weak districts for the Conservatives had been strengthened and strong districts for the Liberals weakened by the addition or substraction of Conservative or Liberal votes as the case may be.

Mr. Laurier Moves An Amendment.

In conclusion he said that his criticism of the evils contained in the bill would not be complete without he suggested a remedy for what he condemned. It was a necessity that a redistribution should take place after each census, but he thought the system by which the redistribution was made should be changed. It had been suggested that the redistribution should be made by a committee of judges, but he and his friends would never agree to delegating any of the privileges of Parliament to a commission. The right must be exercised by Parliament itself, and he approved the plan adopted by Mr. Gladstone, when he invited the Conservatives to join him in favoring a redistribution bill. He moved in amendment

That the bill be not now read a second time, but that it be referred to a conference or committee of both sides of the House to consider the best lines on which a redistribution could be made.

Mr. Ouimet's Reply.

Hon. Mr. Ouimet replied at some length, taking up and replying to the objections raised by Mr. Laurier. He denied that there had been any gerrymandering, and claimed that the redistribution was as suitable as possible. There had been some equalization, and that this was necessary was shown by the fact that after the last general elections the Conservative majorities in the Province of Quebec aggregated more than 14,000 and the Liberal majorities 10,000, yet the Conservatives only had 27 members and the Liberals 38. In other words, a minority of 4000 on the popular vote of the province was represented by a majority of 11 members in the House.

Mr. Charlton spoke for a few minutes up to recess dealing with the Gerrymander as an American institution which was designed to obtain a party advantage, and regretting that it had been introduced in Canada. He would have continued after recess, but, having a headache, gave place to Mr. Devlin, who confined himself to a few remarks about Ottawa County, which, he said, he would rather see divided north and south instead of east and west, as proposed in the bill.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Lavergne and Brodeur in French and Messrs. Perry, Armstrong and Bechard until midnight, when Mr. Choquette moved the adjournment of the debate, and the House adjourned.

OTTAWA, June 1.—Messrs. A. Jacques, Montreal; Captain Towers, Hamilton, and W. A. Geddes, Toronto, representing the Inland Marine Association of Canada, were introduced to Hon. John Haggart, Minister of Railways and Canals, by Messrs. Curran, Maclean, McKay, Ryckman and Boyle and represent that the low state of water in the Morrisburg Canal rendered it necessary that navigation should be assisted at that point. They suggested that a chain tug should be so placed as to assist boats in getting up the Rapid Platte.

Mr. Haggart seemed favorably impressed and promised to bring the matter before his colleagues.

Inspection of Export Apples.

Messrs. Nicholas Awrey, Ontario Commissioner to the Chicago Fair, and A. B. Pettit of Grimsby had an interview yesterday with Professor Saunders, Canadian Commissioner, with reference to the supply of Ontario fruit for the fair. They also saw the Minister of Inland Revenue on the subject of the inspection of apples to be exported to the Old Country, being introduced by Messrs. McKay, Carpenter, Henderson and Ryckman.

The Minister promised that the matter would receive attention, and this promise was promptly fulfilled, for last night Sir John Abbott introduced in the Senate a bill to amend the Inspection Act, which provides for the optional inspection of apples, which shall be classed as first, second and third quality.

The Senate.

Sir John Abbott delivered a glowing eulogy on the late Sir Alexander Campbell, and was followed by Hon. Messrs. Scott and Miller.

Lady Stanley was in the Speaker's gallery last night and seemed to enjoy the debate, although the speaking this evening was not of the most brilliant order.

It is expected that a division on Mr. Laurier's amendment will be reached to-night, when Mr. Davies will, it is said, probably move another amendment laying down the general principles on which the Opposition thinks redistribution should be based.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The steamer Amsterdam arrived in port with the crew of the Swedish bark Signe. The Signe was en route from Antwerp for Pictou, N.S., when she encountered a terrific hurricane which carried away all her bulwarks and masts. For 36 hours the men on the dismasted, foundering vessel worked at the pumps, which were choked with sand, and she was sinking when the Amsterdam sighted her, and seven members of the crew put out and rescued them.

"German Syrup"

For Throat and Lungs

Hemorrhage Five Years.

"I have been ill for "about five years, "have had the best "medical advice, "and took the first "dose in some doubt. This result-"ed in a few hours easy sleep. There "was no further hemorrhage till next "day, when I had a slight attack "which stopped almost immediate-"ly. By the third day all trace of "blood had disappeared and I had "recovered much strength. The "fourth day I sat up in bed and ate "my dinner, the first solid food for "two months. Since that time I "have gradually gotten better and "am now able to move about the "house. My death was daily ex-"pected and my recovery has been "a great surprise to my friends and "the doctor. There can be no doubt "about the effect of German Syrup, "as I had an attack just previous to "its use. The only relief was after "the first dose." J. R. LOUGHHEAD, Adelaide-Australia.

NEWS AND GOSSIP TELEGRAPHED FROM EUROPE.

Belle Bilton's Husband a Bankrupt—For Love She Killed Her Benefactress—A Long Distance Race on Stilts—Another Spinning House Case.

BELFAST, May 31.—The Telegraph's project for resistance to a home rule government was written by an Irish Unionist. It says the men of Ulster will not let elections occur. The election writs will be publicly burned by the sheriffs of counties, judges and magistrates. Commissions from the new executive will not be recognized. The police force will be re organized with special constables sworn to replace the regular police.

The regular taxes will be paid, but taxes levied by the Dublin Parliament will not be paid. The Custom House will be seized and held until the question is settled.

Continuing, the article says: "In the event of war the north will be in a better position, both as regards credit and geographical position, than the south. Belfast is unassailable, while Dublin is open to direct and immediate attack."

GLADSTONE'S CAMPAIGN.

A Carriage Canvass in Every Hamlet in Midlothian.

LONDON, May 31.—Whatever may be the intention of the Government as to dissolution, the Liberals are evidently preparing for a campaign that will surpass any in the past by the energy and activity to be displayed. The striking feature of the contest will be the wonderful exhibition of vigor by Gladstone. A committee has already made arrangements for speeches to be delivered by Gladstone in every parish of Midlothian.

He will visit in a carriage every village and hamlet in Midlothian. In the smaller hamlets, he will speak to the people, as a rule, from the carriage in which he will travel, but in every large place he will deliver an address in some public hall, or on the green. The speeches will be telegraphed throughout Great Britain.

WILL VISIT CANADA.

Princess Louise's Select Party of British Notables Coming Next Year.

LONDON, May 31.—The Princess Louise of Lorne is arranging a party from the highest ranks to visit the Columbus Exhibition in Chicago and Ottawa and other Canadian points next year.

Among the party will be the Duchess of Portland, Duchess of Manchester, Duchess of Newcastle, Duchess of Wellington, the Marchioness of Granby, Marchioness of Stafford, Marchioness of Dufferin, Countess of Dudley, Countess of Grosvenor, Countess of Airlie, Countess of Minto, Countess of Aberdeen, Countess of Zetland, Viscountess Brooke, Lady Henry Bentinck, Lady Henry Somerset and Lady Randolph Churchill.

IMPRISONED FOR FLIRTING.

An English Girl Declared Guilty of Being Suspected of Evil.

LONDON, May 31.—A girl named Beatrice Cooper was arraigned before the vice-chancellor of Cambridge University yesterday, when one of Proctor's constables testified that the conduct of Beatrice was such as to cause her to be suspected of evil. The testimony did not show that the girl had been detected in any evil, but only that she was thought capable, from her conduct, of leading the students astray.

Miss Cooper denied that she ever had done or meant any harm, and wept as she gave her denial. She wanted to go home, she said, and would carefully, hereafter, in her walks abroad, avoid undergraduates.

The vice-chancellor was, however, inexorable. He decided that Beatrice was guilty of being suspected of evil, and sentenced the young woman, who is only 20 years of age, to one week's imprisonment in the spinning house.

When the audience heard the sentence they hissed.

THE MAD KING.

Bavaria's Monarch Continues to Smash Things Up.

MUNICH, May 31.—The physicians of King Otto had an audience this week with the regent to represent to him the real and exact condition of their patient.

Frequently at night the King is seized with violent fits and smashes furniture and pictures, or tries to throw himself from the window. His cries can be heard throughout the district when the four muscular porters, who are kept ready for such occasions, seize him and strap him to his bed.

The Wonderful Success

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier entitles it to your confidence. No other preparation has such a record of cures of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, or other blood diseases. To try it is to know its merit. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

The Dreaded La Grippe.

Following this scourge of humanity come a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Mitburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. Price 50c. and $1 00 per bottle. dw

A PRETTY GIRL'S CRIME

She Murdered Her Adopted Mother in Order To Marry Her Lover.

PARIS, May 31.—Mme. Savary, a wealthy widow of Montdidier, Somme, aged 50, was murdered in her bed by being stabbed in the heart with a pearl-handled dagger, which the assassin left behind. An investigation proved that the dagger belonged to Mme. Savary. The only other occupant of the villa was Marianne, an adopted daughter of Mme. Savary, aged 19, a girl of unusual personal beauty. Mme. Savary had no children of her own, and it was well known that she had made the girl her sole legatee. The girl and her lover have disappeared, and the police have no doubt that the woman was murdered by her adopted child. The chief part of the fortune, which was in cash and kept in the house, is also missing.

Princess Marie to Coy.

LONDON, May 31.—It is whispered in society that the Princess Marie of Edinburgh is disinclined to the proposal of marriage to Prince Ferdinand of Roumania. The Princess is only about 17 years of age. She is handsome and also brainy. She has heard of Prince Ferdinand's desertion of Mlle. Vacaresco, and she does not like it. Besides she is disgusted with Ferdinand himself.

A Long Distance Race on Stilts.

PARIS, May 31.—A curious kind of a race began yesterday from Bordeaux to Biarritz and back, a distance of 303 miles. Eighty-one men left the Hotel De la Gironde at 8 o'clock in the morning mounted on stilts to test their speed and endurance. They were started on their journey by a military band and accompanied by a party of bicyclists, whose duty it is to see fair play.

A quarter of an hour after the men had started a party of 18 women and young girls, mounted on stilts also, left Bordeaux for Ceranc to try to run there and back, a distance of 30 miles, in one day.

Cleocarty "Cited."

LONDON, May 31.—The London Gazette contains a notice addressed to the Earl of Cleancarty, who married Belle Bilton, on a bankruptcy petition presented by Samuel Lewis, the well-known money lender.

The British Flag Causes Commotion.

LONDON, May 30.—Advices from Fez, one of the capitals of Morocco, are to the effect that Sir Charles Euan Smith, the British Envoy, has hoisted the British flag over the building which the Embassy occupies.

This is regarded in Fez as a most extraordinary event, being the first time a foreign flag has ever floated in the Moorish capital.

The people do not take kindly to the inovation and the presence of the emblem has created considerable excitement. Already there is loud murmuring amopg the natives and it is possible serious trouble may result.

Deeming's Writings to be Burned.

MELBOURNE, May 30.—The authorities have decided that all the statements, letters to the Press and other documents written by Deeming, the notorious wife murderer, shall be destroyed.

Falling off a Log

"As easy as falling off a log," is an old saying. When it was first uttered, nobody knows. Nothing is easier, unless it is the taking of a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These act like magic. No griping or crenching follows, as is the case with the old fashioned pills. The relief that follows resembles the action of Nature in her happiest moods; the impulse given to the dormant liver is of the most salutary kind, and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Sick headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the skin and eyeballs are speedily remedied by the Pellets.

Health Department.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called constiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

Consumptives!

Do not give up until you have tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which makes flesh and blood, is a positive cure for coughs and colds, bronchitis, sore throats, and all lung troubles tending to consumption. Persons have been known to gain from five to ten pounds in weight by taking one bottle of Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which contains hypophosphites of lime and soda. In big bottles 50c. and $1.00—at Peterborough Drug Stores. dw

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good. dw is in store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large bottles 50 cents and $1. dw

EXTENSIVE CHANGES IN

THOMAS KELLY'S

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PRICES WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy NOW, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

Married at Port Dover.

The Stratford Beacon of May 30th, says: "The register at the Albion to-day contains the following: 'Molanes Wilson and wife, Stratford.' Mr. Wilson, who is junior partner in the firm of Wilson & Wilson, China Hall, arrived in town this forenoon with his bride, Miss Lois Grey, of Peterborough. They were married at Port Dover this morning." The many friends of the happy couple in Peterborough will wish them many years of happiness.

Prizes Awarded.

Ever since last October every person getting a shave, a hair cut or a bath at Mr. Chas. Legros' barber shop, George street, received a ticket every time they visited his establishment for any of these purposes. Coupons of every number issued were kept in a bag, and the drawing took place to-day. Mr. Harry Winch drew at random from the bag three numbers, which were as follows:

No. 675, a gentleman's gold watch.
No. 825, a fine meerschaum pipe.
No. 6808, a pair of pants, ordered from H. LeBrun & Co.

Turner's English Gaiety Girls

drew large houses at matinee and evening performances at Hilton's yesterday. A "rehearsal" makes up the first part, and in style, variety, catchy and quaint melodic conceits the performance is vastly superior to any company that has been seen at this popular house. The serpentine dance by Misses Russell, Fleming, Hizal and Rose La Montain had several recalls. Turner and Russell in their musical sketch were highly appreciated. There are many other artists of merit, and a most enjoyable performance winds up with a burlesque, and a dazzling march by a bevy of pretty girls.—St. Paul Dispatch. The Gaiety girls will play at the Opera House, Saturday, June 4th.

Sneak Thieves.

Householders should take the precaution of securing their premises safely. This morning at 1 o'clock a Dalhousie st. resident was awakened by the barking of the house dog. A sneak thief was noticed in the corner shed igniting matches to light his way to the spoil he sought. The proprietor of the house went down and the scamp ran away before he could be caught. The police were telephoned for and a search of the vicinity was made, but without other result than the discovery, in a G.T.R. box car of three young men, who were favoured with an interview with the Police Magistrate this morning. In regard to promises, as other things, when the summer tramp is abroad, "safe bind, safe find" is both Shakespearean and sound common sense.

Royal Templar's Entertainment.

There was a large attendance at the open meeting of the Peterborough Lodge R. T. of T. in their hall on Hunter street last evening. The regular meeting of the lodge was held first, after which a good programme was presented in a capital manner. Bro. Fowler, of the Springville lodge presided in a happy manner. Sister D. Kernaghan rendered an instrumental solo in excellent style, after which Bro. N. B. Scott favoured with a first class mouthorgan solo which was well received. Bro. A. Clegg gave a splendid reading, Master Roy Stephenson a clever exhibition of club swinging, Sister Fowler, of Springvill a vocal solo, as also did Mrs. (Dr.) Stephenson both of which were loudly applauded. Master Roy Stephenson again appeared and closed an interesting evening with a recitation. Bro. McCallum, an old member of the lodge gave a short address during the evening.

Deman Slattery was the first victim to toe the mark. He was liberated from the county gaol yesterday and could not stand the glory of liberty, so he was arrested by officer McGinty and faced the court this morning on the charge of being drunk. Dennis told the magistrate how he had been donated a sum of money and how he had proceeded to use it to good advantage, as he thought. He was accorded six months in gaol at hard labor, and with many odious which amused the onlookers, he was led away.

John Wilson and Alex. Ross were arrested at two o'clock last night by Officers Stewart and McGinty for being ensconced in a box car at the C. P. R. depot. They are brought up this morning charged with vagrancy, to which charge they pleaded not guilty. The evidence which was taken did not establish any guilt against the men beyond being found in the box car, where the magistrate alleged they had no right to be. He dismissed them with a caution.

George Wheeler was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Adams, charged with non-support of his wife. Mrs. Wheeler appeared against him this morning, but as she did not have counsel the magistrate said he could not try the case. Mrs. Wheeler said she wanted her husband separated from her. Wheeler was discharged with a caution.

A woman residing on Hunter street was charged with keeping a house of ill-fame. Her daughter and a married woman found in the house at the time the police raided it last night, were charged with being inmates. The evidence of several witnesses was taken, but as the defence was without counsel and witnesses the case was enlarged until to-morrow in order that they might secure them.

North Monaghan.

Court of Revision.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The municipal council of North Monaghan met as a court of revision at 1 o'clock p.m. on May 30th. The reeve and council were all present and took the declaration required by statute. There being no formal appeals, the council on examination of the roll, decided, on motion, that, owing to the absence of the assessor, the court of revision would adjourn to meet again on Monday, the 6th day of June, at one o'clock p.m. sharp.

COUNCIL MEETING.—On motion the council went into session for the transaction of general business. The minutes of the last two regular and one special meeting were read and confirmed. Several communications were read, among which were the following:—One from the clerk of Cavan in regard to boundary line, one from the Provincial Board of Health enclosing report in reference to the sewerage system of Shanewa, and another one from Mr. J. R. Cobb, town clerk, asking permission to use the road from southern boundary of town to the river for the purpose of constructing the sewer. Mr. George Young, sr., addressed the council in reference to payment for sheep killed by dogs. Mr. John Donaldson, of South Monaghan, also addressed the council saying that his buggy was broken by falling into a hole on the culvert west of Mr. John Fowler's. On motion councillors Hunter and McIntosh were appointed a committee to meet Mr. Donaldson about the Cavan boundary line. The clerk was instructed on motion to write the town clerk stating that this council refuse permission to use the road for the purpose of putting in the sewer. The council also decided to answer the Provincial board of Health by saying that the council did not concur in the views expressed in the report. The clerk was instructed to write to that effect.

The business of Messrs. Donaldson and Young was left over to the next meeting.

On motion $5 was granted to be expended on road div. No. 4, side line south of town hall, and $30 on div. 12, gravel road, west end, and $30 on div. 13, to gravel hill, near the residence of Mr. T. Cavan.

Death of a Venerable Pioneer Resident.

Mrs. John Walsh, of Cavan township, died after a brief but severe illness on Tuesday morning, May 31st, at the advanced age of 80 years. The deceased lady belonged to one of the earliest families of the township. She was born in Ireland, and came to Canada with the father of the family, David Sharpe, in the year 1819. Since that time she has lived in Cavan. About 55 years ago she was married to the late John Walsh, J.P., who died six years ago. Mrs. Walsh leaves behind her two sons and two daughters. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and was held in high respect by the entire community in which she passed the long years of her life.

A SCROFULOUS BOY

Running Sores Covered His Body and Head. Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using all freely. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS,
MAY 9, 1885. 612 E. Clay St., Bloomington, Ill.

MARRIED.

WILSON—GRAY.—At the residence of Samuel J. Gamble, Esq., of Fort Davis, Ont., on Monday, May 30th, 1892, by the Rev. J. R. Lowell, Robert Henry McInnes Wilson, of China hall, Stratford, son of Robert Nicol Wilson, Saginaw, Mich. to Lota Florence, daughter of the late Nutter Gray, Esq., of Peterborough, Ont.

Miss Mattie A. Cobb
of Providence, R. I.

Undoubtedly many diseases may be prevented if the blood is kept pure and the general health-tone sustained by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. When this is done, the germs of

La Grippe, Diphtheria

Pneumonia, Scarlet and Typhoid Fevers, Malaria, etc., cannot lodge in the system. After all such prostrating diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found of inestimable value in restoring desired health and vigor, and purifying the tainted blood.

For example, read the following from Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I., and her mother. Miss Cobb is a young lady of 18, a and is in the front rank in her studies in the High School. Her father is a well-known police officer:

"Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co.:

"I write to tell how much good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. Sometime ago I had diphtheria and was sick for a year afterward, being

Weak, Blind and Helpless

I used one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me real strong." MATTIE A. COBB, South Chester Avenue, Providence, R. I.

"As my daughter wanted to write how well she liked Hood's Sarsaparilla, I thought I would say a few words. I think it is the ever brought before the people. Some of my friends say 'go away with your medicine.' I said the same once, but since my daughter has taken

Hood's Sarsaparilla

My opinion has changed considerably." MRS. GEO. N. COBB, Providence, R. I.

HOOD'S PILLS do not weaken the system like other cathartics, but actually tone up and give strength to the patient.

In the art of Watch Repairing, there are many elements which go to make successful work. The cleaning and regulating is easily performed, but the replacing of any broken parts is far more difficult and it takes a workman of long experience and first class practical ability to make a new piece which is as well finished and fitted as the original was. MUNDASTER invariably finishes his work equal to new. The New Store is next to the "Examiner" Office.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE REDISTRIBUTION DEBATE STILL IN PROGRESS

A Message Had Not Been Received When the House Adjourned Last Night—Statement of the Washington-Senator Boulton to Resign and Run for the Commons.

OTTAWA, June 2.—The whole of yesterday's session up to 12.45 at night was practically taken up with the continuation of the redistribution debate, and the vote on Mr. Learier's amendment was not reached last night as had been expected.

The debate was opened by Mr. Choquette and continued by Messrs. Dupont, Bintret, Desjardins, Monet, Lodge, O'Brien and Edwards.

Mr. Edwards protested against the change in Russell county, and stating that it was done to put him out of public life and to carry out a threat made by his unsuccessful opponent at the by-election in 1890, that he (Edwards) would be put out of Parliament by Clarence Township being taken out of Russell and put into Prescott.

Mr. Devlin's Home Rule Resolution.

OTTAWA, June 2.—Mr. Devlin has issued an invitation to some 40 prominent Home Rulers to meet him in his committee room this afternoon at 5 o'clock, to discuss his Home Rule resolution, which will probably come up on Monday.

Off for Washington.

OTTAWA, June 2.—Hon. Mr. Bowell and Hon. Mr. Foster left yesterday for Washington. They will return by Saturday. The object of their visit is to have a talk with Sir Julian Pauncefote before he leaves on a few days for a six months' leave of absence in Europe and Egypt.

One of the minor matters still open between the United States and Canada is in relation to the canal tolls, the Americans claiming that they are discriminated against in the use of them.

Sir Julian is anxious to have this straightened out, and it is likely that he and the Canadian Ministers will be able to come to a settlement with Mr. Blaine on this point.

There will be no discussion on trade questions. The ultimatum of the American Government delivered last February still stands in the way. In that ultimatum Mr. Blaine said there need be no hope of reciprocal trade unless Canada was prepared to discriminate against Great Britain.

Senator Boulton to Resign.

OTTAWA, June 2.—"I intend resigning my seat in the Senate," said Senator Boulton yesterday, "just as soon as I learn that Mr. Watson has resigned his seat for Marquette."

"Do you intend to run on the Conservative side?" was asked. "I am a Conservative, but slightly opposed to the trade policy of the Government. I intend to run in Marquette as a free trader, having come to the conclusion that free trade, pure and simple, is what Canada requires."

SIR JOHN THOMPSON THE MAN.

He Will Be One of the British Behring Sea Arbitrators.

LONDON, June 2.—Sir John Thompson has been selected as one of the arbitrators. An eminent jurist will be chosen as the other British arbitrator, while an eminent advocate, probably a member of the British Government, will be selected as the British advocate.

Hon. C. H. Tupper is expected here shortly in the capacity of agent to the British arbitrator to assist to prepare the British case.

AN OCTOGENARIAN MURDERED.

An Unnatural Son Smote Down His Aged Father.

LONDON, June 2.—Mr. C. F. Greatrex, aged 80, a well-known resident of Leamington, was shot to death by his son, to whom he had refused money to enable him to carry on a life of dissipation.

The murderer, who was arrested on the spot, said he was glad of what he had done. His father had not treated him right and now he had his revenge.

Preferential Trade.

LONDON, June 2.—The Deliberative Committee of the Imperial Federation Council is holding meetings to complete the report outlining a scheme.

The friends of the preferential plan are much aided by the action of the Canadian Parliament, and now hope to secure a report on favorable lines.

Cobden Club free traders generally ridicule the idea of this country sanctioning such a return to protection.

WENT OVER THE FALLS.

Niagara Claims Yet Another Victim—Probably a Suicide.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 2.—T. E. Pritchard of Buffalo rushed into the Inclined Railway Building, in Prospect Park, at 6.30 this morning and notified Jack McCloy that he had just seen a man pass over the American Falls. The man came down stream about 100 feet out from shore and made no movement to help himself. There is no clue to identity as yet.

The Bennett Divorce Case.

OTTAWA, June 2.—The Senate Divorce Committee had under consideration again yesterday the application of R. Bennett, hotelkeeper, Toronto, who seeks relief from his wife. Mrs. Bennett arrived to-day and will oppose the application. She is a sprightly little woman with a pleasing countenance. She was plainly attired in a black dress and her quiet appearance did not attract the attention of anyone as being the central figure of a divorce case. The evidence against the little woman is said to be small and consists principally in the testimony of another woman.

Grasped the Horns of the Dilemma.

ORILLIA, June 2.—David Wainman was tossed by a frantic steer at the station last evening, but escaped serious injury by holding on to the animal's horns.

Drowned at Sarnia.

SARNIA, Ont., June 1.—John Boulton, aged 35, was coming up the river in a small boat from Ward's Fishery, below the town, and the swell of the steamer Cole overturned the boat and Boulton was drowned. The body has been recovered.

A Deadwood Central Train Wrecked on a Steep Grade.

DEADWOOD, S.D., June 2.—A special train made up of an engine and one coach, on the Deadwood Central Railroad, bringing people home from a ball at Lead City at 3.25 yesterday, jumped the track on a steep grade and ran at an acute angle from the roadbed until the engine was brought to a halt by collision with a gigantic rock jutting from the mountain.

James Scott, fireman, was killed. William Thomas, drummer-boy for the Terraville Band, was fatally injured. Tim Monahan, engineer, received a bad cut on the head and internal injuries.

The coach was crowded with passengers, several of whom jumped and sustained painful injuries. Those remaining in the car escaped unhurt.

The Deadwood Central is a narrow-gauge railway connecting Deadwood and Lead City, and is operated over some of the most startling grades in the country. This is the third fatal accident on the road in the last 15 months.

BALANCED ON A FREIGHT CAR.

Miraculous Escape of Passengers from a Plunge Into a River.

DANVILLE, Ill., June 2.—While the south-bound local on the Tuscola branch of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad was rounding a rocky bluff above the Vermilion River, near Grape Creek, yesterday the passenger coach and freight cars trembled 20 feet into the river.

The passenger coach landed squarely on top of one of the freight cars and balanced evenly, keeping the passengers about six inches out of the water. There were 25 passengers in the car, including several women, but none were fatally hurt. The second freight car was loaded with lumber and floated two miles down the stream. The accident was caused by a washout.

A COLUMN OF CANADIAN.

INFANTICIDE CASE REPORTED FROM GALT.

The Woman Alleged to Be Responsible for the Infant's Death Arrested in Toronto—A Number of Fires—Escaped From a Lockup—A Homeless Homicide—Flight of a Grocer.

GALT, Ont., June 2.—Some time since an infant was left with a Mrs. Palmer, residing in North Water street, by its reputed mother, a Mrs. Thompson, then employed as a cook at the Queen's Hotel, but now a resident of the United States. Mrs. Palmer was paid a consideration to take charge of the infant.

The child died on Monday morning, was buried on Monday afternoon, and Mrs. Palmer left with her household effects for Toronto the same night.

Rumors as to the infant's condition prior to death, the unseemly haste with which the burial was accomplished, and Mrs. Palmer's flight to Toronto without notifying her landlord, taking her own three children and household furniture with her, led the public to believe that an investigation should be made.

Weighed Only Four Pounds.

The body was disinterred yesterday, and an inquest held by Coroner Vardon, which was adjourned to permit of a post mortem examination, after which the coroner issued a warrant for Mrs. Palmer's arrest.

Evidence at the inquest went to show that want of nourishment and wilful neglect on the part of Mrs. Palmer caused the infant's death.

A Package of Arsenic.

A package of arsenic was discovered in the house after Mrs. Palmer's departure, which was purchased by her at a druggists here on April 18 for the ostensible purpose of poisoning mice.

Statements made by Mrs. Palmer to her neighbors regarding the treatment the doctor ordered for the child were emphatically denied by the doctor.

MURDER AT RAT PORTAGE.

The Mutilated Body of a Woman Found on Tunnel Island—Evidently Killed For Her Money.

RAT PORTAGE, Ont., June 2.—A man reported to the police that he had discovered the dead body of a woman lying on Tunnel Island, a short distance from the water. A constable in company with the man went over to the island and found that the body was that of a woman who had evidently met with foul play.

The deceased came here from Winnipeg last summer, and worked for some time in a restaurant. She was then a widow, calling herself Mrs. Mundy. Since coming here she was remarried to a man named Ostrander, who is at present working in camp on the Rainy River. The woman reached here from that place a day or two ago, and is known to have had money in her possession just before she met with her death. The body has been brought here and an inquest will be held.

A MISSING BREWER.

He Leaves Creditors in the Lurch to the Tune of $21,000.

SALEM, Ont., June 2.—Michael Doerbecker, brewer, has disappeared, leaving liabilities of $21,000.

Many of the residents of Salem and Elora are his victims. A favorite plan of his to raise money seemed to have been to get some of his friends to sign a note with him for three months. When it was due he represented the bank wanted a renewal, and so he procured a second note which was discounted without lifting the old one. In this way many have been mulcted in large sums. It is said also that collections were freely made by Doerbecker just before leaving. A writ issued by Field & Winsler, on behalf of Messrs. Todd & Son, maltsters, Galt, brought matters to a crisis and led to lively times around the brewery. Doerbecker fled. He was a prominent Mason and a member of several societies and was, up to the time of his flight, highly respected in the neighborhood.

Escaped from the Lock-Up.

GEORGETOWN, Ont., June 2.—Recently a robbery was committed in a house in Chingacousy and suspicion has since rested upon the notorious Bill Clark, who has already served several terms in the penitentiary for larceny and arson. Constable [illegible] and Chief [illegible] went in Clark's [illegible] the door open by breaking out a half-inch bolt and went on his way rejoicing.

Barrister Smart of Hamilton Dead.

HAMILTON, June 1.—William Lyon Smart, barrister, Hamilton, formerly of the firm of Cameron & Smart, Toronto, and from 1873 to 1879 deputy judge of Wentworth, died in this city yesterday, aged 66 years.

HIS LATEST EFFORT.

He Leaves a Note saying that He Will Drown Himself.

LONDON, June 2.—A young gentleman named Mascini of Cheltenham, while on his way to St. John's College, Oxford, was found unconscious in a railway carriage, with a bullet wound in his head on Saturday. He died yesterday at Radcliffe Infirmary at Oxford.

When found he had a gold pencil case in his right hand, having written on a scrap of paper, in his pocket, the following words:

"Man shot me in train."

The Durham Strike Over.

LONDON, June 2.—The long strike of the Durham coal miners ended yesterday and they will resume work at the reductions in their wages which the strike was inaugurated upon which the strikers were unwilling to accept. The strike was discussed to both interests.

THE MARROW TRAGEDY.

The Coroner's Jury at a Preliminary Sitting.

MRS. CAROLINE M. JAMES—James Spence died at the home in the City, aged 72 years, some ago—was age to drive 20 miles on a very stormy day and was almost frozen to death. He was taken sick with a disease that has caused all physicians who have attended him.

The current of the man's house was said to have been frosted, as he labored by the evidence said he suffered that his memory became useless. Later it was observed that his limbs were hardening, and he became so helpless that he was unable to leave his bed. Every effort was made by physicians to help the man, but his limbs gradually became swelled, and at the time of his death it is said all his joints had grown together.

A WITNESS MISSING.

The Wife of Prince Bichael Has Left Detroit for Canada.

DETROIT, June 2.—Mrs. [illegible], Prince Michael's wife, having become tired of the notoriety she has gained in the [illegible] case, has gone to Tilbury, Ont., the home of her childhood, where the said Michael went to school together and made love, and the question is, Will she ever come back?

It is now transpires that she did not get a [illegible] dollars after all, but only got a note, and Assistant Prosecutor Springer and others say they do not believe the note is worth the paper it is written on.

Mrs. Mich's lawyer says Mrs. Mich will shortly [illegible] Detroit and go into business for herself, and that divorce proceedings will be instituted.

STRANGLED BY HER HAIR.

Miss Lillian Norfolk Found With Her Head In a Wash Basin.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Miss Lillian Norfolk, a well-known society belle of Flatbush, committed suicide yesterday morning. She had been dead several hours when discovered, with her head submerged in a stationary wash basin. Her hair was twisted around her throat, and after passing it over a faucet, she held the ends with her right hand. She was attired in a night robe.

Miss Norfolk was the daughter of George H. Norfolk, a druggist at No. 75 Fulton-street, Brooklyn. They lived in a beautiful residence at Flatbush.

Miss Norfolk was a beautiful young woman, tall and slender. Her hair was her principal attraction and fell in masses about her shoulders. She always made it look pretty. Her mother left her considerable money, but she grew extravagant and spent it for dress.

Miss Norfolk was kneeling beside the washstand when found. There are two faucets. Miss Norfolk took several strands of her hair and twisted them around her neck and then passed them over one of the faucets in such a manner as to press her neck against the marble slab. She clutched the other faucet with her left hand, and in that way kept her head beneath the water.

THE G.T.R. WRECK.

The Campbellford Disaster Was Caused By Train Wreckers.

CAMPBELLFORD, Ont., June 2.—The Grand Trunk authorities have offered $500 reward for the detection of the miscreants who placed ties on the track near here, causing the wreck yesterday.

The body of the unfortunate brakeman, Robert Purdy, was sent to Port Hope today for burial.

The inquest has been adjourned until Monday next.

Her Body Turned to Stone.

MONTEZUMA, Iowa, June 2.—At Hazlewood Cemetery, near this city, one day last week Charles Block, wishing to remove the remains of his wife, who died eight years ago, opened her grave. He found it full of water and was astonished at the weight of the coffin. The combined strength of five men finally brought the coffin out of the grave, and when opened it was found that the action of the water had turned the body to solid stone, preserving its natural appearance to a remarkable degree. Even a bouquet of flowers held by the dead woman was perfectly petrified. The skin was fair, the hair as black and glossy as in life.

Trouble in Hawaii.

Those arrested are members of the "Hawaiian Protective Association," and have for their object the overthrow of the existing form of government by deposing Queen Liliukalani and establishing a Hawaiian republic.

The leaders of the movement are understood to be Volney V. Ashford, a Canadian and participator in the revolution of 1887 and 1889, and Robert W. Wilcox, whose character as an agitator and revolutionist is also well known.

A Canadian Honored.

The Methodist Cemetery.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I noticed in the papers lately something more about the old Methodist cemetery. During last fall I read several notices of meetings to discuss matters in reference to that old city of the dead, but I was poorly then and I could not well attend. But as I have a just claim I wish to make a few remarks, as I hear there are a few heartless men who are trying to get a claim on that dear sacred spot. When I came to Peterborough more than fifty years ago, Peterborough was a small affair with only a few huts in the lower part of the town, but small as the population was it was found necessary to have a burrying ground, consequently a plot was laid off, then calculated to serve for all time and a line was drawn across it giving one half to the Roman Catholics and the other half to Protestants. Honor to the Catholics; they kept possession of their part. Well, Peterborough grew rapidly, and the Methodists concluded to purchase a piece of land for a new cemetery, and they made choice of that beautiful site now called the old cemetery, about a mile and a half from the town, doubtless never thinking that any party would make such an unjust claim to our legal property—in trying to break our deeds and take possession—as an excuse for the accommodation of the hospital. My deed is signed by twelve trustees. Mr. Sheridan was, until his death, treasurer for the cemetery, and it is said a large amount of money fell into the hands of some one of his successors, but is now lost sight of. Now, had this money been applied to its proper use in keeping the cemetery in good order, I think a more lovely spot could not be found in which to bury our loved dead. But since the Little Lake Cemetery was opened our dear old cemetery has been totally neglected. But all this don't lessen our title to the grounds. I wonder that men professing to be Christians, and are ranked as pillars of the church, would allow themselves to be carried away in the dreadful crime of desecrating the hallowed dust that covers our beloved dead with their unhallowed feet. Take heed, gentlemen; I think it would rather become you to take your shoes from off your feet while you approach that sacred spot. I will only add, gentlemen, do unto all men as you would they should do unto you, and let our dead rest in peace, for your face will soon be turned up to the grass like theirs. Time is uncertain, and death and judgment are sure to come.

Mr. T. E. Bell deserves great applause for the noble stand he has taken in defending our rights.

Hoping you will kindly place this letter in a prominent place in the EXAMINER, and with many thanks,

I am, your obedient servant,
JOHN W. MOORE, Sr.,
Lakefield.

AN OUTBREAK THIS MORNING.

Your correspondent had occasion to visit one of our prominent cheese factories a few days since, and while there made a few observations in the hopes of obtaining some items of interest, and was somewhat astonished at some of the facts that the books show, as they go to prove that some of our country friends who are credited with being shrewd business men have not yet cut their eye teeth and are at present considering their milk-business on a principle that a school boy would be ashamed to acknowledge. How to explain. All milk from each patron is weighed and he receives credit for that amount, and when the cheese is sold cash is paid pro rata, for the number of pounds of milk to his credit. During the winter one man whom we will call "A" keeps his cattle in warm, well sheltered barns, give them a generous allowance of cut hay with roots and plenty fresh water and in spring turns them into good pasture. Another man whom we will call "B" allows his cattle to remain out all winter, feeds enough straw to barely keep them alive, licks the snow when thirsty, and when spring comes turns them out to pick up what they can on the roadsides. What is the result? Let us turn to the factory books, and it will be seen that two or three of "A's" cows are reaching as much milk as eight or ten of "B's"; but that is not all, the milk from "A's" cows shows 4½ per cent. of butter or fat, while "B's" only shows a fraction over 2 per cent., and the milk from both are being received on the same terms; in fact "A" is losing 2 per cent. or over on every pound of milk delivered so as to bring "B's" to the cows standard, and of course "B" is a gainer to that extent. Were I to go to "A" and try and buy butter at say 20c. when it was worth 25c., using it as a plea that I had bought some poor butter from "B" and wanted to even up, would not "A" think me a fool or fit for the asylum? Yet that is what "A" is doing on every pound of milk he sends to the factory under the present system as the books prove. One per cent. of loss on a number of cows for a season will be quite a loss to those who are sending milk of a high percentage, and a corresponding gain to those who do not deserve and who have no right to it. A change should be made, a record of the percentage of fat of every cow of milk delivered kept, and and the patrons paid accordingly. Then every man would get his just due, and the man who fed well, kept good stock and cared for them, would receive the benefits of his enterprise and labor in place of sharing it with his "don't care" neighbour as at present.

ANOTHER BLAZE IN THE LUMBER YARD.

Last evening about 9 p.m. the sharp ringing of the mill bell gave notice that a fire was in progress, while the bright light at once gave its location in the lumber yard of the Lakefield Lumber Co. As the school board were holding a meeting in the town hall and many were on the streets enjoying the cool evening, it was not long before the engine and hose reels were out, and have a hitch occurred. The lumber company have cribbed and filled in the bank of the river for quite a distance in front of the lumber piles with saw dust and it was found impossible to get the engine near the water so that it had to be taken some distance down before a place could be found where the suction hose would reach the water and then an extempore platform of ties had to be built before it could be placed near the cribwork, in the meantime the pile of lumber first on on fire was blazing furiously and had spread to two adjacent piles, [which were soon in flames. The welcome sound of the whistle now gave notice that the water was on and a powerful stream was directed to the two piles. In a very short time it was seen that the fire was in hand, though it took quite a time to get it extinguished, as it is a hard matter to get the water into the closely built piles. A second stream had in the meantime been brought to bear and by 10 p.m. the order was given to stop, but as a matter of precaution the engine was kept on the ground with steam up for an hour longer. One pile of about 10,000 feet was entirely destroyed, and three more piles each containing about the same amount are rendered worthless. The lumber is owned by the Dickson Company and is insured. The origin of the fire is unknown. As usual the majority of our citizens worked with a will — especially our young men—and our engine did her work well under adverse circumstances, preventing what might have been an extensive fire, as no effort would have been of any avail to extinguish it if we had not possessed her. A couple of engine platforms are needed along the cribwork, with coal boxes, as in other parts of the village; then there will be no trouble as there was last evening to reach the water, and valuable time will be saved in case of another fire.

"German Syrup"

For Throat and Lungs

Hemorrhage "I have been ill for about five years, have had the best medical advice, and I took the first dose in some doubt. This resulted in a few hours easy sleep. There was no further hemorrhage till next day, when I had a slight attack which stopped almost immediately. By the third day all trace of blood had disappeared and I had recovered much strength. The fourth day I sat up in bed and ate my dinner, the first solid food for two months. Since that time I have gradually gotten better and am now able to move about the house. My death was daily expected and my recovery has been a great surprise to my friends and the doctor. There can be no doubt about the effect of German Syrup, as I had an attack just previous to its use. The only relief was after the first dose." J. R. LOUGHHEAD, Adelaide Australia.

MANCHESTER GIRLS SENT TO JAIL FOR SCUTTLING.

Arrival of the Little Queen of Holland at Potsdam — Arrangements Said to Have Been Completed for Her Betrothal — Civilians Bayoneted by German Soldiers.

BERLIN, June 1.—Queen Wilhelmine of the Netherlands and her mother, the Queen Regent Emma, reached Potsdam at 7 o'clock last evening.

At the station were Emperor William, the Empress Augusta Victoria, Crown Prince William, Princess Eite Frederick, Adalbert, August William, Oscar and Joachim; Count Bothe zu Eulenburg, the Duchess of Edinburgh and the Princess Marie, Gen. von Kaltenborn-Stachau, Minister of Interior Heerfurth, Count von Wedel, Chief of the Emperor's household; many members of the general staff, the commander of the garrison in Potsdam, Freiherr Marschall von Bieberstein, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and about 50 officers of the guards.

The little Queen, after alighting from the train, took her mother's hand.

The Emperor hastened forward with the Empress and lifted her hand to his lips and kissed it. While he paid his respects to Queen Regent Emma in a similar manner the Empress embraced Wilhelmina and kissed her repeatedly on the forehead and cheeks.

The Queen Regent and the Empress embraced, and then the small Princes of Hohenzollern were brought forward to welcome the visitors.

The little Crown Prince was in his new uniform of a lieutenant of the First Foot Guards. He followed gravely the example set by his father and kissed the hands of the little Queen and her mother.

The royal parties were then taken to the New Palace, the Emperor and Crown Prince driving with the Queen Regent and Queen Wilhelmina.

Queen Wilhelmina was attired in a grey traveling gown, belted at the waist and finished at the neck and sleeves with a white collar and cuffs. She wore a leghorn hat with a gray plume. She looked fatigued and pale, and her smiles to the cheering crowds along the route to the palace evidently cost her a slight effort.

Her four weeks in Sand have not benefited her health as much as war expected. It is thought, therefore, that the Emperor's elaborate program for her entertainment will be somewhat modified.

The rumored plan of the Emperor to arrange for the marriage of the Crown Prince and Queen Wilhelmina will be brought to a head, it is thought, during the Potsdam visit.

BERLIN, June 1.—A Socialist writer named Peus, who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, was taken to the jail at Ploetzensee yesterday. A crowd of 400 Socialists accompanied the prisoner and the officers conducting him and threatened to rescue Peus.

The police finally ordered the mob to disperse. No attention was paid and a charge was made by the police with drawn swords. After the rioters saw several of their number put down they scattered.

The officers then proceeded to the jail, when they were again beset by a crowd. Another fight occurred, but the prisoner was landed in jail.

SOMETHING NEW.

Manchester Girls Sentenced to Prison for Indulging in "Scuttling."

MANCHESTER, June 1.—A new development of the "scuttling" nuisance has just occurred here.

Scuttling is the term applied to organized outrages committed by young rowdies in the streets and lanes, in which resort is frequently had to knives, pistols and other deadly weapons, with sometimes deadly effect.

The female element has now entered into this murderous practice, and yesterday four girls were arrested and charged with taking part in a street fight. On the person of one of the girls these words were found: "In loving remembrance of William Williams," a fellow who is now under sentence of death for killing a lad in a scuffle or affray.

The police assert that it is now quite common for girls to be mixed up in these outrages.

The girls were sentenced to one month in jail.

ANOTHER OSBORNE CASE.

Another Woman in Society Charged With the Theft of a Jewel.

LONDON, June 1.—A case bearing a resemblance to the Osborne-Hargreave pearl scandal was in the Court of Queen's Bench yesterday.

The principals are the wives of prominent officers and they have hitherto been close friends.

The case came up on an appeal by counsel for Mrs. Leader from a decision of Mr. Justice Bruman refusing to order a certain diamond brooch to be sent for from Cairo in order to be placed in evidence and identified.

Counsel explained that his client was suing Mrs. Smyth for slander in imputing to Mrs. Leader the theft of the brooch and its sale.

Mrs. Smyth's defence was that if she used the slanderous words alleged her statement was justified by its being substantially true.

In support of this statement Mrs. Smyth had made an affidavit that some time last summer she had missed her brooch, and shortly afterwards she had seen the brooch exposed for sale. She interrogated the jeweler, and he described the person from whom he had purchased it. The description exactly fitted the plaintiff. Mrs. Smyth satisfied herself that Mrs. Leader had in fact sold the article to the jeweler.

In the counter affidavit Mrs. Leader denied that the brooch she had sold to the jeweler was the one missed by Mrs. Smyth. It was, she declared, one which she had received as a present from a friend who was now dead, and whose evidence could not, therefore be adduced. She had reason, however, to believe that the brooch lost by Mrs. Smyth was in the possession of Mrs. Smyth's maid, who, since the loss of the brooch, has been married and had gone to Cairo to live.

Counsel for Mrs. Smyth opposed the appeal on the ground that the court had no power to order anything brought from a foreign country, and on the further ground that if it should turn out to be true that the brooch alleged to be in the former maid's hands was the one belonging to Mrs. Smyth, it would be unjust to subject the latter to the risk of its being lost in transit.

The court upheld this view of the case and dismissed the appeal.

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of cases and cures who have been helped or cured by it.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient, action.

Malaria in Malaria Districts.

A Source of Much Sickness and Disease—How to Avoid It.

Quinine, notwithstanding its attractive and excellent character, is only suitable for the slighter diseases to which it is applied. These malarial districts are wet and marshy, and vegetable decomposition is continually going on. It is natural, of course, that the air is poisoned, and life in such localities is unsafe.

People in malarial districts suffer from the water they drink. The impure character of the water causes derangement of the stomach. Then we find as a consequence diseases of the liver, spleen and kidneys; the blood becomes thick and sluggish, the muscles are relaxed, the nerves unstrung, and the whole system is prostrated.

Experience has proved that Fahnestock's Celery Compound is the only safe remedy to use in malarial districts. It has the power of neutralizing the effects of foul air and poisons; it removes all impurities from the system, operates mildly on the bowels, tones and fortifies the body, and lessens the liability to future attacks.

Our best physicians have recommended its use for malaria, and hundreds have testified to its grand power as a preserver and prevention from malaria. Every home in Canada, near malarial districts, should have a bottle of Fahnestock's Celery Compound ready for use. Taken at the proper time, it will save calling in a physician.

Cold Springs, Otonabee.

SABBATH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—On Sunday, May 29, the members of Cold Springs Union Sabbath school and others who were present had the pleasure of listening to an excellent address from the Rev. A. MacWilliams, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Peterborough. The address was interesting and profitable, and was listened to with great attention by all. On Monday evening there was a tea and entertainment. After doing justice to the good things provided by the ladies, an adjournment was made to the school room, where a programme consisting of music, readings, and an address was given. A quartette from the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. furnished the music, and Mr. E. J. Colville, of the Y. M. C. A., gave the address. All went home well pleased with the evening they had spent. The attendance was larger than on any previous occasion, and everything considered it was the most successful anniversary we have yet had.

The fame of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has gone around the world long ago, and let's its record everywhere as a precious boon to every nation. In the whole world of medicine nothing equals it for the cure of scrofula of the lungs (which is consumption.) Coughs and bronchial troubles succumb to this remedy, and the blood is purified by it until all unsightly skin blotches are driven away. Health Department.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carnes, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

Consumptives!

Do not give up until you have tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which makes flesh and blood, is a positive cure for coughs and colds, bronchitis, sore throats, and all lung troubles leading to consumption. Persons have been known to gain from five to ten pounds in weight by taking one bottle of Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which contains hypophosphites of lime and soda. In big bottles 50c. and $1.00—at Peterborough Drug Stores.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

EXTENSIVE CHANGES IN

THOMAS KELLY'S

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PERSONS WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy NOW, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

Her First Regular Trip.

Yesterday the "Golden Eye" made her first trip of the season to Rice Lake, and it proved to be the fatest trip the boat has ever made. The down trip was made in two and a half hours, including stops at Jubilee, Gore's Landing, Harwood and Hay's Wild, and the return trip taking but three hours. Mr. Johnston, the engineer, has had much experience on the large lake boats, and to him is due in a great measure, the success of the boat's first trip this season. During the summer the "Golden Eye" will run excursions every Saturday afternoon, which will no doubt be largely patronized by mechanics and others. The boat will leave the wharf at 1.30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon next.

Their First and the First Outing.

To-day the first excursion ever given by the Peterborough Amateur Orchestra, Mr. J. Butcher, leader, took place. Two 'bus loads left the corner of George and Hunter streets at an early hour this morning. The excursionists drove to Lakefield where they took the steamer "Mary Elliss" for a pleasant days' outing among the lakes. The day was cool and delightful, and a pleasant time awaited those who availed themselves of the trip. The following gentlemen took in the excursion: Messrs. W. H. Smith, E. Farnham, Gen. Crowe, Sam Foster, Armstrong, Dr. Yelland, W. Salisbury, W. H. Maldrum, Chas. Burnham, D. Leady, R. Beach,—Walton, Jas. Bess, J. J. Leady and others.

Turner's English Girls Company

That play at the Opera House Saturday, June 4th, were in St. Paul recently, and the Globe of that city says of them:—"An unusually large audience greeted Turner's English Gaiety Girls Company yesterday at Hilton's play house. The strong features of the burlesque company were appreciated, and the demonstrations of approval by the audience at times drowned the music of the orchestra. The dancing of Mlle Lucille captivated the house, and the encores she received testified that she danced her way into the heart of many. The wing dancing of Miss La Mountain and the serpentine dance by four graceful damsels were taking specialities. In the concluding burlesque the entire strength of the company gave a bewildering spectacle of a score of dazzling costumed girls executing an intricate march. The costumes and scenery were worthy special mention."

Sir, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps, of the sure approach of that most terrible disease consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford, for the use of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it We know from experience that Hollick's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. dw —At the Collegiate Institute this year ten candidates will write for junior matriculation, three of whom are taking honours, forty five will write on third class certificates, and twenty will write on second class certificates. The number writing on these examinations is somewhat larger than in previous years.

—There should be a large turnout of the members of the Peterborough bicycle club to-night at the P. A. A. A. grounds. The track and grounds are reserved especially for members of the club on every Thursday night. It will be decided this evening on what night the club will hold its weekly runs.

—Staff-Captain Southall, of Kingston, conducted the services at the Salvation Army barracks last evening. There was a large attendance and the meeting was one of great spiritual power and blessing. Staff-Captain Southall will be present at the service in the barracks again to-night. All are invited.

—Chief of Police Rezsel wishes all those persons who are in the habit of bathing in public places, especially the Goose Pond, to take fair warning. The practice, which is a most disgraceful one, will be stopped by the police. There are many secluded places free from gaze where this favorite amusement may be indulged in without annoyance to the public.

—The annual meeting of the Otonabee Canoe Club, which has been postponed on two or three different occasions, will certainly be held to-night at Mr. A. Clegg's furniture at 8 o'clock sharp. The secretary, Mr. Ed. Dawson, requests a large turn out of the members. The boating season is now on, and it is time the annual meeting was held long since. It will come off to-night whether a quorum is present or not.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, June 2nd, 1892.

At the police court this morning Adam Dobbin who was remanded on Monday, was given another six months in gaol. Adam seems seems to manage to secure six months twice a year. The inmates would make him if he should be so fortunate as to get shelter elsewhere.

Inspector Cochrane charged Wm. Cardwell of the "Little Windsor" with having the bar of his hotel open on Saturday night last. Mr. Hatton in the absence of the County Crown Attorney, prosecuted and Mr. W. A. [illegible] defended. The evidence was conflicting and the magistrate dismissed the case.

The defence was submitted to-day in the matter of the Hunter street house of ill-fame. The supposed keeper of the house was remanded to gaol for one week for sentence. The daughter and the other married woman in the case charged as hunters were dismissed.

No Time Should Be Lost.

Slight symptoms and little troubles often lead on to grave sufferings and severe calamities. Men and women should be attentive to the many symptoms which indicate diseases of the kidneys and liver. The comforts of true life are often cast out by a faulty liver. Note some of the symptoms: a constipated state of the bowels, pain in the small of the back, often neuts and severe, a feeling of lassitude and weakness, furred tongue, and offensive breath.

When any of these curious and distressing symptoms are experienced, the true path out of all difficulties and dangers is the use of that old and tried remedy, Kidney-Wort. This valuable preparation acts immediately upon the kidneys, liver and bowels, restores perfect and harmonious action, and conquers in a vigorous digestion.

Kidney-Wort in the past has saved thousands of valuable live when other remedies proved unavailing.

Peterborough Senior Trinity College School by an innings and 16 runs—Other Matches On.

The cricket club returned home from Port Hope at nine o'clock last night victorious and have placing Trinity College School another victory was added. The club could only muster eight men when they left town yesterday, but they were assisted and disappointed their opponents, as they secured three substitutes from the Trinity College School. S. H. and J. S. Cartwright and Williams. The "subs" batted fairly well, and the club score good batting. The game was in favor of Peterborough from start to finish. R. S. Rogers batted and bowled very well, making 23 runs. The bowling of Oldfield and Stocker was good, the former taking 6 wickets for 18 runs in the first innings, and 6 wickets for 19 runs in the second, and also scoring 14 runs not out. Stocker took seven wickets for 19 runs in the two innings. David Rogers for Trinity College, batted very well. Fell, the coach for Trinity, is no where, making only 6 runs, and only taking one wicket for 11 runs. The fielding of both teams was good. CRICKS.

The interest in the English game increases as is evidenced by the largely increased turnout to practice each night.

This is the second match which Peterborough has played. Campbellford was defeated by 23 runs.

The Port Hope Trinity College team will play the return match here on Saturday afternoon next.

The Peterboroughs will play the Port Hope town team on Thursday, June 9th. An interesting game is expected.

A second eleven of the Port Hope Trinity College are coming to Peterborough on Saturday, June 11th, to play a second team of the town club.

Alleged Street Watering.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—What would be thought of a man who bought a lawn-sprinkler, hose and water, and refused to use them because it would cost a trifling expense, or a little labour? Well, sir, this is exactly what the town council of the town of Peterborough is doing in this year of grace, 1892.

The town pays yearly for water, hydrants and standpipes, and refuses to use the water for the comfort of the people who pay for it, because it would cost a trifle for horse hire.

Then look at the arrangement for watering the streets. I will only mention Charlotte and south George. George street is watered down to Spaulding's Bay where there are only a few straggling houses, and Charlotte is watered to Park street.

There are many heavy ratepayers living on the cross streets—Stewart, Rubidge, etc. —who not only pay for watering George, Charlotte and other streets, but suffer by having their houses filled with clouds of dust and their lungs and eyes stuffed with dried filth.

I trust it is only necessary to call the attention of the Council to this insufferable nuisance that it may reconsider the question, and order, at least, the streets to be watered as they were last year.

Yours truly,
W. CLUXTON.

[The above is only one of the many "sufferers" whose complaints are put in the form of communications. Verbal complaints and mattered grumblings are much more abundant than water on the streets, even in the prescribed area for street watering. The residents in the prescribed area, which would appreciate street watering as much as the other, see no hope at present that they will be favoured with the laying of the dust. The council will only meet public sentiment in the matter by taking prompt and effective action.—ED. EXAMINER.]

Our Musical Organization

Makes an Appeal to the Citizens to Aid Them in Purchasing new Boosey Prototype Instruments.

The committee and members of the Peterborough Fire Brigade and 57th Band are sending out requests to the general public of Peterborough and vicinity asking for donations in aid of a fund which has been opened to enable the band to procure a number of Boosey "Prototype" instruments, such as are used by the principal bands of the Dominion, as that their own band may be placed, so far as instruments are concerned, on an equal footing with the best bands of the country, instead of being handicapped and frustrated in their efforts to excel, by the poor, worn-out instruments now in use. Such instruments would cost about $1,000, and it would be quite hopeless for the band to attempt to raise so large a sum from their own private resources, but they hope to receive the generous aid of the public to assist them in this matter. They are encouraged to make this public appeal by the kind promises of support they have already received from several well-known residents. Their request should meet with a generous response, as A. Hamilton or W. H. Calder, who are also authorized to receive subscriptions on behalf of the bands. All receipts and expenditures will be audited and the balance sheet may be inspected by any subscriber.

13. W. Van E[illegible] confirmed.

The court adjourned to meet again on Monday evening, June 13th, at 7.30 p.m. Before adjourning the court disposed of a number of applications for remission of taxes for the year 1891 which were referred to the court by the council.

In compliance with this a letter from Dr. Spears, requesting the publication of his appeal against the assessment on Homewood avenue, the following are given:

MAY 4th, 1892.

To the Assessment Revision Court:

GENTLEMEN,—I hereby appeal against the following assessments on Homewood Avenue, Plan 38, viz. 757, Wm. Fitzgerald, lots 8, 9, and 27; 763, A. Rutherford estate, lot 23, being assessed below value, while I am assessed excessively on lot 22, same plan and avenue.

To the Assessment Revision Court:

GENTLEMEN,—I hereby appeal against the assessment of lots 26 and 27, plan 38, Homewood avenue, they being assessed far exceed their value, No. 734; W. A. Stratton, barrister. It would expedite the investigation of my three appeals by investigating them together.

Why is HOOD'S
Sarsaparilla
Such a great success, and why is it impossible for other Sarsaparillas and blood purifiers to compete with this great medicine? Because

No Other Sarsaparilla or blood purifier gives as much medicine for the money as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the careful personal supervision of the proprietor in all the details of its preparation, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the merit to secure the confidence of entire communities and hold it year in and year out, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla can produce from actual cures such wonderful statements of relief given to human suffering as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla possesses the Combination, Proportion and Process Peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and which makes Hood's Sarsaparilla in curative effect Peculiar to Itself.

No Other Sarsaparilla combines economy and strength as does Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the only preparation of which can truly be said, 100 Doses $1.

No Other Sarsaparilla has effected such remarkable cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla, of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, blood poisoning and all other blood diseases.

No Other Sarsaparilla has equalled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in the severest cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Heartburn, and other stomach disorders.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

MR. LAURIER'S AMENDMENT DEFEATED IN THE HOUSE.

The Vote a Straight Party One—The Debate Adjourned Until Tuesday When Mr. McCarthy Will Propose His Amendment to Adhere to County Lines

OTTAWA, June 3.—The debate on the Redistribution Bill was resumed yesterday by Mr. Davies. Mr. Davies contended that under section 51 of the British North America Act Parliament did not have power to redistribute the seats, but only to designate the authority which should attend to the details. The clause reads as follows:

"On the completion of the census of the year 1871 and of each subsequent decennial census the representation of the four provinces shall be readjusted by such authority in such time and such manner as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following rules."

Then follow the rules with respect to the representation of Quebec and the other provinces.

On this Mr. Davies argued that Parliament had not the power to frame the act itself, but should appoint a commission to make the redistribution.

Sir John Thompson contended that even if the fifty-first section was a little obscure Parliament had ample power to deal with redistribution under the ninety-first and other clauses of the British North America Act.

The Division.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Mills, Davin, Campbell (Kent), and McNeill, and at half-past eleven the members were called in and Mr. Laurier's amendment was defeated by a vote of 58 for to 100 against.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy moved the adjournment of the debate, which will not be resumed until Tuesday, when he will move the amendment which has been referred to to the effect that county lines should be adhered to.

The vote was a straight party one with the exception of Mr. Desaulniers of St. Maurice, who voted against the Government.

OTTAWA, June 3.—A steady stream of immigration seems to be pouring into Manitoba and the Northwest from the United States. Yesterday the Department of the Interior was informed that a party of 25 had arrived at Winnipeg from North Dakota, and they all say that a much larger number will leave on the next excursion, which will be on June 21. To-day a telegram was received stating that a party of 24 had left Kalkaska county, Michigan, for the Northwest. The indications are that the immigration from North Dakota and Michigan this year to the Canadian Northwest will be very large.

Scotch Crofter Immigration.

Hon. John Robson, Premier of British Columbia, arrived here yesterday on his way to England, where he goes next week in connection with the proposed scheme for taking a number of Scotch crofters to British Columbia. The Imperial Government has promised to advance £150,000 to the British Columbia Government for the purpose of taking out these emigrants, and Mr. Robson has been cabled by Lord Lothbian that his presence is needed in London.

Hon. C. H. Tupper Off for England.

The Canadian side of the Behring Sea arbitration is ready for business. Sir John Thompson has been appointed one of the two British arbitrators, Hon. C. H. Tupper agent to prepare the Canadian case and Mr. Christopher Robinson, Q.C., Canadian counsel. Mr. Tupper leaves for New York to-day, whence he will sail on Saturday on the Umbria. He will be accompanied by Mr. A. J. Horan of the Marine Department, who will act as his secretary. Mr. Robinson will probably sail on Saturday.

Mr. Devlin's Home Rule Motion.

OTTAWA, June 3.—Committee room 34½ was crowded yesterday with the friends of Home Rule for Ireland who are in the Commons and Senate. Both political parties were about equally represented. Mr. Devlin's resolution was the subject under consideration. The meeting was held with closed doors and all were pledged not to divulge what took place inside. It was learned that the majority were of opinion that Mr. Devlin should not press this resolution, as its defeat at the present time would be injurious to the cause. Mr. Devlin said he would consider the matter.

HIGHBINDERS IN A STREET FIGHT.

The Storm of Bullets Emptied a Crowded Electric Car in Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—A Highbinder war broke out in the Chinese quarters last night, not fifty yards from the main business part of the city. There have been several outbreaks recently, but they resulted only in the occasional wounding of Chinamen. Last night, however, the war broke out in earnest and for half a minute there was a perfect fusillade in the street in front of the headquarters of two Highbinder societies. Shots were exchanged across the street in rapid succession, and the air was full of flying bullets. An electric car filled with passengers happened to be on the track between the contending parties, and a storm of bullets whistled through the car about the heads of the passengers who clambered out as rapidly as possible. The conductor and gripman put on the brakes and abandoned their posts in haste.

When the battle was over two Chinamen were found dead, and another wounded through the thigh. A number of others were wounded and probably several more were killed, but have been concealed by their friends. One man, a peaceable Chinese cigarmaker, who has a wife and two children, was shot and killed while in his his own place of business. The police have arrested seven Chinamen. There is great indignation among the white citizens over the affair.

A LYNCHING IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

A Negro at Port Jervis Assaults a White Girl, is Captured By a Mob and Hanged to a Tree—Floods in the West—Strange Death From a Cut Received While Being Shaved.

PORT JERVIS, N.Y., June 3.—A negro named Henry Jackson yesterday brutally outraged a young white woman named Miss McMahon. The assault was witnessed by a number of small children who were about 50 yards away. Jackson was hunted down by a mob and confessed his crime on the way to the lock-up.

An immense crowd had collected in front of the lock-up and some one shouted "Lynch him! Lynch him!"

This sealed Jackson's fate, when he arrived the mob took possession of him, dragged him down Main-street and suspended him from a tree where he was left hanging for two hours.

INDIANA'S BAD FLOODS.

Bridges Down, Farm Lands Submerged and Other Damage Done.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 3.—The flood continues to increase in magnitude and disasters are reported on every hand. White River and Fall Creek are flooding all contiguous territory and many bridges in this vicinity are expected to succumb to the raging waters. Several persons are reported drowned and the indications are now that Indianapolis is about to experience the worst flood in her history.

Reports from points throughout the state tell of great havoc wrought by the waters. In the vicinity of Wabash many miles of farming land are inundated. The Wabash River is out of its banks and Andreas county resembles an immense lake. No corn has been planted in this county. Several large factories are under water and work has been suspended.

At Markleville the Michigan division of the Big Four has been washed out for a distance of 300 feet and freight traffic has been almost entirely abandoned. Six hundred feet of the track is washed out at Jonesboro.

At Knightstown Blue River left it banks, and near Carthage, a few miles below, a railroad bridge was washed away, and a bridge north of Knightstown, over Falls Creek, went down.

At Kokomo Orris Shyder was drowned while trying to rescue his brother, who was being carried away by the swift waters.

At Hartford City the Mississinewa River is ten feet higher than ever before, and many bridges have been washed away.

SEIZES FRENCH GROUND.

The British Flag to Be Hoisted on Four Indian Islands.

PARIS, June 3.—A sensation has been caused at the French Foreign Office by the announcement, made by M. Mager, the newly-elected member of the Supreme Council for the Colonies, that the British gunboat Redbreast had arrived at the Seychelles, a group of Islands in the Indian Ocean, on her way from Bombay, with orders to take on board either the acting Governor or the newly appointed Governor of that British dependency, and to sail upon the 26th for the islands Aldabra, Cosmoledo, Astave and Assumption, and to leave a resident upon Aldabra, whose duty it shall be to hoist every morning the British flag on the island.

Aldabra is in the Indian Ocean, a little to the north of Diego, Suarez and Madagascar. This island, as well as Cosmoledo, Astave and Assumption, belongs to France by virtue of treaties with Great Britain, but hitherto the French Government has neglected to appoint a resident.

A VICTIM TO THE FAITH CURE.

Maud Kurtz's Mother Threw Away the Medicine Prescribed for Her.

Palmer, Mass, June 3.—Maud Kurtz, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Kurtz of South Main-street, died Monday morning. The child was taken sick last October and Mr. Kurtz summoned a physician. The medicine prescribed was never given, but was thrown away by Mrs. Kurtz, who is a strong believer in the so-called "faith cure."

Mr. Kurtz told the physician that it was useless to call, as Mrs. Kurtz refused to administer the medicine. In the meantime she had several "faith" doctors visit the child, but she continued to grow worse. Mr. Kurtz being asked who was doctoring the child replied, "God and Lizzie Kurtz."

Last week Mr. Kurtz informed his wife that the "faith" cure business had gone far enough and he summoned several physicians, who found that it was too late to do anything for the child.

Waiters And the Mustach Question.

BOSTON, June 3.—At a meeting of the Waiters' Alliance last night the employes of Young's Hotel and the Parker House reported that the proprietor, Mr. Whipple, had issued an order to discharge all waiters who retained their mustache by June 1. The Alliance voted to indorse the action of such men as refused to obey the order, and pledged them its support.

Miss Willard Rides a Bicycle.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Miss Frances E. Willard, President of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, is learning to ride a bicycle. Her mother's advancing age makes impossible the usual trip to a summer resort, and as exercise must be obtained, the idol of a multitude of women will take her daily constitutional on a pneumatic wheel.

Ellen Was Fond of Candy.

NEW YORK, June 3.—When 72-year-old William Hurley returned to his home in Williamsburg yesterday he found the following note from his young wife:

"DEAR HUBBY,—I am gone with a gentleman who will allow me to eat all the candy I desire. Yours lovingly, ELLEN."

They had only been married a short time, and Ellen spent the grocery money on candy.

It was reported at first that Miss Driver, Ernest Menzar, 13 years old, had been killed, but it turned up later and said he was caught in the trees growing from the bank. His version of the affair is that as he was backing the carriage towards the river the horse made a sudden plunge and carried all down the embankment.

Newfoundland's Legislature Adjourns.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., June 3.—The session of the Legislature closed yesterday.

The Governor said in his speech that he deeply regretted that the Legislature had thrown out the bill designed to regulate the French shore and hoped no serious injury to the interests of the colony would follow. He congratulated the Legislature upon the excellent condition of the seal fishery, and thanked them for the supplies granted and for the increase in the education grant.

The Hon. A. Wharvey left yesterday on his mission to Spain to endeavor to avert the threatened increase of duties on Newfoundland fish and to negotiate a commercial treaty. He will act with Sir Charles Tupper, the High Commissioner of Canada.

Leaped To Her Death.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 3.—The propeller Glengarry, owned by the Montreal Transportation Company, while lying at the dock with a cargo of wheat waiting to be unloaded, took fire early yesterday astern and was badly damaged.

The cargo is not supposed to be damaged.

ST. CATHARINES, June 3.—Mary Lamb, drowned off the Glengarry at Kingston, was well known in this city, having sailed as cook with Captains McAvoy, P. Sullivan and John Sullivan. For over three months last winter she was engaged at Bain's restaurant. She was about 40 years of age. A married sister is living a few miles back of Toronto. She herself was unmarried.

The Largest Gold Brick Ever Handled.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The United States Mint here has received, through Wells, Fargo & Co., the largest brick of gold ever handled. It came from the Harqua Hala mine in Arizona. It was conical in shape and seemed to have been emptied out of a gigantic slag pot. It was the product of a forty-days run, weighed 357½ pounds avoirdupois, and was valued at $120,000. Representatives of the owners telegraphed from point to point announcing when they should arrive at the next station. This was to forestall highwaymen, as at each station armed guards were ready to prevent any attempt at robbery.

Insane, and Almost Naked.

HAMILTON, June 3.—A strange man was found at Clappison's Corners yesterday afternoon and was brought to the jail. He was lying in the gutter at the side of the road, and had nothing on but a ragged shirt. The poor unfortunate had been walking in his bare feet and the skin was terribly worn.

The man was insane and acted very strangely. He gave the name of James O'Neil.

All About an Aerolite.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 3.—What is believed to be the largest rolite ever known to have fallen is lying in the Caspian Sea a short distance from the peninsula of Apsheron.

In falling the aerolite made a most terrific noise as it rushed through the air with incredible speed, and the white hot mass made a light that illuminated the country and sea round about for a great distance. When it struck the water immense clouds of steam arose and huge masses of water were thrown upward.

So enormous is the aerolite that it projects 12 feet above the water and save for its fused black crust, which gives it the appearance of having been varnished, it has every appearance of being one of the usual rocky formations met with along the coast.

A Warning that Should be Heeded.

There is scarcely an independent paper, says the Toronto News, independent Conservative, that did not heartily support the Conservative party at the time of the last general election. To-day the whole of this section of the press is in a state of almost constant antagonism to the same party as represented in the Government. Even the World and Saturday Night, which are but a shade weaker in their fealty than the Empire itself, have considered it necessary to warn Sir John Abbott of the certain consequences of the course now being followed by him.

It is hardly necessary to state again the reason for the action taken by non-partisan newspapers at these two periods. A year ago the national existence was believed, rightly or wrongly, to be bound up in the life of the Government. Therefore these journals, which are patriotic before all else, supported the Conservative policy. But the desire to see Canada well and honestly governed is quite as strong as the desire that the Dominion should live. And the Government's conduct has not been honest; the burking of inquiry into the conduct of Judge Elliot was a piece of political crookedness; the Lepraire post office job and St. John terminal matter were to an shameful instances of extravagance as could well be conceived, and the striking out of part of the Edgar charges was a distinct violation of the pledge to mete out punishment to every violator of public trust. It is these and other cases of wrong doing that have caused the change in the attitude of the independent press; it is the violation of pledges distinctly given that has cost the Government its best support.

The two Johns cannot afford to ignore the warnings given. It is the independent vote that sways elections in almost every constituency. And the independent press is the voice of that vote.

Women considered as "ministering angels" is an expression which never would have become hackneyed had it not been happy. They are the only nurses in the world worthy of the name, and as physicians are settling into an impregnable position. If they so comfort and cure the sick in body, it is natural that they should desire to minister to the diseased, the lame and the halt of the soul. At first, however, when they asked that privilege of the churches, they received as a reply solid texts of Scripture (principally from Paul), which were cast angrily at them.

THE REV. ANTOINETTE B. BLACKWELL.

In the United States a little band of liberal Congregationalists took the initiative in this movement of allowing women to preach—a movement yet in its infancy.

The year 1853 was an eventful one for woman, especially for the American; in September of that year Miss Antoinette Louise Brown was ordained as the regular pastor of the Congregational Church of South Butler, N. Y. But she had not reached that point in her career without a hard struggle. Although at this time Miss Brown was but 28 years old, she had been a hard student of Hebrew and Greek, and had taught, when a mere girl, in the Rochester Academy. She had even lectured during her twentieth year, and while taking her course at Oberlin College (1847-1850) she had several times appeared upon the temperance platform. But she has gradually drifted toward Unitarianism, and still occasionally preaches to churches of that denomination. In 1856 she married Samuel C. Blackwell, a brother of the first regular female physician of the world, and now lives with her large family at Elizabeth, N.J.

The Unitarian Church has ordained several women to preach the gospel, and for twenty-four years the theological school of that denomination at Meadville, Pa., has admitted women to its course of study and conferred degrees upon them.

The Methodist Church and the Society of Friends have given their sanction to women as exhorters, but the Universalist was the first denomination "to vote officially for the ordaining of women." The Universalists have a number of able women in their preaching ranks. Among the foremost in point of ability and the first in length of service is the Rev. Olympia Brown Willis, of Racine, Wis.

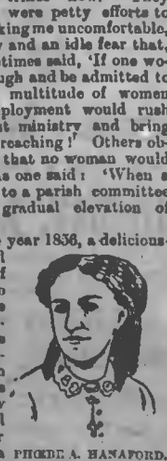
OLYMPIA B. WILLIS.

It is undoubtedly true that Mrs. Willis, or Olympia Brown, as she is more generally called, is the first pastor among women to be ordained by denominational action.

Now, having been for about fifteen years over a prosperous church at Racine, Mrs. Willis writes: "As the first and only woman in the theological school there were many annoyances to be endured — things which were painful to a young, timid, and inexperienced person, but which would seem trifles now. They were petty efforts to drive me away by making me uncomfortable, prompted by jealousy and an idle fear that, as the students sometimes said, 'If one woman should get through and be admitted to the ministry a great multitude of women who were out of employment would rush into the Universalist ministry and bring down the price of preaching!' Others objected on the ground that no woman would ever get a parish. As one said: 'When a woman should apply to a parish committee there would be a gradual elevation of noses.'"

AUGUSTA J. CHAPIN.

In December of the year 1836, a delicious-looking, studious, and sensitive woman of 27 was received into the ministry of the same church at Lansing, Mich. Miss Brown, born in Michigan, was ordained in New York; Miss Chapin, born in New York, was ordained in Michigan. A year before Olympia Brown entered Canton, Augusta Chapin had preached her first sermon at Portland, Mich.; that was in 1839. Miss Chapin was educated in Michigan, where she became splendidly grounded in the classics (as well as in French and German), and in the higher mathematics. She was a school principal for several years in Lansing and Lyons, and even to this day, despite her arduous duties as pastor of our Oak Park church, she gives not a little of her time to the teaching of classical, mathematical, or literary branches.



PHOEBE A. HANAFORD.

The Rev. Phœbe A. Hanaford, who is now settled over a charge at Tonawanda, N.Y., was ordained as a minister of the Universalist Church in 1867. Although 63 years old, she is actively engaged in the work, and is no unworthy descendant of Benjamin Franklin and Lucretia Mott. She is a Massachusetts woman, born of Quaker parents, and was a leader in temperance as well as a writer of prominence before she commenced to preach at Hingham, Mass.

Mrs. Hanaford has been always one of the most profuse as well as able writers in the country, her "Daughters of America" being in every well-appointed library.

It is probable that the present address of this talented Chicago woman is "Newnham College, Cambridge, England." If she has not changed her plans that certainly was her destination a few weeks ago. Remembering how the city press deluged the community with semi-biographical farewells and eulogies when Miss Kollock left for her season of study and observation it would be a little premature to go over the same ground again; that sort of thing may be repeated when the bright-eyed, red-cheeked, and popular woman returns from her travels. But good Wisconsin birth and air and a State University training, a dozen or more years of European culture, all permeating an earnest, good woman, will result in something which ought to destroy the last remnant of male prejudice against "female ministers."

REV. F. E. KOLLOCK.

In 1870 the University Church organized its Woman's Centenary Association, and three years afterward its first foreign missionary was sent to Calvanistic Scotland. The agent selected was a woman rather timid, but full of pluck. Thirty years previous she had been married to a minister, had been widowed for more than twenty, and had brought up a large family by writing children's stories and acting as amanuensis to Thurlow Weed and doing whatever else the hands and the brain of an able and conscientious woman found to do. Diffident and delicate from girlhood, it was only by the most desperate efforts that she dragged herself before the public and preached her first sermon a short time before she was sent as an evangelist to a little band of shrinking Universalists near Stirling, Scotland. But the selection was a good one, for, although not aggressive, Mrs. Soule's temperament is one of fine steel. It is probable, also, that a real aggressive person would make far less progress in bringing the Scotch to his way of thinking than does the Universalist evangelist. Mrs. Soule has returned to this country several times. In 1880 she was ordained by a Scottish convention of Universalists—the first woman minister in Scotland—and has now a regular parish at Glasgow.—Chicago Herald.

THE REV. CAROLINE A. SOULE.

After the Grip

And after typhoid fever, diptheria, pneumonia, or other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed to restore the strength and vigor so much desired, and to expel all poison from the blood. It has had wonderful success in many such cases.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Health Department.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect exercise in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Bar ff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

All cases of lame or weak back, backache, rheumatism, will find relief by wearing one of Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters. Price 35 cents. Try them. dw

Consumptives!

Do not give up until you have tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which makes flesh and blood, is a positive cure for coughs and colds, bronchitis, sore throats, and all lung troubles tending to consumption. Persons have been known to gain from five to ten pounds in weight by taking one bottle of Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which contains hypophosphites of lime and soda. In big bottles 50c. and $1.00—at Peterborough Drug Stores. dw

Low's Sulphur Soap is an elegant toilet article, and cleanses and purifies the skin most effectually. dw

The Dreaded La Grippe.

Following this scourge of humanity come a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. Price 50c. and $1 00 per bottle. dw

A Peterborough Boy "Gets There."

The Chicago Evening Journal prints an excellent portrait of Adjutant Thomas M. Quincey, a member of the staff of a new military organization, the Black Hussars, described in the modest language of Chicago newspapers as "a company of 125, picked from the flower of Chicago's manhood, mounted on coal black or dark bay chargers, riding in rich uniforms, accompanied by a corps of buglers, plumed and sabred like royal knights." Mr. Quincey is an old Peterborough boy, at one time salesman in Messrs. McKee & Davidson's hardware shop. He spent the 24th of 1891 in town. His many friends here will be glad to see that "Tom's" cleverness is being appreciated by the occidental Yankees though they feel that his manly form would appear to better advantage in a Canadian volunteer uniform than even in the "rich uniforms" of the Black Hussars.

Fire in a Residence.

At 9 20 this morning the fire alarm was rung, it is said, from the market building tower; at any rate a fire had been discovered in the upstairs of the residence of Mr. R. Kirby, Stevenson's Terrace, Hunter street. The fire had broken out in a closet, where the contents of all the other closets had been placed during the disrupting process of house cleaning. With the assistance of the firemen, who were quickly on hand, the fire was extinguished, but not before several suits of clothing, several silk dresses and underclothing were destroyed. The loss, which is not offset by any insurance, amounts, it is estimated, to between $75 and $100. This little blaze demonstrates the fact that the recent experiments for improving the audibility of the alarm bell have not been successful. It is claimed that the bell is not so distinctly heard as before it was shifted to the top of the tower. The firemen say that the hammer is not right, and others think that the louvre windows—small openings—are too small to permit of the escape of the sound, which is muffled and indistinct.

Lindsay's New Opera House.

The Lindsay Post says that the tenders for the erection of the new opera house were opened Monday evening last and the contract was awarded to Mr. Wm. White, of Lindsay, his being the lowest of nine estimates. The amounts were as follows: Wm. White, $11,910; W. Fitzgerald, Peterboro', $11,950; J. Kells, $12 175; Geo. Bryans, $12,-251; H. Walters $12 400; P. G. Pilkie, $12,-500; A. Ross, $12,957. The two remaining tenders did not comply with the conditions laid down and consequently were not considered by the directors. Mr. White will push the contract with his well-known vigor, and work will commence at once, some of the material being now on the ground," Mr. Blackwell, architect, prepared the plans of the house which is to cost when completed, $17,000.

A Good Joke.

The day before yesterday seven experienced travellers were seated in the office of the Snowden House, when a citizen entered. Bringing his fist heavily down on the office counter, he exclaimed in breathless excitement: "Gentleman, what do you think? Another freight train has run off Dobson's bridge, out there on the Missing Link!" Instantly half a dozen voices, the experience of the late Grand Junction smash-up being still fresh in their minds, asked breathlessly, "how did it happen," "any damage done," etc., making many such like inquiries. Well, replied the citizen, making himself ready for the momentous occasion, "the train just ran on the bridge at one end and run off the other." The sense of cheapness on the part of "them air" travellers which ensued can be better imagined than described.

The Grand Junction Disaster.

Referring to the Grand Junction smash-up on Tuesday morning last the Campbellford Herald says:—The section men had just finished laying ties and repairing the track for a distance of 200 or 300 feet at this particular spot, and the track was clear the night previous. In support of the idea that it is the work of a fiend in human form, the Grand Trunk have offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty person. No blame is attached to the section men or to the trainmen for negligence of duty. Hundreds of people visited the scene of the accident during the day, a large number of the citizens of Campbellford having driven down to view the ruins. Quite a blockade of trains took place at this station on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, but all trains are now running on regular time. A coroner's inquest on the death of Purdy was opened on Wednesday morning, and adjourned till Monday next, at 2 o'clock p.m. The loss to the Company will be about $25,000.

June, the Month of Brides and Roses.

Leafy June, the month of brides and roses—the bride often the fairest flower—is rightly so called. Everything in nature is in the full flush of luxuriance. The leaves fling out their emerald banners in the lushest, loveliest, richest, freshest green. The opening buds of flowering shrubs of many kinds load the fresh air with surfeiting perfume. The brides also abound—there are a dozen weddings in June for one in any other month of the year. There is a fitness in it, too. June is the loveliest of months, her skies are the bluest, and her flowers are the sweetest. The birds sing never so gaily as in June, and the bright sunshine and flower-scented breezes make the veriest clod on earth feel happy. So it is meet that when the young folks, with their eyes bright with hope, with their hearts filled with love and tenderness, join hands and set sail together upon life's sea, they should begin their journey in the month that is in tune with their own joyous gladness. This June will be no exception to the Junes of other years, and any number of the young people of Peterborough are making ready for what is the most solemn as well as the happiest event in life. All the world loves a lover, and all the world looks on with interest and admiration when the lovers wed.

Delightful Lacustrine Excursion

With the Mary Ellen to Burleigh and Back—The Amateur Orchestra and a few of their many friends Sail Over the Lakes—Mirth, Music and Exhilarating Enjoyment—The Orchestra as Successful Hosts as They Are Musicians—Good "Time" (Enjoyed) Perfect "Harmony" and Prompt "Attack" (on the Lunch Hamper).

A jolly party it was that left town yesterday on a bust. And delightful was the drive over the emerald-fringed highways, overhung with the opulent leafage of towering trees and bordered with fields where growth is running riot in grain plot and meadow. The jolly ensemble was composed of:—Messrs. J. Belcher, W. E. Loch, W. A. Sanderson, Fred Jones, J. Armstrong, Geo. Crowe, W. H. Meldrum, J. J. Lundy, D Lundy, R Lundy, Chas. Barabam, John Nugent, F. Pakenham, F. D. McKay, Geo. Morrow, Bert Thompson, D. Y. Reed, W Shanbury, and others.

They left the corner of Hunter and George streets at 7 30 o'clock yesterday morning, and from then until they returned to the same spot at 11 o'clock last evening they had a western hours of unalloyed pleasure. Lakefield was reached at nine o'clock, where the boys

EMBARKED ON THE MARY ELLEN,

Captain Sollard in command. Once on board the orchestra played many sweet selections. A stop of half an hour was made at Young's Point, all the children of the public school running out to greet the visitors. The pioneers again wended their way on up the beautiful lake and Burleigh was reached at high noon. Here dinner was served and duly partaken of at the Holmes hotel and a couple of hours spent in viewing the park, the locks, and the scenery. Rain beginning to fall at two o'clock, the shelter of the boat was sought and the start for home commenced.

After a delightful sail into Stony Lake the "American Camp" at Bocabik was visited, where the party gave the American salute and spent a delightful few minutes with Prof. Hopkins, and Mrs. Hopkins, of New York, who entertained them in a hospitable manner, giving the transient guests a most hearty reception. Young's Point was reached at six o'clock, where the party had tea, and the menu provided by Mine Host Wm. McFarlane was duly appreciated. The pleasure seekers left for Lakefield, reaching there at eight o'clock, where another hour was whiled pleasantly by and the the good old town of Peterborough again loomed up in the distantance at a few minutes before eleven, when the weary yet joyful party wended its way to bed.

The Park Band-Stand.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—I would like to enter a feeble protest against the conduct of Councillor A. V. R. Young, who has charge of the committee to whom was referred the petition of the band, asking that a proper place to play on be erected in the Park. This petition, I believe, was read to the council over two months ago, and referred to Mr. Young and his committee, where the matter has rested ever since.

I was present at the last open-air concert given by the band, and can testify to the necessity that exists for a proper stand. The musicians were huddled together like cattle in a railway car, and it was utterly impossible for them to do justice to their music. Besides the present band-stand never was suitable for what it was intended for. The roof should be so constructed as to act as a sounding board, so that no matter where you stood you would hear every instrument distinctly.

These open air performances are the most enjoyable pastime of the summer months. A large majority of the people, I am sure, are with the band in their efforts to furnish the best of music, which can only be done from a proper band stand. They will show by their votes next January what they think of a councillor who happens to possess a little brief authority, and who uses it wrongfully.

I hope the council will relieve Mr. Young of his trust and deal with the matter themselves at their meeting on Monday evening.

Yours truly,
FAIR PLAY.

A Dummer Sensation.

A Lively Hunt After Two Bears.

A party comprised, says the Norwood Register, of Messrs. Joshua Pass, Charles Poor, Robert Hill, John Buck, S. Adams, W. Robinson, W. H. Minaker, T. Fraser, J. A. Harper and R. J. Stewart, had the good fortune on Friday afternoon to kill two out of three bears that were proving a menace to the well-being of the flocks and herds of the farmers in the vicinity of Mr. David Lookwood's, Dummer. The bears were located about three o'clock and an hour afterwards two of them had passed in their checks, while the third narrowly escaped with his life. Mr. John Buck shot the largest one and Messrs. Minaker and Stewart were the lucky marksmen who killed the second one. The hunt was an exciting one, and a detailed account would only serve to place some of the participators in a ridiculous light without adding to the facts of the case, so that the reader will have to deny himself the humorous side of the hunt for the present.

North Monaghan Objects.

The following letter has been received by the town with reference to the sewerage question and handed to the EXAMINER for publication.

NORTH MONAGHAN, May 30th, 1892.

J. R. COBB, Town Clark, Peterborough:

DEAR SIR,—Yours of the 3 d inst. was laid before the council yesterday, when it was decided not to grant the permission asked, viz. to use the road south of the town to the river for the purpose of constructing the sewer, as the people along the river do not wish to have the river polluted, and the council feels it to be their duty to protect them as far as possible.

Yours truly,
W. COLLINS,
Township Clark.

WORKS: PT. SUNLIGHT LEVER BROS., LIMITED
NEAR BIRKENHEAD TORONTO

Probably the oddest passenger railway in the country is now being constructed in New Jersey, between Mount Holly and Smithville, and is known as the Bicycle Railway Company. It will be about two miles in length and its construction, including the right of way, which has already been secured, will cost about $10,000. It will probably be the cheapest road to maintain as far as operating expenses are concerned, as it will require no engines, firemen, brakemen or conductor. Each passenger will furnish his own motive power, and can whizz along at the rate of a mile in three minutes or go as much slower as he wishes. There will be two tracks, one for north and the other for south-bound bicycles, so that all danger of a collision is avoided. The run from one town to the other can be easily made in six minutes. The depots will be provided with a number of side tracks, on which the bicycles will stand when not in use. The road will start with about seventy-five or one hundred machines, which resemble inverted bicycles on top of a fence. The inventor is Arthur H. Hotchkiss, of New Haven, Conn., who is confident that the scheme will be a success.

THE BICYCLE RAILWAY.

THE ROADWAY.

The track is built by bedding cross-ties 3x6x3½ feet long in the ground once in six feet, and erecting upon them a post and rail structure about 3½ feet high of dressed yellow pine lumber. The post is secured to the cross-ties by means of bolts and angle irons. Narrow wooden stringer pieces connect the posts and the top stringer piece has a T-shaped rail screwed on it on which the bicycle runs. The railroad requires for its use a special form of bicycle, although the ordinary saddle, handle bar and propelling mechanism are employed.

In the upper part of the frame are two grooved wheels which run one in advance of the other on a single trach rail. The position of the saddle is between the wheels, so that the rider is carried above the trach way and astride the trach-supporting structure. The handle bar is located in front of the rider in the usual manner, and while not required for balancing or steering, serves to steady the rider and to assist when propelling rapidly. The frame is made double. It extends downward below the trach rail on opposite sides of the trach structure about 2½ feet, and has at the lower ends small guide wheels running horizontally on opposite sides of the lower stringer piece of the trach way to keep the machine in an upright position.

LADIES MAY RIDE.

The driving wheel in front of the rider is about twenty inches in diameter, and is connected with a ratchet and chain to the propelling treadles, which are located at the lower part of the frame on either side of the trach structure. The machine is geared up by its ratchet mechanism to a higher speed than is practicable in the ordinary road bicycles. Other forms of vehicles for use in connection with this system have been devised, so that ladies may ride them or several passengers may be carried at a time.

It is proposed in most cases to construct the system in such a way that much heavier vehicles than the present ones may be used in the event of the machines being operated by electricity. An important feature of the system is that the bicycles cannot jump the track and any one can ride them without previous expefience. The track being elevated is adapted to use at all seasons of the year and at night when the ordinary road bicycle would be impracticable or dangerous. Road crossings are effected by slightly raising the road to allow the track to go under, or the track may be easily elevated. The road will cross the Rancocas creek ten times by means of bridges in the short distance of two miles.

TRAVEL WILL BE HEAVY.

There are about one hundred persons employed at Smithville who live in Mount Holly, and nearly all of them will travel on the new railway. The commutation rates of fare will be 5 cents, and it is estimated that it will pay a dividend the first year, as the operating expenses will be comparatively nominal, and it will be the cheapest road to maintain in the world. Colonel C. S. Sims, a brother of Secretary Sims, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is one of the directors of the bicycle railway, and other men of prominence are interested in the plan, which, they think, will be a success.

Inventor Hotchkiss is already negotiating for the building of a similar railway at Chicago, to be in operation during the World's Fair. He declined a very flattering offer from a syndicate at Coney Island, for the reason that he would not consent to the machine being operated on Sunday.—Philadelphia Record.

Unfreezable Dynamite.

Unfreezable dynamite has been brought out by a company in London, England, with a view to preventing the numerous accidents caused by carelessness of the man in thawing out the cartridges by baking, boiling or otherwise heating them. The unfreezable mixture was invented by Edward Liebert, of Berlin, Germany, and its main feature is the addition of a small percentage of isoamylic nitrate to the nitro-glycerine or to the dynamite itself.

A Trolley Road in Russia.

The first electric street railway in Russia will be constructed in Kiev, a city of about 130,000 inhabitants and situated on the river Dnieper. This street railway will use the trolley system and will be ready for operation in the summer of 1892.

ANOTHER FRIGHTFUL DISASTER IN A HUNGARIAN MINE.

Over 200 Miners Killed by a Fire in a Silver Mine—Another Murder in an English Railway Carriage—Gladstone Opens the Campaign.

LONDON, June 2.—Mr. Gladstone, in addressing the London Liberal-Radical Union last evening, said that the dissolution of Parliament was approaching with great strides.

The whole country was awake and was expectant of the removal of legislative arrears by the Newcastle program. That was a gigantic task, but it might be accomplished, in a way, once the Irish problem was disposed of.

There was no group of questions the Liberals were more united upon than those affecting the London municipal powers. They believed that local control should have the widest extension.

Respecting the labor question Mr. Gladstone said that he had intimated to the London Trades Council his readiness to receive a deputation in favor of a working day of eight hours after the Whitsuntide holidays.

A uniform working day of eight hours, he said, was a large scheme to propose. The promoters of the scheme, however, should not be judged harshly, for many extravagant things were said in the early stages of all reforms.

He thought that voluntary action on the part of bodies like a city council in giving contracts for work could effect much in the direction of shortening the hours of labor. But the same ideas were hardly applicable where the expenditure of national money was concerned.

There might be cause for Parliamentary interference in cases where industries possessed legislative privileges.

Referring to Lord Salisbury's justification of rebellion in Ulster against a Dublin Parliament Mr. Gladstone said that that speech had become an extraordinary feature of England's political history.

It was no longer an isolated expression of a single political incendiary. It was now adopted by his colleagues in Parliament.

It was an astounding intimation, which, under the veil of prophecy, menaced the law and authority of the land.

ANOTHER MINE HORROR.

Another Appalling Disaster in a Hungarian Silver Mine.

PRAGUE, June 2.—A fire broke out in a silver mine at Pezibuam yesterday, in which 500 men were at work.

Of this number more than 200 lost their lives. Twenty-five dead bodies, burned and blackened in a terrible manner, have been recovered and 23 of the miners rescued from the death-trap shockingly burned and crushed.

All the victims, including three men engaged in the work of rescue, were suffocated by gas.

The fire was caused by the recklessness of a miner who carried a naked lamp into one of the chambers.

The mines belong to the State and have been worked since the year 1330. They are the deepest in the world and yield 15 tons of pure silver annually.

A FLIRTING RULER.

Keeps Close to the Pretty Widowed Queen Regent of Holland.

BERLIN, June 2.—The festivities in honor of little Queen Wilhelmina and the Queen Regent Emma of Holland were continued at Potsdam yesterday. The Kaiser led the Fourth Foot Guards in parade before Queen Emma, who looked very handsome in an attire of dark silk, with the Prussian colors pinned to her bosom. After the guards were led back to their quarters the Kaiser and his guests returned to the palace, the Kaiser remaining all the time close to the side of the lovely widowed Queen Regent, who is about six months the senior of the Kaiser, and a good deal handsomer than the Kaiserin. The Kaiser's gallantry attracted general attention. This flirtation between Prussia and Holland is watched with a good deal of interest by the Russian and French embassies, Queen Emma being the virtual director of the fortunes of Holland during the minority of her daughter.

INTENSE SUFFERING!

Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard Steamship Company's service, 8 St. John's Road, Kirkdale, Liverpool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable.

They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the head or rheumatic affection of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover. In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door,

ST. JACOBS OIL

The year 1891 has been the Banner Year in the History of the Sun Life.

The Gross Assurances for the year in the Life Department amounted to the enormous total of $5,901,000.00, an amount greatly exceeding that touched by the Company in any previous year, and it is believed no other Canadian Company has ever totaled a like amount in any one year.

THE SURPLUS PROFITS

have increased to even a greater extent than the new business, thus plainly indicating that the unbounded confidence placed in this great Financial Institution by the Canadian public, has not been misplaced.

Passengers Nearly Drowned in the Cars of an Indiana Train.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 2.—A southbound Lake Erie and Western passenger train, due here at 3.30 a.m., ran into a washed-out culvert 16 miles north of here and was wrecked. The engine and four cars toppled over in about four feet of water. Engineer Griffin was pinioned to his seat and partly submerged, but managed to pull the whistle cord and begged Fireman Wade to run back and flag the Panhandle express, which was thundering along only five minutes behind.

The fireman made his way to the rear of the train, secured the danger signal, which was the only unextinguished light left, and hurried down the track to stop the express, whose headlight could already be seen in the distance. The fireman waved his signal just as the express whistled for the culvert crossing, and a moment later the train came to a standstill on the brink of the culvert.

When the coaches of the first train trained over in the ditch the occupants were thrown headlong from their seats and the waters of the stream surged in at the windows and threatened to engulf them. J. E. Bard, a Kokomo merchant in the chair car, was wedged between two seats and would have been drowned had not Edward Henderson held his head above the water till assistance arrived. J. A. Wells of Michigan City was thrown violently against Mrs. Ella Crampton of Indianapolis and Mrs. Crampton was severely injured.

While the passengers were struggling in the water they heard the whistle of the Panhandle express, and knowing it was just behind the Lake Erie and Western train, they were panic-stricken and redoubled their frantic exertions to free themselves from the wreck. The new arrivals aided in the work of rescue, and the half-drowned passengers were rescued without the loss of a life.

SAM'L OF POSEN.

While Waiting a New Trial He Becomes a Vineyard Owner.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 1.—Actor M. B. Curtis, who is out on bail pending his second trial for the murder of Policeman Grant, has sold his Peralta Hall property across the Bay from San Francisco for $140,000. This property included a fine hotel. It is reported from Fresno that the actor has bought the Fairview vineyard near that place. It is a raisin vineyard of 160 acres. Curtis, it is said, will live on his ranch.

BELIEVES IN BEER.

A Former Toronto Clergyman Creates a Commotion in New York.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Rev. Dr. Rainsford, rector of St. George's Episcopal Church, preached a sermon Sunday in which he showed that he possesses the courage of his convictions.

"The New Englander," he said, "is a persistent force, but the New Englander when he attempts to make an excise law for New York is out of his depth. This is not a New England city. It is an Irish city, a German city, a Jewish city, not a city of one party, and you cannot convince an Englishman that it is wrong for him to have his beer on Sunday."

In much the same strain the reverend gentleman defended a certain class of saloons where men can sit down and converse and drink their beer in public rather than sit in their tenement homes all the evening.

A Silly "Joke."

GUELPH, June 2.—There was great excitement at the Royal Hotel on Tuesday evening, when Mr. Johnston, machine agent, picked up the following letter, which was left in a conspicuous place, evidently by some practical joker:

GUELPH, May 31, 6 o'clock p.m.

The first person who sees this let them make its contents known to the proprietor of the Royal that I have committed suicide.

My body will be found in the river near C.P.R. station, as I am going there now. Good-bye. FRANK HENDERSON, 37 Richmond-street, Toronto, Ont.

The police were at once sent for and they made a search of the river in the vicinity of the C.P.R. station, but no trace could be found of the body of the writer of the foregoing letter. They finally decided that the whole matter was a hoax and let it drop.

There is no Frank Henderson in the Toronto Directory and Richmond Hall and the Jewish Synagog are No. 37 Richmond-street, west and east respectively, consequently there is no doubt of the yarn being a hoax.

How She Became a Missionary.

"I am doing missionary work a good deal of my time," was the reply of one of the most charming women of New York, to a friend, who asked how she busied herself. "I see by your looks you wonder what I mean by that. I'll tell you. A few years ago life was a burden to me. I had been a victim to female weakness of the most aggravated character for a long time, and the doctors failed to help me. Existence was a long, steady, terrible torture—a lingering, living death. One day I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised in the newspaper. Something in the advertisement impressed me favorably. I caught at the glimmer of hope it held out as a drowning man is said to catch at a straw. Still, I did not dare to hope. But I got the medicine, and behold the result! I feel so well, so strong, and O, so thankful, that I go about telling other women what saved me. In no other way can I so well show my gratitude to God, and to the man who has proved such a benefactor of women, and my love for my suffering sisterhood."

The Times and the Copyright Act—The Victoria, Australia, Legislature Discussing the Question of Differential Trade Duties With Other Colonies.

MELBOURNE, June 3.—A member of the Victorian Parliament yesterday introduced a motion declaring that the colonies should be allowed to impose differential duties on foreign products in favor of the products of the other colonies or of the Empire. The British tariff should be made favorable to the whole Empire, and the colonies should be granted a voice in the foreign policy of the Empire.

CRIBBED THE NEWS.

The London Thunderer's Suit for Infringement of Copyright.

LONDON, June 3.—In the Chancery Division Justice North delivered his decision in the case of Walter Vensteinkoff. In this case the proprietors of The Times sought to restrain the proprietor and publisher of The St. James' Gazette from selling copies of a certain issue of their paper containing reproductions from The Times of an article of Rudyard Kippling, asserted to be copyright.

The defence showed that The Times had been guilty of filching news from the columns of other papers, that they repeatedly did what they now accused other newspapers of doing.

The judge decided that the defendants should pay the costs of the case, but no damages.

In his decision Judge North granted an injunction restraining The Gazette from further publication of the Kipling articles, and he also decided that there might be copyright in news and telegrams, in the particular mode in which information is conveyed. The copyright was not in the fact, but in the language used in stating it.

"LEFT AT THE POST."

British Legislators Went to the Derby, Leaving the Speaker Behind.

LONDON, June 3.—It was announced that the House of Commons had decided to sit as usual Tuesday, notwithstanding the fact that it has been customary to adjourn over Derby day. When the House met only 13 members were present. Of course no business could be done, and the Speaker therefore adjourned the sitting until 3 o'clock. When that hour arrived 19 members made their appearance. The Speaker thereupon decided to adjourn the sitting indefinitely. Though a majority of the House voted the previous day to meet as usual, the greater part of them could not stand the idea of performing legislative work when the greatest of all horse races was being run, so they had quietly proceeded to Epsom Downs, where they were among the most interested of the thousands who saw Sir Hugo land the prize.

The newspapers make sarcastic comments on the absence of the 158 members who rejected the motion to adjourn over Derby day.

CATHOLIC CEREMONIES.

Peculiar Religious Ceremony Among the Catholics of Rhenish Prussia.

BERLIN, June 3.—A solemn religious ceremony occurred yesterday at Kevelaer. The day was the 250th anniversary of the foundation of the chapel in which is enshrined the image of the Virgin Mary.

At 9 o'clock the procession of the clergy, Knights of Malta, the Archbishop of Cologne, the Bishop of Muenster, the Bishop of Treves and the chapters of three cathedrals left the Marienkirche and proceeded to the chapel.

When the procession arrived at the chapel the image was handed to the clergy. Then the line turned back and with the image returned to the Marienkirche. Here the Bishop of Muenster consecrated the crown of gold, which the Pope has permitted to be placed upon the virgin's head. High mass was celebrated by the Archbishop of Cologne and a sermon was preached by the Bishop of Treves. The ceremony of crowning the image followed, after which the "Te Deum" was chanted.

Then the procession was re-formed and carried the image back to the chapel.

The Plague of Mice in Scotland.

EDINBURGH, June 3.—The plague of field mice is increasing rapidly in the south of Scotland, and the vermin are now swarming into the cornfields and meadows on the lower grounds. The committee of farmers in the infested areas are arranging that an eminent Scotch professor shall visit the districts and experiment with the bacillus which has proved so effective in destroying the mice in Greece.

ARSENIC IN A PLUM PUDDING.

Tragic Death of an Entire Family in Stratford, England.

LONDON, June 3.—Particulars reached here yesterday of a strange case of poisoning of a family named East, who recently took a small shop at Stratford, Essex. Mrs. East made a plum pudding, and as the dough seemed to be too wet, she took a quantity of what appeared to be flour from a jar which stood in the shop and mixed it with the other ingredients. After dinner the family became ill, and towards evening a friend who called sent for a doctor, who at once found that it was a case of poisoning. The father, Thomas East, aged 56, died at 7 o'clock the same night, his wife, Sophia East, aged 54, died in the West Ham Hospital yesterday morning, and Edward East, a son, aged 18, died last night. The medical men believe that the substance added to the pudding was arsenic.

A HORRIBLE STORY.

DRUNKEN MARKSMEN ONLY WOUND THE VICTIM,

Who Is Then Thrust Into a Coffin and Nailed Down in Spite of His Vigorous Protest—Two Men Sit On the Lid While Another Drives the Nails.

ARDMORE, I.T., June 4.—Albert Rennie, United States Commissioner of this city, who for a time was stationed at Wewoko, the capital of the Seminole nation, relates a story of a horrible execution there. It is the custom to execute men convicted of capital crimes, by shooting. The executioners in the case referred to were two members of the National Light Horse detailed for the purpose. The victim was led to the rock upon which these judicial killings take place. The executioners were very drunk and their shots only wounded the human target. They left the ground at once, and a negro took the rough box coffin to the wounded man, who protested against being buried alive as vigorously as his strength would permit. Three negroes finally succeeded in putting the man in the box, and an effort was made to nail the lid down, but the victim pushed and kicked against it so that the task was only accomplished by two of the negroes sitting on the lid while the other drove the nails with the utmost nonchalance. The interment was then made.

TWO SUDDEN CALLS.

A Dentist Decapitated at Sarnia—Newsboy Killed at Niagara Falls.

SARNIA, June 4.—About 5 o'clock last evening Edward Foulds, a dentist 23 years of age, was run over by a train in the tunnel yard, which severed the left arm and head from the body. The unfortunate young man was seen to fall across the track by the engineer, who immediately reversed his engine, but there was not sufficient time to avert the terrible accident. Deceased was employed in Detroit, but was here visiting his parents. No inquest will be held.

Missed His Footing and Was Killed.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 4.—Woolard Albro, a newsboy 13 years of age, met a terrible death about 6 o'clock last night. The Michigan Central passenger train due here at that time was leaving the Cantilever Bridge, when young Albro tried to jump aboard the last car. He slipped, was dragged a short distance and then lost his hold, falling under the wheels, which passed over his head, severing it completely from his body. His brains were scattered along the ties. The boy had been in the habit of catching this train and selling papers on it. Coroner Walsh will hold an inquest. He was the stepson of William Winslow, the newsdealer, and he leaves a mother and brother.

Shot At By a Burglar.

MONTREAL, June 4.—Last night Mr. E. Clark, a well-known Montreal business man, who occupies a cottage at Vaudreuil, was awakened by his wife, who cried out that there was someone in their sleeping apartment. Clark at once jumped out of bed and confronted the fellow, who backed away as Clark advanced. When near the door of the room the intruder pulled out a revolver, which he discharged direct at Clark's head, but the latter ducked and thus escaped with his life, the bullet whistling close above his head. The would-be murderer then fled downstairs and escaped from the house.

A Loss of $30,000,000.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The damage occasioned by the recent floods in the South is unprecedented. In Missouri the loss to wheat, corn, homes, cattle and railroad property is $11,200,000; Tennessee, cotton, wheat, homes and cattle, $1,900,000; Kentucky, loss $200,000; Arkansas, farms, corn, cotton and other products, $10,000,000; Mississippi, loss $1,000,000; Louisiana, loss $5,000,000. Total loss $29,300,000. A conservative estimate of the amount of damage caused by the high water from Kansas City to New Orleans will reach $30,000,000.

Judge Smart Buried.

HAMILTON, June 4.—The funeral of the late William Lyon Smart, ex-Deputy Judge of Wentworth County, took place Friday afternoon from the residence, Park and Markland-streets. There was a large attendance. The services were read by Rev. E. M. Bland and Rev. E. P. Crawford. The pall-bearers were: W. F. Walker, Q.C., J. V. Teetzel, Q.C., W. H. Gillard, H. T. Bunbury, R. A. Lucas, Dr. H. T. Ridley. Among those who attended the funeral were John Small, collector of customs, Toronto; F. D. Barwick, Postoffice inspector, Toronto, and ex-Ald. Thompson, Toronto; all old friends of the deceased.

An Ex-Minister Charged with Forgery.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 4.—William L. Wright of Rosedale is under arrest at Rockville for forgery. The disclosures show that he executed several notes, forging as sureties thereon the names of many prominent people throughout the States. This was done nearly two years ago. When the notes fell due he renewed them with more forged securities. The notes amounted to about $10,000. Wright was formerly a Campbellite minister, but some time ago he abandoned the pulpit for the law.

No Religious Ceremony Needed.

BERLIN, June 4.—The town council of Gelenau, Saxony, having discovered that one of their number, named Hoffman, had never been married by religious ceremony, but only according to the civil code, seized upon this pretext to practically expel the delinquent, who was not popular among his fellows. They therefore refused to allow Hoffman's vote to be recorded on any question that came before the body. Hoffman appealed to the High Court of Justice of Saxony, which has just rendered a decision in the case, holding that a civil married being valid in law, Hoffman had committed no act which would disqualify him from sitting as a member of a municipal council.

The Cholera Epidemic.

LONDON, June 4.—A despatch from Teheran says conflicting accounts are received of the cholera epidemic at Meshed. It is stated 115 deaths from the disease have occurred in a single day. The disease has now appeared in the hills, compelling the removal of the English camp. The inhabitants are fleeing from their homes. Mussulmans of pilgrims are prevented by cordons.

Banishing the Offenders.

WARSAW, June 3.—Five persons convicted in the riots at Lodz have been banished to Siberia. Thirty Germans and 25 Austrians, suspected of being agitators, have been expelled from Russia without warning.

REDISTRIBUTION BILL.

MR. DALTON M'CARTHY'S AMENDMENT.

Wants Equality of Population and Community of Interests—The Franchise Act—Discussing the Criminal Law—Defamatory Libel.

OTTAWA, June 4.—An old and familiar friend in the shape of the Franchise Act occupied the attention of the House for a few minutes on Hon. Mr. Patterson's motion for the second reading of the act respecting the voters' lists of 1891.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said he did not intend to oppose the bill, but would call attention to the fact that although the Franchise Act of 1885 provided for an annual revision of the voters' lists they had only been revised in 1886, 1889 and 1891, the Government having to ask for legislation to remove the necessity for revision for the other years. He hoped that next year the Government would repeal the act.

Hon. Mr. Patterson said that next year it was the intention of the Government to introduce a bill which will simplify the revision of the lists and reduce the expenses.

Hon. Mr. Mills announced that when the bill was in committee he would move that the clause which provides that there be no revision this year be amended by excepting London. He said there were 230 names on the London voters' lists which ought not to be there, and the lists ought to be revised.

Sir Richard Cartwright also had a grievance. One clause of the act reporting the voters' lists legalizes those lists which were not received by the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery until after the end of the year. Sir Richard said that this point had been raised in some protested election cases now pending, and he did not think the House ought to interfere with past legislation.

Hon. Mr. Patterson said that could be attended to when the House was in committee.

The bill was then read a second time.

The House then went into committee on the bill to amend the Dominion Lands Act, which passed through committee and was reported.

The House again went into committee on the Criminal Law Bill and passed a number of items up to 6 o'clock.

After recess the bill to amend the act incorporating the Manitoba and Assiniboia Grand Junction Railway Company was read a second time and the House again went into committee on the Criminal Law bill.

On clause 285 relating to defamatory libel there was quite a lively little discussion as to whether the clause was not too strict, but after an explanation from Sir John Thompson that it really did not exceed the common law the clause passed.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy has given notice of an amendment, which he proposes to move on Tuesday, on the motion for second reading of the bill No. 76, "an act to readjust the representation in the House of Commons." It is as follows: "That said bill be not now read the second time, but that it be resolved that the distribution of seats of members of this House should, so far as practicable, be based on equality of population, due regard being had to the community of interests existing in localities, a full and fair expression of public opinion and the permanence and stability of constituencies. That the most effective way of accomplishing these ends is to assume county and city boundaries as the natural limits of electoral districts, with equitable divisions thereof constituted, and with compactness as regards geographical position and based on well-known existing areas, where the population entitles the city or county to two or more representatives. That the system now prevailing, and proposed to be continued by the said bill, fails to secure equality of population, ignores community of interests, disregards geographical compactness, renders stability impossible, and is liable to gross abuse in affording opportunities in the arrangement of electoral districts for promoting party aims and obtaining party advantages regardless of the consideration which ought to determine the settlement of the representatives of the people in this House."

To-morrow's Canada Gazette will contain notice of the return of James Nicol Grieve for North Perth.

A circular has been received from Lord Knutsford stating that, in reply to a suggestion that officers of constabulary forces in the colonies should be allowed to wear their constabulary uniform at levees, he has decided that, following the precedent of a similar privilege accorded by long-standing custom to the Royal Irish Constabulary, this privilege may be generally allowed.

The usual monthly statement of the public debt shows the gross amount of the debt on May 31 to have been $260,003,696, and the net debt $236,492,601, which is a decrease of $1,314,490 since June 30 last.

The revenue for the month of May amounted to $3,196,101, and for the 11 months to $33,664,221, which is $1,746,085 less than for the same period last year, which it must be remembered included the sugar duties. The expenditure for the month was $3,554,121 and for the 11 months $29,272,970, showing a surplus of $3,821,310.

Foster, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs. This Government was represented by Secretary Blaine and Gen J. W. Foster.

The Presidential Election.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secretary Rusk speaking [illegible] of the Presidential situation, said: "Mr. Harrison's nomination is only the logical conclusion of the unanimous verdict of approval passed upon his administration. The short term of four years justifies a renomination by his party, whenever a president's administration receives the country's unqualified endorsement. Moreover, stability of public affairs is essential to the business interests of the country, which always suffer from frequent changes."

Blaine Will Write No More Letters.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secretary Blaine told an Associated Press reporter this afternoon, in answer to a question, that he would write no more communications in regard to the Presidential nomination.

DECISIVE BATTLE.

The Venezuelan Government Troops in Full Flight Toward Valencia.

VALENCIA, Venezuela, June 4.—A battle has been fought in the prairies near this town and resulted in the defeat of Palacio's forces. There was terrific fighting and the rout of the Government troops was complete. They are now in full retreat towards Valencia. The town of Maturin, in the state of Nirmudes, is in possession of the rebels. Los Tables has been retaken by the Government. Ex-President Rodes Paul has come out openly in favor of the rebellion.

Fashionable Wedding.

BELLEVILLE, June 4. — A fashionable wedding was that of John Maclaren, second son of the late James Maclaren, the millionaire lumber merchant of Buckingham, Quebec, and Miss Emma Forin, fourth daughter of John Forin, the well-known architect and builder. The marriage took place in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Maclaren of Toronto, uncle of the groom. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Lizzie Forin, while Henry Maclaren, Ottawa, did the honors of groomsman. Among those present at the ceremony were: Mrs. Raphiel, sister, and David Maclaren, and Mrs. James Maclaren, mother of the groom, of Buckingham, Que.; Dr. and Mrs. Forin, Duluth, Minn. The groom has settled $50,000 on the bride. His present to the bridesmaid was an elegant brooch set in pearls and rubies. The bride's father presented her with $100 in gold.

C.P.R. Land Sales.

WINNIPEG, June 4.—Very little has been said lately as to the sales of C.P.R. lands, though the phenomenal record of the first quarter of the year was fully maintained during April and May. The sales for the past month show an increase of 500 per cent. over that of the corresponding period of 1891. Land Commissioner Hamilton says the sales during May, notwithstanding the great record of previous months, had been greatly in excess of expectations. There were 35,000 acres sold, as against 6000 acres for the same month last year. Values also indicated an advance, the revenue for the past month having been $121,000, and that of a year ago $26,000. The experience of previous years has been to show a decrease of sales for the spring months, with the rush of the season in July and August. Should these months show an equal increase with the earlier period of 1892 the aggregate of sales for the year will be enormous.

Lightning 1500 Feet Under Ground.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 4.—Lightning which struck a column pipe ran down the slope at Otto colliery and shocked Charles McGovern, who was standing by the mine stable door, rendering him senseless. He now lies in a precarious condition. Three other miners who were near by were likewise affected, but not so seriously. The slope is 1500 feet deep and, though instances of the lightning penetrating the earth to find a victim have been known, no bolt has ever reached such a depth before. In its passage into the bowels of the earth the electric fluid burned, tore and twisted the pipe in such a way as to necessitate the temporary suspension of the colliery. During the storm in which this electric freak occurred a number of barns were struck and destroyed by the fire that followed.

Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 1892.

The Kingston correspondent of the Empire says: "Two Americans are here looking at the piano factory, with a view to making it into a $1 per day hotel." Whereupon the London Advertiser remarks that Canadian piano factories, like sewing machine factories, appear to have got a blow in the eye from the N.P.

THE Moncton Transcript, (Lib), which has been carefully following the Reptile vouchers published in the Globe, comes to this conclusion:—"Never in the history of Canadian journalism was there ever so complete and detailed exposure by a newspaper of the corrupt practices of a political party as that now being made by the Globe in the charges against Sir Adolphe Caron. Enough damning evidence has been adduced to warrant outspoken condemnation even by the Ministerial press of the corrupt practices, but the Tory journal has yet to be read which in an outspoken manner condemns Sir Adolphe Caron and his practices as the Liberal press condemned Mercier."

QUEBEC province is practically bankrupt—forced to resort to direct taxation—not that that is necessarily an evil; when the people see and feel what they pay they will watch the coffers more closely. Yet the De Boucherville government with the true spirit of Torydom, refused to move in the direction of political progress and economy by knocking off the 5th wheel to the coach—that superfluous political excrescence, the legislative council. In the mere matter of maintenance, not to count the costly legislation it may originate, the abolition of the legislative council would be a saving of thousands, which Quebec is in the direst need of, and the interests of the province would not suffer. Ontario has rubbed on very fairly with one chamber for twenty-five years, come next Dominion Day, and has managed to accumulate a surplus of between five and six millions as compared with Quebec piling up a debt of twenty-four million dollars, with a population of about 330,000. Quebec has, taking the two chambers, 156 representatives. According to the same ratio Ontario's single chamber would foot up up 400 members.

Harvey.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—A warrant was issued on Tuesday by the Reeve on the complaint of Elizabeth Robinson, for the arrest of Thomas Shouldice, of Harvey, charging him with an aggravated assault on her daughter, Caroline Robinson, aged 12 years. Shouldice was arrested by Constable Blewitt, and was brought before Police Magistrate Deacon and Reeve Rotham, on Wednesday. The child described the nature of the assault, which took place at the time of the fire on Sunday night. Mrs. Robinson swore that she was at the fire on Sunday night, leaving her children at home. On returning home, she heard screams at the house, and rushing in found the prisoner. She corroborated the child's evidence. The prisoner requested that time be given him to obtain legal advice, and the court accordingly remanded him to the county gaol for one week. On reaching Lindsay he elected to be tried at once by the magistrate, without a jury and His Honor appointed nine o'clock Saturday morning for the trial.

The tender, fragile plant which you have potted with such care, and which gets the sunlight at your window, requires constant attention and regular watching in order to thrive and blossom.

In the large majority of homes there is to be found a precious and tender human flower. The mother watches over it; she is the first to detect natural healthy growth or wasting disease. She is the home gardener to whom is confided the care of the tender plant—the baby.

Will it droop and die, or will it become a lovely, strong and healthy flower in the home garden? This is a serious and an important question, and the mother, as guardian, is responsible for its life.

Baby's life depends as much upon its food, as the house rose depends upon water and plant food.

Babies who are not properly fed are constantly peevish, cross and fretful; this is an indication of trouble and coming ailments. The little weak stomach must be satisfied with food suited for its strength and capacity else it becomes irritated and inflamed.

We think it a duty to remind mothers at this time that Lactated Food is the only artificial food suitable for their babies. It possesses all the constituents of mother's milk, and is suited for the weakest digestion. It is readily and eagerly taken by the youngest babies, who become nauseated with all other prepared foods. It builds up the flesh, bone and muscle, and causes the little one to be happy and sleep well. Lactated Food is strongly recommended by our best Canadian physicians, who prescribe it preference to all other foods.

One trial of Lactated Food will convince every mother that it should be used regularly. There is no other make as good and no other so cheap.

Bridge Meeting at Bobcaygeon.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says: As a result of the visit of the County Wardens to inspect the Forest House bridge, a joint meeting of the two advisory committees was held in Lindsay on Saturday last. The necessity of a new bridge was beyond dispute, but the description it should be, and the apportionment of the cost, were decidedly in dispute. Victoria favours an iron bridge, Peterborough a wooden one. As to sharing the cost no agreement could be arrived at, and the matter will be decided by arbitration, as laid down in the Act passed last session of the Legislature. The construction of the new bridge will probably be proceeded with after the June session of the County Council. H. Bottum, our village reeve, was present at the meeting of the Joint High Commissioners, and looked after the interests of the village.

A TRENTON MIRACLE.

A Remarkable Cure in a Case Pronounced Hopeless.

An Estimable Young Lady Raised from a Death bed After Being Given up by Several Doctors—A Simple Statement of Facts:

Trenton Courier.

At intervals during the past year the proprietor of the Courier has been publishing newspaper reports of miraculous cures occuring in various parts of Canada and the United States. Perhaps among the most notable of these were the cases of Mr. John Marshall, of Hamilton, Ont., Mr. C. B. Northrop, of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. Chas. A. Quant, of Galway, N. Y. Mr. Marshall's case was more prominently fixed in the public mind by reason of the fact that after being pronounced incurable by a number of eminent physicians he was paid the $1,000 disability claim allowed by the Royal Templars of Temperance, and some months afterwards was announced his almost miraculous restoration to health and active life. The case of Mr. Northrop created equally as profound a sensation in Detroit, where he is one of the best known merchants in the city. Mr. Northrop was looked upon as a helpless invalid, and could only give the most desultory attention to his business on days when he could be wheeled to the store in an invalid's chair. In his case the same simple—yet wonderful—remedy that had cured Mr. Marshall restored Mr. Northrop to a life of active usefulness. The case of Mr. Charles Quant is perhaps the most marvellous of all, inasmuch as he was not only perfectly helpless, but had had treatment in one of New York's best hospitals under such eminent medical scientists as Prof. Ware and Dr. Starr, and in Albany by Prof. H. H. Han, only to be sent out as incurable and looked upon as one who had but a few months before death would put an end to his sufferings. Again the same remedy which restored Mr. Marshall and Mr. Northrop was resorted to, with the same remarkable results, and to-day Mr. Quant, restored to health, anticipates a long life of usefulness. The remedy which had succeeded where the best physicians had failed, is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People—and a name that is now a familiar household word throughout the continent — and a remedy that apparently stands without a rival in the annals of medical science. Having published among others the cases above alluded to, the curiosity of the publisher of the Courier was aroused and he determined to ascertain if anyone around Trenton had been benefited by the use of Pink Pills. In conversation with Mr. A. W. Hawley, druggist, he was told that the sale of Pink Pills was remarkable, and steadily increasing. And Mr. Hawley gave the names of a number within his own observation who had been benefited by the use of this remedy. Among others, Miss Emma Fleming, granddaughter of Mr. Robert Young: It was stated that Miss Fleming had been raised from what was supposed to be her death bed, after all other remedies and physicians had failed, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This statement was so startling that the Courier determined to investigate it further, and if true set the facts before the public for the benefit of other sufferers. Mr. Robert Young, grandfather of the young lady was first seen, and in a reply to an enquiry said it was a miracle the manner in which these pills had restored his granddaughter. As a last resort, and with a prayer in his heart, he had purchased a box of Pink Pills at Mr. Spaulsbury's drug store, and so much good resulted that the remedy was continued until his grand-daughter was as well as ever she had been. Miss Fleming's aunt was next seen, and she corroborated what had already been told the Courier, giving as well some additional particulars. Miss Fleming was next seen, and we must confess to being surprised, and at first somewhat incredulous that this young lady in the bloom of womanhood and health was the person whom we wanted to interview. Miss Fleming, however, soon convinced us that it was she who was so miraculously saved from death, and cheerfully consented to give a statement of her case. Her father, she said, was for years miller under Mr. Spence, and afterwards at Gordon's mills, near Trenton, and is now miller at Union. Three years ago Miss Fleming's mother died of consumption. Up to four years ago Miss Fleming stated she had enjoyed good health, but taking a severe cold then she had not had a well day since, until she began the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills last December: She was reduced in weight to 90 pounds, but now weighs 111 pounds; a gain of 21. She consulted a number of doctors and took their remedies, but never obtained more than temporary relief. A physician at Newmarket whom she consulted said she was going into a decline and that he could do nothing for her. Her Trenton physician said that a sudden cold would go to her lungs and he had no hope of her ever getting better. She felt very miserable, strength continually failing, suffered so much distress from food that she had no desire for it and lost all appetite. She kept continually growing worse until last fall she was not able to stand without support, and gave up all efforts to help herself. In December she was taken with inflammation of the bowels and Dr. Moran was called in. He gave her medicine that relieved her and cured the inflammation, but her strength was gone and she had to be lifted in and out of bed and could not sit in a chair at all. She had taken her bed expecting never to rise again, and this was the opinion of all her friends. It was at this juncture that her grand-father, having read in the Courier of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as a last resort purchased a box, and urged his grand-daughter to take them. Miss Fleming had been before this recommended by a friend in Toronto to try Pink Pills, but declared she had no faith in them. Now, however, to please her friends she consented to take the Pink Pills; on the seventh day after beginning the use of the Pink Pills she was able to walk down stairs, and has not gone back to a sick bed since. The effect upon her system was truly marvelous. Her appetite was gone, strength gone, prostrate upon her supposed death bed, in seven days she was able to walk down stairs, feeling renewed strength and a better appetite than ever before. Miss Fleming continued the use of Pink Pills, daily gaining health and strength, until she was able to take part in the household duties without the least injurious effect. Miss Fleming still continues to take one pill after each meal, and now feels as well as she ever did in her life. She feels truly grateful for what this great remedy has done for her, and only a sense of gratitude enables her to overcome her modest scruples in giving this testimony to the wonderful virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Miss Fleming has recommended Pink Pills to a number of lady friends who say they are doing them much good.

A further investigation revealed the fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense in which that term is usually understood, but are a scientific preparation successfully used in general practice for many years before being offered to the public generally. They contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after affects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration; all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, over-work or excesses of whatever nature.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ontario, and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape) at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps, of the sure approach of that most terrible disease consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford, for the sake of saving 25c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. dw

Bad Drinking Water.

Travellers suffer greatly from the different kinds of water they are compelled to drink, as nothing is so likely to bring on an attack of Diarrhœa as change of drinking water. PERRY Davis' PAIN KILLER is the only safe, quick, and sure cure for Diarrhœa, Cramps, and Cholera Morbus, and the value of every traveller should contain a bottle of the mixture which he can procure at any reputable drug-store. 25c. for a large bottle.

The Peterborough Canoe Company.

It now looks as if the flourishing business so long carried on by the management of the Ontario Canoe Company, and which suffered such severe loss in the recent fire, was likely to again assume shape. Several men of Peterborough and other places are taking the matter in hand, and under the name of the Peterborough Canoe Company, will carry on business on this side of the river in suitable buildings to be erected at once. Present indications seem to point to a very strong financial company being formed under the able practical management of Lt.-Col. J. Z. Rogers, so long connected with the institution. It is pleasing to note that there are not to lose a manufacturing establishment which not only employs numbers of skilled workmen, but which has helped materially to advertise our town, not only in Canada and the United States, but throughout the whole of Great Britain.

In Committee of the Whole.

The members of the town council met last night in Committee of the Whole, all of the members being present. Councillor Winch was able to be present after his recent illness. The various committees spent most of their time in preparing and arranging their respective reports for the council on Monday night. The sewerage committee discussed the report at some length, which will be submitted to the council for its consideration, and if passed a bylaw will be prepared on the subject and submitted to the ratepayers as soon as expedient. The Street and Bridge Committee did not award the tenders last night for the cribbing of the Edison drain on REID street. A deputation from the [illegible] consisting of Messrs. Langton, Fair, Andrews, Martin were present and requested, in order that the work might be more efficient and complete that an iron sewerage pipe be place therein. The members of the council were invited to walk down the scene of the drain this morning and by observation and inquiries look into the matter.

This morning at 10 o'clock Mayor Kendry, Councillors Cahill and Bradburn and Mr. Belcher, Town Engineer, went down to the drain and there met Messrs. Langton, Fair, Martin, Andrews, and Mr. E. H. D. Hall, of the Edison Co. The drain was viewed and examined, opinions expressed, and the matter considered. The result of the committee's investigation will be made known as well as the action they decide to take in the matter, in the report of the Street and Bridge committee to be presented to the council on Monday night.

The Town Solicitor's Opinion.

A letter appeared in yesterday's EXAMINER from Mr. Wm. Collins, clerk of North Monaghan township, stating that at the township meeting it was decided not to grant the permission asked by the town council to use the road south of the river for the purpose of constructing the sewer, as the people along the river did not wish to have the river polluted and the council felt it their duty to protect them as far as possible. The letter was referred to the town solicitor for his opinion on the matter, which is here published by the request of Councillor Thos. Cahill, chairman of the sewerage committee.

PETERBOROUGH, June 3rd, 1892.

J. R. CORB, Esq., Town Clerk, Peterborough.

DEAR SIR,—I have considered the question of the extension of the town sewer through the township of North Monaghan to an outlet and the objection thereto of the township of North Monaghan.

It is a matter for arbitration under section 492, of the Municipal Act, and the arbitrators will have to determine in the first place "whether the extension should, under the circumstances be permitted or allowed to be made," and if that point be determined in favor of the town the arbitrators will then determine the terms and conditions upon which the extension shall be allowed to be made.

In the case of Burton vs. Hamilton it was decided by the court that everywhere one municipality had purchased the right through another municipality the sewer could not be constructed without the consent of the latter, or without, as an alternative, resorting to arbitration.

In this case I take it that the arbitrators would have it in their power to determine the whole question as to your right to extend and as to whether you could use the highway for that purpose, and as to the terms and conditions.

Yours truly,

E. B. EDWARDS.

The town solicitor's opinion will be submitted to the town council on Monday night and the matter considered and discussed.

West Peterborough Colonization Roads.

List of Appropriations for Expenditure on Roads in the West Peterborough.

Through the exertions of Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.PP. for West Peterborough, the following sums have been appropriated for the improvement and extension of roads in the West Riding. The moneys expended upon the roads in the back country during past years have resulted in the great improvement of these highways and in greatly facilitating the access of the settlers to the Peterborough market and Lakefield village, a mutual benefit which both town and county are not slow to appreciate.

The following sums have been appropriated for expenditure upon the respective roads the present season. Work on some of the roads has already begun and the rest will be placed under construction as soon as the government overseer completes his arrangements.

North Harvey Road	$ 800
[This road, when completed, will open up for settlement that portion of Harvey lying between the Burleigh and the Buckhorn roads. The work this season will consist of the building of a difficult bridge across Misissauga creek, and the continuation of the road westward.]
Sandy Lake Road, from Buckhorn to Lakehurst	200
Negey's Creek Road	300
Buckhorn Road, to repair and extend north towards Monck Road	1,200
Buckhorn Road, south of Buckhorn	150
Burleigh Road, south of Burleigh Falls	150
Gannons Narrows Road	200
Cavendish Roads	600
Galway and Cavendish Roads, east to Buckhorn Road	800
Reid Road, Galway	350
Queens Line, Galway	300
Bobcaygeon Road	750
Total	$5,800

From the above it is quite evident that the representative of West Peterborough has not allowed the material interests of the riding to suffer, so far as active exertion in their behalf could avail.

The Band Park Concert.

Their Delightful Second Night—Excellent Work Done—Under Adverse Conditions—Remarks.

Thousands of the public assembled last night at the park to hear the second band concert programme of the season, and everybody was delighted with the splendid performance of the beautiful string of selections so artistically rendered. From the first to the last the work of the band, which played 29 strong, was excellent—quite up to concert pitch. It is difficult to discriminate between these numbers, which was popular approval, and those which were artistically and musically the most meritorious. Succeeding the opening grand march, the "Broken Chain" Fantasia, was received with strong expressions of approval heard among the happy auditors. The cornet solo, Hyman's 'Hungarain Song"—the solo beautifully taken by Mr. Bandmaster Miller—with a very judicious and tasteful accompaniment by the band, was a most delightful treat, while to the musical critic the Eclipse overture with its telling effects, was a genuine pleasure. The other members of the programme were quite up to mark, especially the Jolly Company quadrilles which were a genuine pleasure to hear. Bandmaster Miller's fife and drum band, consisting of 17 members, made their first appearance, playing two charming selections. They did their work capitally and for a comparatively young organization, made themselves deserving of the warmest applause. The public will be glad to hear the "fletikins" again. It must be remarked that the fine programme given last night night was presented under difficulties, owing to the unsuitability of the band-stand for the number of performers who are packed together like a barrel of brass mounted herrings. The shape of the roof also not only confines the music to the stand, preventing it being heard to the best effect outside, but strikes the complex sounds down upon the performers in confusing and discordant echoes, so that the conductor has the greatest possible difficulty in discharging his all-important functions. Considering the delight these concerts afford the public, it is demanded that the band which gives its services gratuitously during the season, should have every facility for doing the best work, as it is capable of doing under the proper conditions. And it is surprising how well they do with an inadequate band-stand and with instruments that have, to speak most mildly, seen their best days. With a properly built pavilion—both as to size and accustics—no band in the country is capable of doing better work than our own boys. Very many of the public who hear with delight the weekly concerts do not stop to think how many years of patient practice, how many years of patient rehearsal in a band hall, shut out from the out door pleasures of the balmy summer evenings, are represented by the weekly concert programmes. The band deserves well o' the public and it is to be hoped the public will not be practically forgetful of its duty to so obliging and pleasure-giving an organization. Peterborough, in all other things is content with being in the lead, and it should not be behindhand in its encouragement of the divine art of music.

A Big Deal.

$250,000 Paid for a Half Interest in the Trade Mark of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the United States.

The brilliant reputation achieved by Dr. William's Pink Pills in Canada has not only extended to the United States, but has led to an important business transaction. One of the best known American proprietary medicine houses, the head of which is the president of a leading National Bank in New York State, has recently purchased a half interest in the trade mark of the Dr. Williams Medicine Co. for the United States only for which we understand, the consideration was $250,000. This sale is probably the first instance in which an American institution has purchased an interest in a Canadian remedy, and offers the very best proof of the sterling merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as we may be sure that the American capitalists, before venturing so large a sum in the half interest of the trade mark, fully investigated and verified the claims made for the remedy. It is a tribute, too, to Canadian medical science, which has brought to perfection this invaluable medicine.

Wedding Bells.

Nuptials of Mr. Robert Johnston and Miss Ellen Hickey.

On Wednesday morning, June 1st, Mr. Robert Johnston and Miss Ellen Hickey, only daughter of Mr. Dennis Hickey, were united to bear one another's joys and sorrows, in the holy bonds of matrimony, by Rev. Father Scollard, of St. Peter's Cathedral. Mr. W. Fitzgerald, cousin of the bride, acted as best man, and Miss Morrisey performed the duties of bridesmaid. Both ladies looked charming in their faultless attire. The bride received numerous and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which she was held by her acquaintances.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS

from Court No. 225, C.O.F., of which Mr. Johnston is a member:

To R. JOHNSTON, Esq.,

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—We the officers and members of St. Peter's Court, No. 225, Catholic order of Foresters, desire to give expression to and tender to you our most hearty congratulations on the occasion of your marriage. Your many acts of kindness, prompt attendance at our meetings, and the great interest you have taken in advancing our devoted Court have endeared you to us all. Hence we cannot allow this joyous opportunity to pass without some slight recognition of your many good qualities. We therfore kindly ask you to accept this address and clock as a token of our esteem and your merit. We all join in expressing a hope that you and your amiable partner through life may be long spared to enjoy and listen to the tick of time from this clock; as you look upon it from day to day and in the evening of your lives, may it remind you of your many friends and well wishers in St. Peter's Court, No. 225, C.O.F. In conclusion we most earnestly pray that God, the High Chief Ranger, and the great Ruler of the universe, may continue to guide and sustain you both in true Christianity, and that when life's race is run, may we all meet in that high court above.

Signed on behalf of the court,

JNO. P. SHEVLIN,
JOS. A. HURLEY,
J. J. LYNCH,
Committee.

Bro. Johnston was somewhat taken by surprise but in a few brief words wished the committee to convey to the court, on behalf of himself and Mrs. Johnston, their ever grateful thanks and that they would forever cherish in their memory this act of kindness and unmerited reward.

ROAD MAKING.

A Terrible Magazine Indictment Against U. S. Farmers.

A writer in a prominent magazine shows that the shameful condition of country highways has the most far-reaching effects in retarding the progress of the farmer in prosperity and civilization. The all-powerful mud keeps his children home when they should be at school; it stalls his horses and wears out them and the waggon and himself in his attempts to get produce to the railroad. A rain storm just before an election may prevent an expression of the popular will. This writer, in computing the losses by bad roads, says in the United States there are something like 16,000,000 horses and mules above the age of two years upon farms, and at the moderate estimate of 25 cents, as the cost of feed and care of each of these animals, the aggregate expense of maintaining them is about $4,000,000 a day. If by a similarly moderate estimate we say that they are kept in the stable in a condition of enforced idleness, by the deep mud of spring and fall, for a period averaging twenty days in each year, the loss in the market alone will amount to $80,000,000 per year, a sum sufficient to build 16,000 miles of excellent highway. It is bad enough in Canada, but according to the writer, in the spring of 1891, half loaded farm waggons were stalled in deep mud almost in the shadow of the magnificent twenty-million capital at Albany (New York), while, as if to show to what ridiculous ends the perversity of the human mind will sometimes lead us, the good farmers of Albany county are actually sending telegrams to the Legislature, asking for the adjournment of a committee-hearing, because the roads of Albany county were too bad to permit them to get to town to oppose a bill which promised to make them better. It is a fact that farmers, as a class, oppose spending any money or being taxed to keep up good roads, and it is the same in Canada as in the United States. The making of first-class country roads is solely in the hands of the farmers themselves, and they are almost wholly for the benefit of the farmer, and, yet, what a poor showing there is. But first-class roads in the end would be absolutely cheaper, since after the first expense of building the cost of maintenance would be much smaller than with the dirt enormities, now the fashion. Improved roads will never be obtained in this country until the old statute labor system be abolished and the work let by contract under systematic and competent supervision. The fine road systems of England, France, and other European countries are maintained at a cost of but three per cent. on the first outlay. Why couldn't this be done in this country?

Following Bad Examples!

Fatal Errors—Canadians are Victims.

We are following fast in the footsteps of our American cousins; we are imitating some of their bad points, we are encouraging many of their dangerous and seductive habits. Americans, as a rule, live fast—they are continually in a state of hurry, bustle and excitement—they overwork brain and body too much, with the view of becoming rich fast. They seem to lose sight of the old-established English way of steady plodding and application, with its advantages of health and long life.

Our Canadian people—merchants, professional men, mechanics, and others—are bringing upon themselves sickness, trouble and misery by adopting American customs and habits. In proportion to our population we have in Canada as many sufferers from nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, dyspepsia, indigestion and impure blood, as there are in the neighboring republic, and the number of such is increasing.

This alarming state of things in Canada is populating our insane asylums and private retreats, and is causing intense sorrow in many homes. Insanity, pure and simple, results from overwork of brain and body, and broken down nervous condition.

Thousands, however, have had reason to thank Dr. Phelps, the eminent physician who discovered the great healing, building and strengthening remedy for these helpless victims. Dr. Phelps gave to the world Paine's Celery Compound which has rescued thousands from a fearful and terrible death.

The king of nerve remedies has done its work so well that physicians use it daily in their practice and recommend it with pleasure.

Never before have grateful people testified with such pleasure, as Canadians do, in favor of Paine's Celery Compound. Ministers of the Gospel, professional and business men speak of it and recommend it to their friends. It goes forward with its work at a marvellous rate, curing those who have failed with other medicines.

To the nervous, sleepless, broken-down and dyspeptic it is invaluable, as it means new life and strength. Try its efficacy, suffering mortal, and then you will have reason to rejoice.

There are many indications of worms, but Dr. Low's Worm Syrup meets them in every case successfully. dw

ARUMS.

As a rule, plants are grown either for their flowers or the fruits they bear, but the principal beauty of the Arum is in the leaf, or the several leaves, which with the stem constitute the whole plant. The flower, which appears and dies away before the stem commences to grow, is indeed curious, but less pleasing in appearance and fragrance. But the plant itself is one of the most interesting objects the sub-tropical garden affords in summer. A. dracunculus, illustrated herewith, one of the most common species in cultivation, has a beautifully spotted stem, with large, pedate leaves, which form an umbrella-shaped head that is an object of beauty the entire summer.

ARUM DRACUNCULUS.

Amorphophallus Rivieri, a closely-allied species, is a still more remarkable plant of the same general character; it is larger in every respect, and the stem more beautifully mottled. Its purple spadix or flower is the reverse of beautiful, and so fetid that with many persons it would produce headache. The tubers of all the Arums should be kept dry and warm during winter, and planted out in spring, in the same manner as the gladiolus. The Indian turnip or Jack-in-the-pulpit, belongs to this family, and when well cultivated is a beautiful plant. Our woods furnish several varieties of this, all of which are vastly improved by garden culture. They delight in the shade that will not do for most flowering plants. The flowers are succeeded by bunches of scarlet fruit that remain on the entire summer. These are perfectly hardy and need but little attention after planting.

Diseases of the Plum.

The black fungus or knot, as a rule, attacks plum trees growing in grass and neglected. The best preventive for knot is good clean culture, and the best remedy, cutting away of the diseased parts as soon as discovered. As for the curculio there is only one safe plan. Just as soon as this pest begins its operations spread a large sheet prepared for the purpose around each tree and jar it so as to shake down all fruits that have been stung, as well as all the curculios. Both insects and stung fruits can then be destroyed. This work must be performed daily to insure a full crop. Let those who desire to grow fine crops of plums try this jarring system; if followed up rigidly they will be successful.

Summer Blooming Bulbous Plants.

Numbered with showy garden favorites are the summer blooming bulbous plants, such as Oxalis, valuable for edging walks and beds; Milla Bifiora, or Mexican Star, which blooms freely in sunny positions, and the Madeira and cinnamon vines, each bearing fragrant flowers. Tigridias, or Peacock flower, is a handsome member of bulbous plants, and flowers freely when the bulbs are placed in a warm, sunny spot.

After the Grip

And after typhoid fever, diptheria, pneumonia, or other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed to restore the strength and vigor so much desired, and to expel all poison from the blood. It has had wonderful success in many such cases.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to it natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South—Mississippi, written in April, 1890, just after the Grippe had visited that country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since." PETER J. BRIALS, Jr., Cayuga, Hines Co., Miss.

The Man Who Burnt His Flags at Metz

PARIS, June 3.—The death of General de Laveaucoupet at Saint Sulpice-le-Dunois, in the Creuse, is announced. The general took part in all the campaigns of the Empire, distinguishing himself especially in the last, and particularly at Spikeren. He was with Bazaine at Metz, and when the evil day of surrender came he refused to deliver up his flags, but made a bonfire of them instead. He was aged 83.

Work Basket For a Farmhouse Chamber.

The sketch shows a common farm basket covered with a long-gathered strip of ordinary sacking, which has first received a powdering of small daisy-shaped figures worked in long stitch with green Germantown; each figure requires only seven or eight stitches, each stitch being about half an inch long. The upper edge of the cover is gathered and tacked inside the basket just below the top; then the lower edge is gathered in under the bottom, tacked to position and finished with a round bottom piece of the sacking which is tacked to the basket, through and through. A strip of green striped carpet binding is bound about the basket to confine the fullness, and the handles are covered with the same. Such a basket is handy when one has much wood to carry upstairs, and it saves all litter from dropping bits of wood and moss; it also saves unloading, for the basket looks quite as well to remain in the chamber as the old-time wood box, and will hold as much as many of them did. If necessary, when spring comes, and every basket on the place is called for, the covering may be removed in a very few moments, but an old basket, past service, if neatly repaired, will often do just as well as a better one.

ORNAMENTAL WOOD BASKET.

The Best Soils for Onions.

Onions will grow on any soil from muck meadows to a clay loam. At certain places they are grown on very gravelly soil. A muck soil should have gravel or sand added to it to make a first-class onion bed, otherwise the onions will be coarse, soft and spongy, besides having a bad color and being poor keepers. Two hundred loads of gritty, gravelly soil to the acre is a good addition. Muck is rich in nitrogen, so commercial fertilizers, ashes or bone should be applied rather than barnyard manure. Very heavy manuring makes the crop better and earlier. On ordinary onion soils 10 cords of barnyard manure, or its equivalent, makes a good dressing. Farmers near large cities use 20 cords of stable manure. In Bermuda they use part sea manure and commercial fertilizer. The three weeds most injurious are twitch-grass, purslane and chickweed. The first should be taken out every spring before planting. The second produces many seeds and every piece cut in weeding will take root. Chickweed is the worst and a bed badly infested had better be given up. The ground should be put in the finest possible condition before planting. A good implement to use is a gang plow followed by the pulverizer and the harrow. The beds should be kept free of weeds and be weeded six or seven times during the season. A hen with a brood of chickens will take care of the maggots in an acre or an acre and a half.

No Nitrogen Needed.

If you will apply to the land which produces a large amount of straw, but shrunken kernels of wheat, about 200 lbs. of pure bone phosphate—at least, it should not have any nitrogen in it—in conjunction with a dressing of lime from 10 to 20 bushels per acre, it will have a beneficial effect. The lime may be spread broadcast, after it is slaked, upon the surface some time before the wheat is drilled in. You might also try one strip of land with phosphates without lime. In any case, do not use any fertilizers which contain nitrogen, and I think I would not put much farm manure on this wheat land. You had better put this on the corn ground as early in the winter or fall as possible and use commercial fertilizers containing no nitrogen almost exclusively for the wheat.—Prof. I. P. Roberts, Cornell (N.Y.) Exp. Station.

The First Calf.

Heifers, if they have been well kept, will make better cows when coming in at two years old. If they have not been so grown and so kept it is better to give them a rest a year after having the first calf. Do not allow the heifer calves to become too fleshy. Keep them growing, even if you have to feed them on skim milk.

OVER 400 DEAD.

Clanging of a Bell Borne From the Bohemian Miners' Living Tomb.

PRAGUE, June 3.—Over 100 bodies have been brought to the surface of the silver mine. No one was rescued alive yesterday. The faces of the victims are scorched and blackened and show traces of a desperate struggle for life.

At the mouth of the pit to-day one woman fell dead and another went mad.

The rescuers were encouraged in their work this morning by hearing a bell in an adjoining pit, where a number of miners are known to be imprisoned. The rescuers continue to work fearlessly, though at great risk, and it is not thought the miners will be reached in time.

The Dead Number 420.

LONDON, June 3.—The Chronicle's Vienna despatch says that 130 bodies have been taken out of Birkenberg mine and that 280 are still missing.

A Terrible Experience.

VIENNA, June 3.—The Agram-Brod mail train, which was wrecked by a tornado near the Nowska Station last night, had a fearful experience. The train started from Nowska at 3.30 p.m., the wind blowing with the fury of a hurricane at the time. Suddenly complete darkness fell upon the train. The engineer and firemen were so terrified that they crouched upon the floor of the engine. A terrific gust of wind lifted the engine, weighing 70 tons, and five carriages and threw them over an embankment into a cutting, which was full of water. The station at Nowska was at once converted into a hospital for the injured—32 in number.

The Mauritius Hurricane.

LONDON, June 3.—Further news has been received of the effects of the dreadful hurricane in the Mauritius. The burial of the 600 persons killed in Port Luis alone occupied six days. Many of the victims were buried in common graves at the expense of the Government. Out of the 62 churches and chapels in Port Luis 50 were devastated. The remaining 12 were badly damaged. Boats were stranded during the hurricane at places 500 feet from the sea. It was with the greatest difficulty that the lightship was prevented from sinking. The vessel has now been patched up, fitted with a temporary light and is stationed at her old place.

Insubordination in the Donegal Militia.

DUBLIN, June 3.—Great excitement prevailed last night in Lifford, county Donegal, arising from the insubordination shown by the 5th Battalion, Royal Inniskillen Fusiliers, Donegal Militia.

The men, who are performing a series of manœuvres, were ordered to pass the night in tents which had been erected in a field. These orders the troops refused to obey, declaring the ground was wet, rendering it dangerous to sleep under canvas and that the tents were uninhabitable.

The officers were highly disconcerted by the refusal of the men to obey orders, but they had no way to enforce obedience. They argued with the men and made threats, but the militiamen remained firm in their determination not to occupy the tents. The officers were finally obliged to billet the men in houses in Lifford. The facts in the case will be laid before the military authorities.

Sequel to an Elopement.

LONDON, June 3.—Raoul La Couture and Marie Lodermann, who were stopping at an hotel in York-road, Lambeth, were found dead yesterday in the room occupied by them. They had killed themselves with revolvers.

An investigation of the facts showed that they had eloped from France and, it is alleged, both of the suicides were highly connected in that country.

Beheaded on the Spot.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The North China Daily News says: To hasten the overthrow of the Tajenshan rebels Admiral Shea will take four men-of-war with him to the scene of action and co-operate with the land forces.

Seventy rebels, who were captured, were decapitated on the spot. Two leaders will be conveyed to the Capital City, where they will be sentenced to die a lingering death.

A Dancer Burned to Death.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., June 3.—Polly Macdonald, a dancing girl and soubret in Lester & Williams' company, under engagement at the Westminster-street Theatre, accidentally set her night-dress on fire with a match in her room at the City Hotel and died a few hours later.

Cut Her Head Off With a Looking Glass.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., June 3.—Mrs. Belle Talbot, aged 57, who came to the asylum here from Battle Creek, May 21, was found dead in her room this morning. Despite precautions taken, she broke a looking glass and cut her head half off with one of the pieces.

Falling off a Log.

"As easy as falling off a log," is an old saying. When it was first uttered, nobody knows. Nothing is easier, unless it is the taking of a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These act like magic. No griping or cramping follows, as is the case with the old-fashioned pills. The relief that follows resembles the action of Nature in her happiest moods; the impulse given to the dormant liver is of the most salutary kind, and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Sick headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the skin and eyeballs are speedily remedied by the Pellets.

MONTREAL, Aug. 4th, 1892.

My head was literally full of Dandruff and nothing applied gave visible relief until using Ayer's Hair Vigor, a few applications of which has so thoroughly removed the dandruff there is not a grain to be found.

Cure for A Cough, Pain and Headache

It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents per package.

ELECTIONS THIS MONTH.

THE MORIBUND ENGLISH PARLIAMENT.

Members Rush to Their Constituents—Dissolution Expected This Month—How the Fight Looks—The Queen Will Return to Windsor.

LONDON, June 4.—The last session of the present Parliament virtually closed yesterday.

The desire of a section of the cabinet, strongly supported by Mr. Chamberlain and the Unionist party, to pass the Irish Local Government Bill so that they would be able to go before the constituencies with their Irish pledges redeemed, has failed to prevail against electoral exigencies.

It is doubtful if there is life enough left in Parliament to dispose of the small remaining business. The members are all hurrying to their constituents, and not intending to return.

The Radicals have decided not to oppose the passing of the estimates, which will be voted in the desultory fashion in which millions are usually voted at the fag end of the session.

The Queen will curtail her stay at Balmoral and will return to Windsor June 22, in order to avoid the necessity of the Ministers traveling to Scotland to tender their resignations.

The formalities of the dissolution of Parliament are certain to occur before June 25, and the electoral contest has already commenced.

Mr. Chamberlain has gone to Birmingham and will not return during the present Parliament. The bulk of Irish members have left Westminster for Ireland. Election agents are busy arranging meetings throughout the kingdom

The date of the opening of Mr. Gladstone's Midlothian campaign is not yet fixed. His idea of addressing small meetings from village to village has been abandoned, and instead he will address three great meetings, one at Edinburgh, another at West Calder and the third at Dalkeith. Mr. Gladstone is in capital health, but a great speech nowadays leaves him almost prostrate. In his letter to the Trades Council appointing June 16 for an interview, Mr. Gladstone for the first time complains of deafness and he asks that the deputation sent to him be few in number. His eyesight, too, seems to be failing, for recently he had to ask Mr. Morley to read a document for him in Parliament. Mr. Gladstone's face-about on the 8-hours' question, bidding Mr. Schnadhorst to catch the labor vote, and his swallowing whole the progressive program of the London County Council, receive scathing treatment in the columns of the Conservative papers, which regard this as a new instance of his characteristic opportunism.

The Liberal election funds, already swollen by large contributions from wealthy Liberals desirous of political promotion, have received an unexpected accession in the labor interest. The contribution comes indirectly from Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the American iron manufacturer, who thus puts to a practical test his principle that wealth should be used for the benefit of the people. A difficulty, however, has arisen as to which of the genuine labor candidates are entitled to benefits.

The McCarthyites are now completing their election program. The whole of the 85 sitting members will seek re-election and all of the Parnellite seats will be contested by McCarthyites.

The amount of the American donations to the election fund will largely determine the fate of the Parnellites. General Collins, the American delegate, has left London for Dublin with T. P. O'Connor to endeavor to promote a reconciliation between the two Irish factions, but it is not likely he will succeed.

Prizefight and the Law.

LONDON, June 4.—In the House of Commons Friday Sir Wilfrid Lawson (Radical), member for the Cockermouth Division of Cumberland, asked whether proceedings would be taken against the partakers in and abettors of the Jackson-Slavin fight here Monday night. The Right Hon. Henry Matthews, the Home Secretary, replied that he had recommended the Public Prosecutor to see if there was any material that would justify the prosecution of the manager of the fight, who had previously been cautioned that he would be held responsible for any breach of the law. The police did not recommend the prosecution of the principals, as the prosecution instituted against Slavin and McAuliffe after their fight had ended in an acquittal. The prosecution, Mr. Matthews added, did not depend upon whether gloves had been used or not, as a prize fight might be fought with gloves. The contest had not occurred with the cognisance of the police.

BEATS THE SEA SERPENT.

Here Is a Floating Island That Discounts the Snake Story.

TACOMA, Wash., June 4.—A strip of land nearly half a mile long and an eighth of a mile wide is said to be floating in the Pacific Ocean off the point of Cape Flattery. Capt. George W. Terrey of the fishing schooner Alice, which arrived at Seattle yesterday, reports that two weeks ago his vessel was almost run down by a floating island. The captain and crew went on it and made a partial exploration. There was a hut and a small farm on the island and other signs of habitation, although there was no signs of life.

PIONEER WOMAN R. PORTER.

The Death in Jersey City of Miss Midly Morgan.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Miss Midly Morgan, the well-known cattle market reporter of the New York Times, died this morning in Jersey City. She was a prominent figure in metropolitan newspaper circles and was the pioneer woman reporter of the United States.

Miss Maud (popularly known as "Midy") Morgan was born in County Cork, Ireland, in 1828 and was in her 64th year. She was the eldest daughter of a large family. Her father, Anthony Morgan, was a landed proprietor and comparatively wealthy. When quite young Miss Morgan was one of the most fearless horsewomen in the south of Ireland and scarcely ever missed a hunt.

In 1865 her father died. While he left the bulk of his money to his eldest son, the daughters were given but a small portion each.

Miss Morgan went to Rome with her youngest sister, Jane, who sought an opportunity to study art. While there Miss Morgan was introduced to Victor Emmanuel, who commissioned her to go to Ireland and purchase a number of saddle horses. In recognition of this service Victor Emmanuel presented her with a diamond star and gold watch which bore his monogram.

In May 1869, Miss Morgan came to America, bringing letters of introduction to Henry J. Raymond of The New York Times, and Horace Greeley of The Tribune. The former died before Miss Morgan reached this city and the letter to Mr. Greely bore no fruit. Subsequently Miss Morgan wrote letters from the Saratoga race track for The World. Then she became connected with The Times, with which newspaper she was connected until her death. Meanwhile she wrote articles for The Horseman and Breeders' Gazette. The cause of Miss Morgan's death was dropsy. She lived at Metuchem, N.J.

The Greatest Rainstorm of Many Years.

LONDON, Ont., June 4.—The heaviest rainstorm seen in this city since the memorable July flood in 1883 has been experienced during the last 15 or 20 hours. For the 12 hours ending at noon yesterday the quantity of water which had fallen was 3.45 inches, the greatest in so short a period for very many years.

Looking Ahead 10 Years.

WHITBY, June 4.—The town council have decided to deed the old town hall property to the Lowell Evaporating Works, on condition that they employ 65 hands every year for 10 years, and annually pay out $3000 in wages, except when there is a failure in the fruit crop.

A SCROFULOUS BOY

Running Sores Covered His Body and Head. Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using all freely. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS, MAY 9, 1885. 612 E. Clay St., Bloomington, Ill.

My grandson remains perfectly well. No signs of scrofula and no sores. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS, FEB. 7, 1890. Bloomington, Ill.

You will see something that will open your eyes; such fine work was never seen on Ready-Made Clothing in Peterborough before. You who have never bought Made-Up Clothing before, come and compare our goods with what you have been getting; try them on and see for yourself how they fit.

Now here is just a few prices that one would be inclined to doubt, but ask for them and see for yourself. Stop and think, a Pair Good Tweed Pants for 95c. These we always have in stock. A TERRIBLE CALAMITY

THE FLOOD AND FIRE CARRY OFF HUNDREDS.

Lightning Fires the Oil Refineries—Great Destruction—The Johnstown Horror Recalled—Fearful Scenes—Three Hundred and Fifty Persons Perish.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 6.—The oil region was visited by an awful disaster of flood and fire yesterday early. A cloud burst at Titusville and another at Oil City. Both cities are inundated and the people have fled to the hills, men, women and children being on the housetops praying to be rescued. To add to the horror several refineries were struck by lightning and property not destroyed by water is being consumed by fire. At 3 o'clock yesterday half the city of Titusville is reported in flames, and at Oil City it is feared the entire town is doomed to destruction.

Telegraphic communication is badly interrupted. The Western Union wires are down, and for a time Oil City was completely cut off.

At Titusville four of the largest refineries are on fire and a stretch of at least one-half mile in length is now burning.

The flood appears to have been general throughout Northern Pennsylvania. A telegram from Meadville says the damage there cannot be now estimated. The gorge which formed in a deep ravine north of the town, forming a lake three acres and 20 feet deep, broke and swept half the city. The New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railway east of Meadville is damaged beyond estimate. The loss of property is frightful.

At 4.30 this afternoon a telegram was received from Titusville placing the loss of life at 150 in that town.

The water came up suddenly from Oil Creek, and formed a lake nearly half a mile in width and about two-thirds of a mile in length.

A short time after the Acme Oil Refinery was struck by lightning, and fire added terror to the scene. The flames spread with rapidity, and soon five blocks were laid waste. A half-dozen of the largest oil refineries were burned. The only buildings said to be now standing in the district mentioned are the Titusville Iron Works and the depot of the W.N.Y. and P.R.R.

A large number of bodies have been recovered and the work is still going on.

PITTSBURG, June 6.—A despatch from Oil City says the loss of life there will probably reach 200.

Emlenton, another oil town, between Oil City and Titusville, is also reported to have suffered greatly from the flood.

OIL CITY.—Later.—A terrific explosion rent the air and the entire creek and for hundreds of feet on each side seemed one mass of flame and smoke. The panic-stricken crowd shrieked madly in their efforts to escape. Women and children were trampled under foot.

About half a mile northward from the postoffice, on the Western New York and Pennsylvania Railroad, a tank filled with gasoline was standing on a siding. Some young men noticed that the tank was leaking and seeing a shifting engine approach ran up the side of the hill, where they turned, and looking down as the engine passed witnessed a fearful sight. A mass of flame shot a hundred feet into the air. The engineer and fireman were seen jumping from the cab and it is supposed they were burned to death or killed by the force of the explosion.

The flames swept madly over the entire upper part of the city. Men, women and children who were moving from their houses were caught by the deadly flames, and if not burned to death were drowned in the raging torrent.

For miles up the creek on both sides everything is in ruins and hundreds of families have been rendered homeless.

About 100 dwellings have been destroyed by fire.

The loss of property is estimated at $1,000,000.

At Titusville the loss is estimated at $1,500,000; Oil City, $1,500,000; Corry, $60,000; Meadville, $150,000, and surrounding country probably a million more.

Found Little Willie's Bones.

REGINA, June 6.—Some Indians a few days ago while hunting for buffalo bones near Marieton came across the bones of little Willie McMillan, who was lost three years ago in the winter while attempting to walk from his home to a neighbor's, eight miles away. The snow was deep on the ground and the poor little fellow lost the road, walked past his destination and was never seen again, notwithstanding that a most careful search of the surrounding country was made by the people there, assisted by the Mounted Police. Curry McMillan, uncle of the boy, had his feet frozen during the search, having walked across Long Lake with his brother James, Willie's father, in the vain search for the wanderer. The bones were discovered about three miles north of the house which Willie had started out to reach, so that he had walked 11 miles through the deep snow before lying down to die. The bones will be gathered up and given a Christian burial.

A Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The business failures during the week number for the United States 175 and for Canada 32, or a total of 207, as compared with the totals of 198 last week and 192 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 224, representing 211 failures in the United States and 13 in Canada.

A Boy Murderer.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Robert Alden Fales, the boy who murdered Thomas Hayden, the messenger and bookkeeper for Potter's street hat factory, was yesterday found guilty of the murder in the first degree.

McElwaine Was Acquitted.

UTICA, June 6.—The trial of E. K. McElwaine, ex-Deputy United States Marshal, indicted for aiding and abetting the escape of Thomas O'Brien, the prince of bunco steerers, ended to-night in a verdict of acquittal.

Acquitted On the Capital Charge.

DETROIT, June 6.—Mrs. Charles N. Ayers has been acquitted of the charge of murdering her husband on the night of March 4 last.

Reinforcements From England.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 6.—The Beaver Line steamer Lake Superior, from England, arrived early Saturday with 200 soldiers to fill vacancies in the military corps in this garrison.

JAS. G. BLAINE RESIGNS.

AND HIS RESIGNATION IS AT ONCE ACCEPTED.

It Is Equal to Announcing His Candidature for the Presidency—Great Excitement in the States—Latest Despatches—Rumors as to the Cause.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary Blaine's resignation was taken to the White House by his private secretary, Mr. Dent, who placed it in the hands of President Harrison. This was a little before 1 o'clock and 15 minutes after it was written. Soon after reading it the President descended to the east room and held his usual Saturday afternoon reception to the public. There were about 200 people present, not one of whom, as he shook the President's hands, could have told from his cool and collected manner that anything unusual had happened. Indeed, an official of the mansion said the President really seemed to be in better spirits than usual, and made felicitous replies to the greetings of some of his visitors. The reception over, the President returned to his library and addressed a letter to Mr. Blaine accepting his resignation. This was given to Private Secretary Halford with instructions that it be delivered at once, and Mr. Halford thereupon took it over to Mr. Blaine's house and placed it in his hands. Thus the whole transaction did not consume more than an hour's time. The following is the correspondence:

Blaine's Note to Harrison.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.
WASHINGTON, June 4, 1892.

To the President:

I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the 5th of March, 1889. The condition of public business in the Department of State justifies me in requesting that my resignation may be accepted immediately.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES G. BLAINE.

The President's Reply.

EXECUTIVE MANSION.
WASHINGTON, June 4, 1892.

To the Secretary of State:

Your letter of this date tendering your resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States has been received. The terms in which you state your desire are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted.

Very respectfully yours,
BENJAMIN HARRISON.

Hon. James G. Blaine.

Secretary Blaine Explains the Reasons for His Resignation.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—In an interview with Secretary Blaine late this afternoon he said that his resignation was not occasioned by the near approach of the Republican nominating convention and would not affect his action in the slightest. The question of his candidacy or the acceptance of a proffered nomination did not influence him in deciding to retire from the State Department. His only object was to obtain personal freedom and peace. Mr. Blaine then proceeded to indicate the reasons which had resulted in his retirement. He felt supersensitive because of the constant discussion of his name in connection with the presidential nomination. To this was added the annoyance of sensational rumors constantly placed in circulation as to his being secretly working to accomplish Mr Harrison's defeat and at the same time encouraging his friends to pursue a similar course. Without any reference to the truthfulness, plausibility or practicability of these reports they apparently had a perceptible effect upon the President's personal friends and most intimate admirers. The feeling daily grew upon Mr. Blaine that he was regarded with suspicion and distrust, that the friends of the administration practically considered him guilty of duplicity; and even his associates in the cabinet seemed to look upon him with silent reproach. There also seemed a constant desire to humiliate him by urging the necessity for further public declaration that he was not a candidate for the Republican nomination. These thoughts and suspicions constantly preyed upon Mr. Blaine's mind until the worry and annoyance became intolerable, and as a consequence he determined to resign. Having fully decided upon that course he desired a speedy settlement of the whole matter in order that he might enjoy the rest as a private citizen which was denied him as a part and parcel of the administration.

Our Commissioners Incommoded.

One effect of Mr. Blaine's resignation is the sudden termination of the conference between himself and Gen. Foster on one side and the British Minister and Canadian Commissioners Foster and Bowell on the other, looking to a readjustment of the differences between the United States and Canada growing out of the discriminating tolls imposed on American vessels passing through the Welland and St. Lawrence Canals. This conference began at the State Department yesterday and was resumed this morning. To-day's session, however, did not last more than an hour, and it is understood was brought to an abrupt termination by Mr. Blaine's unexpected statement that it was useless to continue the present negotiations, for the reason that he was about to sever his official relations with the Government.

It is said further that this announcement was a great surprise to the other members of the conference. At any rate the deliberations were brought to a sudden close and the Canadian Commissioners were passengers on the afternoon train bound for the Dominion capital. Persons who saw them at their hotel prior to their departure say they were in a very unpleasant frame of mind and were quite free in stating that they had not been fairly treated by the administration.

Mr. Blaine's letter to the President is dated June 4, 1892, 12.45 p.m. It therefore must have been written almost directly after the British Minister and his confrere had left Mr. Blaine's office, which had been used as the council chamber, and it was but 15 minutes later when he instructed his private secretary to take it over to the White House. The secretary remained at the department until 1.15 o'clock arranging some private papers. While he was doing this one of the messengers laid an official document before him for his signature. He told him to take it away, remarking quietly; "I am no longer Secretary of State." It is said that this was the first intimation he had given his official associates of his resignation.

Immediately upon receipt of the President's letter of acceptance Mr. Blaine furnished a copy of the correspondence to the Associated Press and it was forthwith telegraphed to the whole country and cabled to Europe.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 6.—The Harrison men issued the following mild-tempered declaration as an official announcement:

"A conference was held this afternoon at the headquarters of the Indiana delegation, nearly every state and territory being represented. After a frank and full discussion, the unanimous opinion was that Mr. Blaine's resignation as Secretary of State would not affect the canvass being made for President Harrison in any way. His friends believe that the President is the strongest and best man of the Republican party to nominate at this time; that if any Republican is elected it will be upon the strength of President Harrison's administration. It was the further opinion, after a careful canvass, that President Harrison would be re-nominated on the first ballot, as against any and all opposition candidates, there being a sufficient number of votes secured to give him the nomination. There is no wavering on the part of his friends, but, on the contrary, only confirming the previously pervasive made that Harrison is the choice of his party and the people."

THE WORK OF A FIEND.

Attempt to Wreck a Grand Trunk Express Train—Providential Escape.

CLINTON, Ont., June [illegible].—A diabolical attempt was made last night to wreck the regular G.T.R. express train due here at 9.30 p.m., which was heavily loaded with passengers for Clinton and Goderich. The scene of this inhuman attempt was two miles east of Clinton on the Buffalo and Lake Huron branch of the G.T.R. There is at the spot a bridge known as the second bridge, which spans the Mayfield River, and fully 30 feet above it, and this is the same bridge where loss of life was providentially averted a few years ago, caused by sinkage of the bridge during the time of a flood. The place is a very lonely one, no houses or help being within half a mile, and is approached by descending a heavy grade. Providentially for all, Mr. T. Palterman, who was walking from Seaforth to his home in Clinton, had chosen the track rather than the muddy roads and was thus able to avert the accident. When approaching the bridge he heard sounds of falling stones and the removal of timbers, which aroused his suspicion. When stooping down he perceived to his horror that obstructions were being placed on the bridge, and knowing that the express would soon be rushing down upon it, he rushed to the top of the grade, shouting with all his force, and waving his lantern frantically to and fro succeeded in attracting the attention of Engineer Green on the now approaching train. The engineer brought his train to a standstill. Conductor Ausebrooks, after hearing Palterman's amazing statements, gave orders to proceed carefully, and found when nearing the bridge that powerful obstructions had been placed on and near it.

On examination it was found that heavy beams about 12 feet long had been carefully wedged uprightly between the sleepers of the bridge, which were supported by huge stones, any of which would have been the immediate destruction of the train. At intervals of a few yards were similar obstructions, which showed the perpetrators were fully bent on carrying out their devilish plans. The obstructions being removed the train hastened to Clinton station, where the affrighted passengers were safely landed, feeling thankful that their lives had been spared through the action of Palterman. The event has caused considerable excitement and intense indignation has been expressed on all sides. The perpetrators have not yet been arrested.

An Anti-Home Rule Amendment.

OTTAWA, June 6.—The Anti-Home Rulers will introduce an amendment to Mr. Devlin's Irish Home Rule resolution. Their amendment will declare that the question is not one of Canadian concern and express regret that the Canadian Parliament previously passed a resolution on this subject.

Chit-Chat of the Capital.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 6.—The Cabinet Council had its usual Saturday meeting at which it is understood only routine business was transacted.

No information for publication has been received from Hon. Mackenzie Bowell and Hon. Mr. Foster since their departure for Washington, although they are understood to have been in telegraphic communication with the Premier since their arrival in Washington.

The annual rifle match between the Senate and House of Commons will take place at the Rideau range on Tuesday. The Senate team will be: Hon. Mr. Boulton captain, and Hon. Messrs. McKay, Boldue, Poirier, Power and Reid; the Commons team will be picked from the following: Lieutenant-Colonel Tyrwitt, captain; Major Hughes, Major Marshall, Captain Casey, Dr. Sproule, Mr. Brodeur, Dr Grandbois, Mr. Higgins and Mr. White (Cardwell). Last year the Senate won, and the Commons are just longing for revenge.

THE HEAVY DOWNPOUR

Crops Endangered for a Second Time This Year.

TUSCUMBIA, Mo., June 6.—The Osage River is within three inches of the high water mark of two weeks ago. All bottom lands are submerged and farmers are greatly discouraged, having just finished replanting from the other overflow. It is thought the river will rise 12 or 15 inches more.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 6.—The June rise is on its way here and with the Missouri rising from the local influences there is now no hope that the present flood can get out of the way before the melted snows of the mountains reach here. The river now stands at 33.7 feet and is rising one foot per day.

River men say the coming flood will reach close to the stage of 1844, the greatest known, and perhaps will surpass it.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 5.—This region was visited by a terrible rain storm last night and the water in the creeks and river is overflowing the banks and causing much damage, especially in the Mahoney Valley above Girardville and Shenandoah.

INDIANS GIVE A PASSION PLAY.

Barbaric Scenes Drawing Tears from a Vast Audience.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 6.—The Passion Play, in nine tableaux, was given by Indians at St. Mary's Mission, near here, yesterday under the auspices of the Roman Catholic priest. Two thousand and five hundred of the savages went frantic over the affair.

Christ's crucifixion was represented under the greatest excitement. Weird chants and most realistic acting made the scene one never to be forgotten.

In the last and most horrible scene a wax image of the Christ was affixed to a high cross, and was made to drip blood from the pierced parts of the body. The audience was greatly affected.

INSANE OVER THE ACCIDENT.

The Mother's Frenzy Directed at the Electric Cars.

TRENTON, June 6.—The coroner's jury in the case of little Ethel Barker, who was killed by an electric car, brought in a verdict that the killing was accidental and exonerating the motor man, conductor and railroad company. Mrs. Barker, the mother of the little girl, has become insane over the accident and it is feared she will have to be taken to the asylum. She has become angry at the cars and in her frenzy tries to get at them and to do injury to those running them.

Harvey.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Harvey Council met at the town hall on Wednesday June 1st. The members were all present. Minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The members took the prescribed oath and formed a Court of Revision. Appeal No. 1—Henry Grundy's assessment was confirmed. No. 2—Wm. Bick's assessment changed as requested. No. 3—Patrick Lavery's assessment lowered $150. On motion the roll as revised was passed, and the members resumed in council, taking up road lists and general business. A petition was read from 50 ratepayers requesting the council to pass a bylaw exempting the owners of dogs in Harvey from taxation therefor. A petition, largely signed, was read, requesting the council to open the concession line road, between lots 5 and 6, concession 18, to the water's edge. The clerk was instructed to notify W. H. Clarton to remove all the obstructions placed by him upon said road allowance. Orders on treasurer in favor of S. Purser, $4 40 for supplies for Abott, and James Richmond, $45 for assessing the township for 1892. A bylaw was passed exempting the owners of dogs from taxation in Harvey. A new road beat was formed on the concession line road between the 12th and 13th concessions, opposite lots 21, 22 and 23, in said concessions, G. Reid, overseer. The clerk was instructed to notify James Humphrey and George Brumwell to remove their fences encroaching upon the highway respectively. Appropriation for roads and bridges, North Harvey and South Harvey, $100 each, east Harvey, $60. The council adjourned to meet at the clerk's residence, July 4th next.

The Terrible Death Rate Amongst Infants.

How to Lower the Great Mortality.

The terrible rate which prevails in all large centres of population in Canada amongst babies is to be deplored. In the large majority of cases it is due to sheer ignorance on the part of mothers. Babies who do not receive pure and healthy breast milk, and who are being fed with cow's milk of a suspicious character, or with poorly prepared artificial foods, are generally the victims of death. It is no wonder that nine out of every ten that die, are lost owing to imperfect and dangerous dieting.

When the mother is unable to nurse her babe, her great aim should be to find a substitute for nature's food—a diet that possesses the same nourishing qualities as mother's milk.

Canadian, English and American physicians of the highest standing have agreed that Lactated Food is the surest and nearest approach to mother's milk, and the only safe food that can be regularly fed to the child at all seasons.

It is important to note that Lactated Food is a sure preventive of cholera infantum and dysentery, which yearly send so many babies to the grave. To use Lactated Food, especially in the heat of summer, is wisdom on the mother's part. The baby is always in good health, grows fast and sleeps well. This is what all true and loving mothers desire and look for.

The people of this Province are to be congratulated on the decision of Judge Dugas to the effect that the legislation of the Federal Parliament, making lotteries illegal, is constitutional. The judgment will, in all probability, close all the private lotteries, against many of which notices have been brought, and which will now be tried. Whether the decision will hold against the Provincial Lottery, which has been constituted by special provincial legislation, is a question legal authorities seem to doubt, because the Quebec Act has been allowed by the Dominion Government.

Judge Dugas expressly declares in his judgment that he does not take in consideration any other point which might incidentally be raised in favor of a lottery established in virtue of a Provincial act, so that the Provincial Lottery is not directly affected by the decision.—The Montreal Daily Witness, Wednesday, June 1st, 1892.

Kinmount Assignments.

For some years R. J. Mills & Bro. were dealers in lumber, etc. But they thought they could do better by keeping store as well, so they opened a general store under the style of E. R. Mills & Co., E. E. being the wife of R. J. It is now found that this department of their trade was not a success, and Mrs. Mills has now made an assignment to Richard Tew of Toronto.

Another failure in the same place is that of R. S. Werld, general storekeeper. Formerly a clerk in Kinmount, he no doubt thought that he could improve his position. But evidently he has now realized that his ambition to become a merchant was misplaced. At any rate he assigns this week to J. B Laing, of Toronto.—Monetary Times.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES,

Conducted in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church by Rev. Dr. Jackson, of Galt.

The Fifty-Seventh Anniversary of the Old Church and the Seventh Anniversary of the New—Two Masterly Discourses Delivered to Large Audiences—Also the First Year's Anniversary of Rev. A. S. MacWilliams, B.A., as Pastor.

Anniversary services were held in St. Andrew's church yesterday. Large congregations were present both in the morning and in the evening. Rev. Dr. Jackson, of Galt, preached at both services and delivered two well-thought-out and carefully arranged discourses which were listened to with undivided attention. The occasion was the fifty-seventh anniversary of the old St. Andrew's church and the seventh anniversary of the new. By a happy coincidence yesterday was also the first anniversary of Rev. Mr. MacWilliams' induction as pastor, and during the last twelve months, since his ministrations began, the church has increased largely in point of its membership, as well as in moral and spiritual growth and welfare. In the morning Rev. Dr. Jackson selected as his text the words:

"WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST?"

found in St. Matthew, 22nd chapter and 42nd verse. After expressing his uneasiness in occupying a strange pulpit, where his coming had been announced and talked about for some days, and where a certain amount of the curious element was mixed up with the event's approached, the preacher said he hoped God would give us grace to turn our eyes towards the Master. He did not ask the question as Christ asked it of the ancient Pharisees. He wished to ask it as Jesus Christ would ask it if he stood in the pulpit. The first thought that came to him was the plausible sophistry of to-day which places doctrine second to conduct—that it is not so much what a man believes or thinks, if only he lives aright. That was the shallowest kind of sophistry where silly minds were led captive by the devil. He did not care what a man's conduct was if he could only get hold of his belief. The Bible said "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." Some modern thinkers or rather talkers think they have got beyond this truth. The words of the Bible were a sure infallible train of thought. Each seed when planted brought forth its own specific species and its own particular excellence. There is nothing outside of us but what was once divined within by human or divine agencies. The Bible was in the mind of the divine author before it came out in object or visibility. Another sophism was that there were thoughts and beliefs which had no influence on a man's mind. It is known to day that there is no such thing as an action of a mortal being that is not good or bad. Every action, every thought, tends to lift us upwards or drag us downwards. Many young people are led to entertain thoughts and beliefs which have a complete disseverance from conduct and character. There is no such a thing possible in indulging in a thought, word or belief without its making us truer, nobler and better or else undermining our spiritual character and precipitating ruin. On all hands we see what we term men of prominence, standing head and shoulders above their fellow men in business, whose lives are devoted to the church, who are workers in the Sabbath school and who may-hap have occupied the sacred desk itself, falling under the snare of some great temptation, which they are unable to withstand, but who has been rightly trained, who has walked with Christ and kept his mind, his belief and his principles pure. There must in these cases of men falling so suddenly under a great temptation be something undermining the moral character of the man, there must be a slow preparation for it, allowing impure thought to enter the mind, its destroys character, undermines morality and corrupts virtue, and by and by a trying time comes and the man falls under the crash. Some argue there is no influence to be seen in entertaining these thoughts, that there is no harm. Some of the most potent influences in the world to-day are beyond our observations. There are unseen forces at work not only in the spiritual world but in the physical and social world, which are to-day making or unmaking moral manhood, dignity and purity. Moral character turns upon the thoughts we think and the emotions we entertain the same as a door turns upon its hinges. So too our moral standard and spiritual excellence depend upon our thoughts of Christ. Christ was the life of the world and the success of man. Some people lived under the delusion that a man could live a good life and yet be without Christ. You might as well speak of an honest thief. Christ was a man of our bone and flesh. We have been honoured as sons of God. Christ dwelt within us. The more we loved God and obeyed his commands, the more and made spiritually like unto Him. Our heart should be fashioned like the infinite heart of the Crucified One, and our lives should be one of love, devotion, service and self-sacrifice for Him, who had laid down His life that we all might be saved. According as we thought of Christ would we have our mind renewed, and as we thought more and more of Him we should be guided by His infinite love and mercy, following in His footsteps, ever ready and willing to obey His call, and do His divine will.

ARE WE TRANSFORMED,

In the evening another large congregation was present completely filling every part of the edifice. Rev. Dr. Jackson preached an able sermon from Jude 1st chapter and 23rd verse: "And other save with fear, pulling them out of the fire."

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called constiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect excess in eating or drinking, etc It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carnes, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." dw

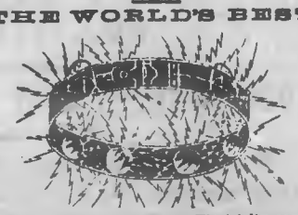
ELECTRIC BELT

And Attachments.

HEAD OFFICE—103 Yonge St., Toronto

THE WORLD'S BEST.



ALL diseases curable by Electricity can be treated at home by the Dorenwend Appliance. The Dorenwend is the only legitimate Electric Belt made which fulfils the requirements of Electro-medical science. It is a complete BODY BATTERY. It has an independent Battery, which generates a mild, continuous current of Electricity (without shocks) and can be regulated to suit the strongest man or the weakest child. It is a CURRENT of QUANTITY not merely a sensation current, and the quantity current is the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, LIVER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, WEAK BACK, SPINAL DISEASE, HEART DISEASE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, PARALYSIS, VERTIGO, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, IMPOTENCE, SEXUAL DECLINE and all diseases of the Nervous and Muscular Systems.

Remember that the DORENWEND BELT is the very latest invention in this line, and was invented by a competent electrician, and ranks as the best in the world; we defy anyone to bring proof to the contrary.

Do not class this Belt with the humbug combinations of leather and metal with which the country is being flooded. If you wish to experiment with cheap articles, buy THEM but, if you want to procure a genuine Electric Belt and one that will be a benefit get a Dorenwend Belt.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PRICES WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy NOW, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

A Wonderful Invention.

Our attention has been called to a remarkable instrument for examining and pointing out every defect and disease of the eye sight. It is the only instrument of the kind in existence, and being protected by patents, can be used only by the inventor, Dr. Jobb (formerly of New York), the renowned optical specialist. He is enabled with this instrument and his his many years of study and practice, to fit spectacles skillfully, when all others fail. Cures pain in and around the eye, headache, neuralgia, inflammation and granulation of the lids, lashes falling out and straightens cross-eye and squint without an operation. "Seeing is believing." Read his testimonials. Owing to the pressure of appointments he will be compelled to remain till Saturday, June 11th, at W. R. Grant-ren's drug store. The only optician in Canada making the grinding and fitting of complicated lenses for the eye a specialty. Consultation and examination free. 24132 1w

It was decided to organize a deputation of prominent citizens of town and county to wait upon the Dominion Government to grant financial assistance to the line. In case the meeting can be arranged a deputation will go to Ottawa on Wednesday to have an interview with the Government the following day. This line will start from some point on Lake Ontario, and will go by way of Peterborough, Lakefield, Young's Point and Bobcaygeon, the most direct route to Sault Ste. Marie.

Harnessing the Wind.

The traveller coming into town along the boundary road between Smith and North Monaghan cannot fail to notice the fine windmill on its 50 ft. tower on the premises of Mr. E. B. Edwards. The mill is one of the "Queen" pattern built by Mr. George McWilliams, of town. It works perfectly, as all his mills do, driving a force pump that supplies water from a well to a large tank. The mill is self regulating; when the tank is filled the mill is thrown out of gear and the pump stops. This is the most approved plan and is giving satisfaction wherever put in. The 10 ft. wheel of the mill when thrown up to meet the wind will develop 1½ h. p., sufficient for all purposes in view. There is an automatic drinking trough in the yard that is an ingenious affair, the water being supplied as fast as consumed by the stock and no faster. This trough is also from the factory of Mr. McWilliams. d w

A Peterborough Author.

Peterborough Collegiate Institute, in the matter of equipment and teaching staff, now stands among the first of such educational institutions. And it is gratifying that at the head of the latter is a gentleman, who is not only a first-rate principal, but a most successful author as well. Mr. Fessenden's "High School Physics" is the only authorized work of its class in Ontario, and it is also in use in the other Provinces of the Dominion, and has been adopted for use in New South Wales — on the other side of the world. Mr. Fessenden not only supplies such works for Canada, but has written a similar work, "The Elements of Physics," for use in the public schools of England — endowed schools — such as the historic Rugby, Harrow, Eton, etc. The book is just issued and the author has kindly placed a copy upon our table. The publishers are the great publishing house of MacMillan & Co., London, England. When such a house takes the sole responsibility of publishing such an important work as Fessenden's Element of Physics, it is a guarantee of itself of the intrinsic excellence of the work, and is a compliment of which a Canadian author may be proud. This work is the initial one of a series—it will be followed in due time by others treating on light, electricity, sound. The book is beautifully printed and profusely and handsomely illustrated, and altogether constitutes a handsome instalment of the repayment of the literary debt British mind has placed upon the colonies.

Is it Infanticide?

The Body of a Young Baby Found Dead Within the Corner of King and Park Streets Saturday Night.

As Mr. Robert Myddleton and Mr. J. R. Donnet were proceeding up King street shortly after seven o'clock on Saturday night, they noticed a rather peculiar looking parcel lying on the grass, midway between the sidewalk and the fence, about one hundred feet west of Park street. One of them also noticed the parcel while passing that spot at an early hour in the morning, but passed by without remark, thinking that it was a bundle of rubbish or something of that nature done up by small boys to fool passers-by. Seeing it again in the evening their curiosity was aroused and Mr. Myddleton proceeded to open the parcel when

A GHASTLY SIGHT MET HIS EYES.

After unfolding and undoing all the material there was disclosed the form of a new born baby evidently only a day or two old, cold in death. A telephone message was at once sent to the police station and Chief Ross notified. He in turn notified Coroner Dr. Bell and Undertaker D. Bellegham was sent for. They at once proceeded to the place where the body of the dead infant was found. The body was removed to Mr. Bellegham's undertaking establishment. Wrapped around the child was a couple of old cloths and a newspaper, and over this was an old black cloud. The child had not from appearances been born over forty-eight hours, and whether it was still-born and its parent had taken this means to avoid the expenses of a decent burial, or whether it was a case of deliberate infanticide, remains yet to be revealed.

THERE IS NO CLUE

whatever as to who the mother of the child is. The coroner ordered an inquest to be held this afternoon at the police station to enquire into the death of the child. Chief of Police Ross had subpoenaed a jury this morning.

The Coroner's Inquest.

The inquest into the cause of death of the deceased infant girl, unnamed, was opened at the police court at 2 o'clock before Dr. Bell, coroner. The following are the names of the jurymen; who were duly empanelled by the coroner. Mr. F. B. Knowles was elected foreman.

John McGarrity,	Thos. Brady,
Wm. Cardwell,	Wm. Cardwell,
R. N. Reddy,	F. B. Knowles,
M. R. Kidd,	Jas. McCombe,
Mark Lockington,	J. W. Dixsee,
E. A. Turner,	R. J. Kidd,
Ed. Brown,	Felix Brownscombe,
Wm. Aldridge,	E. Poulan.

The coroner said he intended to inflict a fine of $1 upon all absent jurymen. He had stood enough of it in the past, jurymen being summoned and not being present. He had the power to fine them $4 if he cared, and consequently a fine was imposed upon eight absent jurymen.

The jurymen then retired to the undertaking establishment of D. Bellegham to view the body of the deceased before proceeding with the inquest.

The evidence of Messrs. Donnel and Myddleton was taken, and the jury, after ordering a post mortem to be made, resumed the hearing of evidence.

Both Dr. King and Dr. Bell, from a superficial examination of the body, could find no evidence to account for death. Dr. King performs the post mortem examination.

The Port Hope Trinity College School Defeat Peterborough by 8 Wickets.

The return cricket match was played on Saturday afternoon between the Trinity College School team and the Peterborough cricket club. The match resulted in a defeat for the home team by eight wickets. The grounds were very wet and soft, and part of the game was played in a pouring rain. The crease was in good condition, but was soon knocked to pieces. The college boys winning the toss, went to bat first, and after a few overs were played, the ball got heavy, which made things look very bad for the home team. For Port Hope, Andrews, Rogers and coach Fell did the best batting, Andrews scoring 37 runs in good style, only giving one life. Fell did excellent bowling, taking 5 wickets for 17 runs. Rogers stood next, taking 4 wickets for 40 runs. The home team were not "in it" in the first innings, but made a better show in the second. Oldfield and Ray did not get their eye in until this innings. Ray bowled well taking 5 wickets at the cost of 14 runs in the two innings. He also made 27 runs, batting very well. In this innings the pro took 2 wickets for no runs, also scoring 16 runs off the bat. Morgan made an elegant catch off Oldfield's bowling. Following are the scores and the bowling analysis.

Two Able Expositions

Of Divine Truth Given Yesterday in the Murray Street Baptist Church in the Interests of Ministerial Education by Rev. Prof. Trotter, M.A., of McMaster Hall, Toronto.

Ministerial educational sermons were preached in the Murray street Baptist church Sunday by Rev. Prof. Trotter, M.A. of McMaster Hall, Toronto. Large congregations were present. In the morning the reverend gentleman preached an able discourse from Galatians 5th chapter and 16th verse: "This I say then, walk in the spirit and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh." The speaker during his sermon explained the aims and purposes of the ministerial educational fund.

In the evening he spoke from the words of St. John 1st chapter and the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 14th verses. The words in these verses were the most important in the Bible. The four Gospels stood four square, each having sides fronting to each side of a spiritual world as if it existed when the Gospels were written. John had to do with representation of our Lord. The Book was the last written Book in the Bible, being written in the year 97 at Ephesus. It was written to fix the Divine nature of our Lord. In the beginning was the word. The word in this clause did not mean the Scripture itself, as many were prone to think, but was a

which John several times used in that connection. It was a word borrowed from the philosophy of the time. The speaker said his text exhibited a new relation in which Christ stood. It exhibited a number of other things. There was a time when the world was not, but there was never a time when Christ was not. All we know was that in the beginning was the Word. The second was Christ's relation to God, exhibiting this in a threefold stratum, "The Word was God, the Word was with God, and the same was in the beginning with God." We have presented in these three statements the origin of God. We are brought face to face with the doctrine of the Trinity, a doctrine profound beyond all human reason and comprehension. Men have tried to solve this doctrine by nature but all have failed. We must receive it on the authoritative statements of it. Could any one be so foolish as to say I will not believe except what I can understand, simply because this mystery happens not to be revealed in the book of nature, but in the book of revelation? The doctrine of the Trinity could not be verified by experience, such as the new birth and other doctrines could. It was too profound, too deep. The next point was Christ's relation to God to the creation. All things were made by Him and without Him was not anything made that was made. In the universe of God there was something besides matter, there was

THAT SUBTLER EXISTENCE CALLED MIND,

It had its source in Christ. All animal and vegetable life came from Him. We live by a moral and independent life. It all flowed from Him. He was its source, its origin, supply and life. Christ was the light of the world. He created all matter outside of heaven. Life in man was different to what it was in a tree or in a brute. In man life awakened the light of reason, godliness and consciousness. God created this life, reason and consciousness in man. He wanted to take this completed conception of Christ and place it before them, the one side human and the other side divine. He was bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh, and we should hold Christ manifest in the flesh before us. It was only thus that we could see the authority of Christ's words. This unique authority can only invest people in the authority that they ought to have. Who is this Christ of God? He is the everlasting Word, come into the bosom of the Father. We could not understand the efficacy of Christ's sacrifice. He, the whole personality of the world, human and divine, died on the cross. It's only when we have a conception of Christ's word that we could understand the efficacy of His words, of His power, and to know Christ, and that the Word was made flesh.

Wedding Bells.

The Nuptials of Mr. Blanchard and Miss Maria Cummings.

A happy event occurred in St. Michael's Cathedral, Belleville, at the early hour of 7 30 o'clock this morning. Mr. Alex. Blanchard, F.C.A., one of the principals of the Peterborough Business College, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Maria Cummings, youngest daughter of Mr. Jas. Cummings, Belleville. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Farrelly, in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The handsome bride was charmingly attired in a cream silk costume and was supported by Miss Minnie Dolan. Mr. Fabian Blanchard, of the Toronto Medical school, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. The numerous, costly and handsome presents which the bride received testified amply to the high esteem in which she was held. After the ceremony the newly married couple adjourned to the residence of the bride's father where an enticing wedding breakfast was served in splendid style. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard will take up their residence in Peterborough, on the corner of Park and Weller streets. The EXAMINER joins heartily with their many friends in wishing them a long life of connubial bliss.

Baseball Match.

The Lindsay Collegiate Institute Defeat the Peterborough Collegiate Institute in a Seven Innings Game by a Score of 25 to 2.

Owing to the very heavy shower of rain on Saturday morning the Collegiate Institute Baseball club, not being able to muster its full force at the railway station, were forced to remain until the next train which went via Millbrook. They were transferred to one of the company's lightning express Pullman's. After stopping at every village and flag station along the road, they reached their destination safely about 2 o'clock. On the way up to Collegiate Institute they met with a very enthusiastic reception from the omnigreat small boys, who ornamented were enjoying a game of ball on the market square. After remaining a short time at the Institute, play was called.

The Lindsay club were, with one or two exceptions, a far heavier team than their opponents. Throughout the game they played well, in some instances doing especially good fielding. From the first innings they exhibited a decided advantage over the Peterborough's which they maintained until the end. For Lindsay, Perry and McKenzie scored the greatest number of runs. Those obtained for Peterborough were scored by Heap and Orde.

The batteries were Mills and Sinclair, and Heap, (Grubbe, 3 innings) and Cowan. The members of the home team played well, but still there was room for improvement. Another thing that told against the Peterboroughs was the absence of some of the club's best players.

The game was rather one-sided from start to finish, resulting in an easy victory for Lindsay, the score being 25 to 2. Mr. B. H. Brooke acted as umpire, and gave universal satisfaction by his unprejudiced decisions.

The personnel of the Lindsay club and all the members of the Institute with whom our club came in contact distinguished themselves by their courteous attention to the visitors. More gentlemanly young fellows it would be hard to find indeed, and it is with interest that our club looks forward to the return match, to renew acquaintanceship and—reverse the score.

Church Chimes.

Rev. Wm. Tucker, of Centreton, preached two interesting and instructive discourses in the Charlotte street Methodist church Sunday.

The singing at St. Andrew's church yesterday was especially fine. In the morning Misses Harris and Hesbeck, Messrs. Jones and Ketchum sang with good effect "Jesus Lover of my Soul." In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Miss Harris and Mr. Ketchum rendered a fine quartette.

Rev. E. Cragg, of Hiawatha, conducted the services both morning and evening in the George street Methodist church yesterday.

Rev. Prof. Symonds conducted the services in St. Luke's church yesterday. In the morning a communion service was held which was well attended. Rev. Mr. Symonds delivered special Whitsun Day discourses. In the morning he spoke on the fruit of the spirit, and in the evening on the church of the living Christ.

AGRICULTURE

Barns that were constructed years ago always had a ladder permanently affixed to them so that the top of the beam could be readily reached from the floor. But the ladder was in the middle of the barn, and now that the modern threshing machine is used it is always in the way. In many improved barns of today there is no permanent ladder, and access to and from the mow is had by a portable ladder that is liable to, and does, often slip, endangering the life and limbs of the workman. A permanent ladder may be securely spiked to the beam, floor and rafters at about the point indicated in Fig. 1. Thus located, it does not interfere with the use of the horse hayfork, and is not in the way at threshing time; b indicates the location of the ladder in the center of the barn. Make the side and rungs of good sound material, so they will easily support the weight of a heavy man. In Fig. 2 is shown the method of making a ladder. The bottom, top and middle rung of a ladder should have their ends fitted into a mortise and secured by a wooden pin, as shown at e. This prevents spreading and consequent loosening of the rungs. A very strong ladder is made with square rungs, the ends fitted into the side of uprights, seen at h. They should fit closely and be firmly nailed in position. Many prefer this to the common ladder. Every farmer should be equipped with a portable ladder long enough to reach the roof of the highest building on the premises. Keep it under shelter and convenient for instant use in case of fire. The best place for this is under the projecting eaves of some low building, where it is readily accessible, protected against rain and sun, and not in the way of men or teams.

THE TRAVELLING DAIRY.

The Successful Experiment to be Continued This Year.

As the travelling dairy experiment proved so successful last year, and of so much practical value, Hon. Mr. Dryden decided to ask the Legislature for an increased appropriation so that it could be continued for another year. This appropriation was voted during the last session in March. It was, however, deemed expedient to make a few changes in the proposed work. First, owing to the hundreds of applications sent in, it was found necessary to fit out two separate deputations, one to go east, the other west. Second, owing to the difficult, of arranging meetings satisfactorily, so that proper connections could be made on the trains, and also owing to the expense incurred in reaching those points which the railway did not touch, it was thought advisable to purchase two teams and waggons, so that the different counties could be covered, thoroughly independent of trains or livery rigs. With these changes the arrangements are practically the same as last year. The meetings are arranged by President Mills and the secretaries of the different farmers' institutes.

It is thought by some that the influence of the travelling dairy, or dairies, as they now are, will hinder the advancement of creameries and cheese factories in the Province, but this is not so. It was not Mr. Dryden's intention when he first started the dairy that it should in any way compete with the creameries or cheese factories. He desired rather that they should be fostered and upheld by every means possible, for to develop a large and profitable export trade in dairy products he realized that the factory system would have to be adopted in butter making, as it has been adopted to a large extent in cheese making.

One great object of this travelling dairy is to aid butter makers to lessen the cost of production and to improve the quality of the product made in private dairies, the output of which finds its way to the local markets, and, being very often of poor quality, does not satisfy the palate or the consumer, and hence brings a poor price. These private dairies are often so located that they are not within reach of factories, or at any rate a certain amount of butter is made, and will be made until winter dairing is adopted before the factory opens and after it closes. But this is not the only object; perhaps a greater one is to improve the general condition of the dairy cow in the Province, to discuss the breeds of dairy cattle, the best way to breed and feed so as to produce the most profitable herd, and to talk over dairy farming in all its different phases. In this way the interests of the factories will be increased, not diminished.

Already President Mills has arranged to hold from fifteen to twenty five meetings in the various counties of Ontario. Five meetings will be held per week. One deputation is in charge of W. J. Palmer, B.S.A. Mr. Palmer, a graduate of the agricultural college, assisted Prof. Dean last year in his travelling dairy work. He has already been attending the famous dairy school at Madison, Wisconsin, and visiting some of the large "centrifugal" creameries in Illinois. He is assisted by Mr. John McTavish, of Seaforth, who has had a long experience in practical butter making. During the last three years he has managed the Londesboro' creamery, owned by Mr. John Hannah, of Seaforth. This deputation started from Gananoque, in Leeds County, on May 2nd, with a team and complete outfit. When the meetings in one county are concluded another will be taken.

The second deputation is in charge of T. B. Linfield, B. S. A. Mr. Linfield is also a graduate of the agricultural college. He attended the Madison Dairy School during the latter part of the winter, and has lately been working in Prof. Robertson's experimental creamery near Woodstock. He is assisted by Mr. James Hume, of Ayton, a butter maker who has had a large experience in practical work. This deputation started in Wentworth County with a similar outfit. Their first meeting was held at Freelton on Wednesday, May 4th.

With the exception of the teams and waggons the outfit is nearly similar to that of last year, consisting of an eight-bottle Babcock milk tester, a No. 3 Daisy churn, a lever butter worker, cream can, milk setting cans, thermometers and other utensils necessary to make good butter. About three gallons of cream and some ice will be required at each meeting. These are arranged far ahead, and are supplied by some person near at hand, who, after the meeting is over, gets the butter in return for his cream.

There is no excuse now for the farmer who keeps in the old rut of 30 or 40 years ago. The man who is alive and eager to grasp every opportunity to gain knowledge bearing on agriculture, even supposing he may know all about his business, is the man who will get on. But not only the farmer but the storekeeper, the cheese factory man, the creamery man, all are interested and all should attend.

For all forms of female weaknesses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing specific. Mr. Thomas Strachan, Postmaster, Robaillon, writes: My daughter has been ill for the last four years with female weakness, and had been attended by four of the best doctors in our section. She began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and two boxes has done her vastly more good than all the medicines she took from those doctors. Sold by all dealers. dw

More cases of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, can be cured in less time, with less medicine, and for less money, by using Carter's Little Liver Pills than by any other means. dw

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower have cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

DEAR SIRS,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery, I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery.

C. C. HAUN,
Welland P.O.

MESSRS. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health.

Yours truly,
THOMAS CUMINES,
Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.

OCULAR DEMONSTRATION.

Visit of A Michigan Minister to Haunts of Vice in New York.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Another minister has followed in the footsteps of Dr. Parkhurst, and has familiarized himself with the lower life in the city which he preaches. He is the Rev. Dr D. O. Ball, of Petdosky, Mich. Dr. Ball expressed his desire to a member of the detective force, and the latter offered a couple of guides, who piloted Dr. Ball around portions of the city. The minister was taken completely by surprise, and after his "pilgrimage" he said: "What I have seen will make me hesitate before asking for contributions to carry the Gospel of Christ to the heathen in foreign lands. There is a work to be done here, and I make this prediction: Before another year rolls by the example of Dr. Parkhurst will be adopted by hundreds of ministers who are to-day sleeping on guard."

A BIG HAUL.

Successful Hold-Up on the Santa Fe Road in Kansas.

WICHITA, KAS., June 4.—The southbound Santa Fe passenger train which left Wichita at 5.45 p.m. yesterday was held up at 9.45 o'clock by masked robbers at the stock yards, near the station of Red Rock, in the Cherokee strip. The train was flagged and the engineer and fireman were taken prisoners. The robbers then entered the express car, broke open the safe and secured its contents. The amount obtained is said to be $30,000. The passengers were not molested. Deputy United States Marshal Madsen at Guthrie will organize a posse and start in pursuit of the robber gang; the number of which is unknown. The money obtained is thought to have been intended for Indian payments.

DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Moses Taylor Shoots a Neighbor and Then Kills His Own Wife.

BENTON, Ill., June 4.—Moses Taylor, a wealthy young farmer of this place, Friday shot Fletcher Foster through the head, fatally injuring him. Then crazed by his own terrible action he sprang upon the dying man and beat out his brains. He then started towards his home, threatening to visit a like punishment upon his wife. She saw him coming and ran screaming to the home of Foster. Her husband pursued her into the dwelling and struck her with the butt of the pistol, knocking her down.

Again becoming frantic, he beat her as he had beaten Foster, never ceasing until she was dead. He then returned to his home, and, just inside his own gate, blew out his brains.

A New Combine.

ALBANY, N.Y., June 4.—The long-talked-of combination of wall paper manufacturers became an accomplished fact this afternoon, when a certificate was filed with the Secretary of State incorporating the National Wall Paper Company, with a capital of $14,000,000, divided into $100 shares.

Suicide or Hoax.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., June 4.—On the little wooden bridge leading to Goat Island a hat and coat were found this morning. In a pocket of the coat was a slip of paper on which was written the following: "June 1—Good-bye. (Signed) Jack." The coat, which was spotted with paint, was made by McLaren & Co., St. Catharines, Ont.

A Jilted Girl's Revenge.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 4.—Last night Peter McCrech, an employe of the electric street car company, was shot and fatally injured by Maggie Sullivan, a domestic, to whom he was engaged before marrying his present wife. The murderess then shot herself, dying instantly.

Flowering Trees.

Following is a list of flowering trees that are named in the order in which they bloom and embrace some of the choicest specimens: Amelanchier, double flowering cherry, Judas tree, Chinese magnolia, double flowering almond, Cornus Florida, horse chestnut, flowering crab, bird cherry, mountain ash, thorn, laburnum, white fringe, locust, Virgilia, Lutea, catalpa, linden, American chestnut.

Cheese kept in a cool larder or cellar with a cloth wrung out of clean cold water constantly upon it will never have mites on it; or if it has, this soon destroys them, and also greatly improves the cheese, keeping it always moist.

All for a Barley Corn.

LaFontaine, in one of his fables, tells of a barn yard fowl that scratched up a gem, while scratching for corn. Not knowing its value he gave it to a stone cutter for a barley corn. Thus do many person throw away the priceless pearl of health. A "trifling cough" is neglected, then comes consumption, then death. Stay the cough or look out for the coffin. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure catarrh in the head, bronchial or throat affections, or lung-scrofula (commonly known as consumption of the lungs). If taken in time and given a fair trial, it will cure, or the money paid for it will be refunded. It is the only GUARANTEED. A

ENRICH the blood by the use of Milburn's Beef, Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. dw

Increase Your Weight.

If you are losing flesh and blood, commence at once taking Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which is far ahead of all other preparations of the kind in existence. By taking Miller's Emulsion people gain from 5 to 10 pounds by the time the first bottle is consumed. It is the greatest blessing of the century to all in delicate health, or who suffer with coughs, colds or ailments that tend to consumption. Remember, Miller's Emulsion contains all the constituents found in wheat. It is used in the hospitals and asylums of the country. In big bottles, 50c. and $1 at Peterborough drug stores. dw have passed by and we can now consider the best protection against disease. There is unrestricted reciprocity of sentiment between all people in Canada in pronouncing Burdock Blood Bitters the very best blood purifier, dyspepsia and headache remedy, and general tonic renovating medicine before the public. dw

The Eye-Electrons

The Branded La Grippe.

Following this scourge of humanity come a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. Price 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. dw

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 25, 1890.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. P. ATWELL.

BOSTON'S NEWEST STAR.

Personal and Literary Traits of Louise Imogene Guiney, the Poet.

Some years ago an unknown poet published this sonnet:

"POETS MY MASTER CHAUCER."

Somewhere, sometime, I walked a field wherein
The daisies held high festival in white,
Thinking: Alas! he with a young delight
Among them once his golden web did spin:
He who made half-divine an older inn,
The Talard: sung of Aridne bright,
And penned of Sarra's king at fall of night.
"Where now I leave, there will I fresh begin."
Then straightway heard a merry laughter rise
From one that wrote, thrown on a daisy bed,
Who, seeing the twofold wonder in mine eyes,
Spake, lifting up his fair and reverend head:
"Child! this is the earth-completing paradise,
And thou, that strayest here, art centuries dead."

LOUISE IMOGENE GUINEY.

Three years ago the writer of it stood on the paths that often heard the footfall of Edward III.'s dilectus valettus noster, and the writer hereof saw a young woman with faint apple bloom on dimpled cheeks, a lithe figure that would run with the hounds, but only to shield the hare, that might train a bow, but only to daunt a satyr; a figure so like the forest and its freedom, so like a stream and its speed that Greece itself, not Chaucer's England, might seem her country and a later than Sappho's her time.

She was neither Greek nor English, but a Boston girl, Louise Imogene Guiney, of medium height, girlish form, firm and well made for bicycle, oar or horse, and of all of them she is fond; a face on which a firm chin and shapely soft neck make pedestal for an individuality whose commingled strength, joyousness and affection are all expressed therein; a face full of healthfulness, of imagination, of eagerness for things high and loathing of things low; the eyes alert and sanguine, the mouth ready for merriment or reserve; the brows well filled and thoughtful and the aspect altogether one of intellectual force and emotional intensity.

Louise Imogene Guiney was born in Boston in 1861. Her father, General Guiney, cannot be forgotten by this generation in New England, for a truer sword than his was not drawn in the civil war nor manlier heart stilled after its close. The only child of his hearth shared in childhood the camp of her father for a time, and something like the drum-beat may be heard in her first songs. Yet the first were songs of the sea. For she comes of a race that dwells by the sea, all forlorn for the most part. Happily for her, its smiles, not its tears, are paramount in her soul. Educated well in public and private schools, her literary gifts were manifested early, and the traits that make to-day her essential characteristics are discernible in her earliest verse. There is scarcely an issue of a first-class magazine now that does not contain contribution by her, and in ten years she has risen modestly, steadfastly, until to-day it may be questioned whether New England boasts another genius pure as hers—idyllic, refined, at once natural and spiritual, as wholesome as the song of birds in a brook wood, as sweet as the brook itself in its early spring passion; and with these qualities a certain something which from the beginning of literature and art the world has called style without being able to tell why.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE HARBOR.

North from the beautiful islands,
North from the headlands and highlands,
The long sea wall,
The white ships flee with the swallow;
The day beams follow and follow,
Glitter and fall.

The brown ruddy children that fear not
Lean over the quay and they hear not Warnings of lips;
For their hearts go a-sailing, a-sailing,
Out from the wharves and the wailing
After the ships.

On to the central Atlantic,
Where passionate, hurrying frantic
Elements meet;
To the play and the calm and commotion
Of the treacherous, glorious ocean,
Cruel and sweet.

In the hearts of the children forever
She fashions their growing endeavor,
The pitiless sea;
Their sires in her caverns she slayeth,
The spirits that love her she slayeth,
And laughs in her glee.

Woe, woe, for the old fascination!
The women make deep lamentation
In starts and in slips;
Here always is hope unavailing,
Here always the dreamers are sailing
After the ships!

THE GENERAL ELECTION.

MR. GLADSTONE IS QUITE CONFIDENT.

We Are the Liberal-Unionists—Irish Faction Fight—Davitt Has a Bandaged Head—The Czar Will Visit the German Emperor.

Mr. G. W. Smalley telegraphs to The New York Tribune:

LONDON, June 6.—That the dissolution of this long Parliament will take place at the end of June is now an article of faith with both parties. The understanding between Mr. Balfour and Mr. Gladstone is for business purposes pretty complete. There is for parliamentary purposes a truce.

The business, if not the general turmoil of a general election, has already begun. Agents and candidates are hard at work. The Whitsuntide holidays will be no holidays to men whose political fortunes are at issue. Speculations on the result, estimates, conjectures, calculations and calculated exaggerations abound. Temperament has as much to do with the matter as figures. Mr. Gladstone, more sanguine in age than other men in youth, believes his majority in the next House will be a majority of three figures. Gladstonian journalists of more prosaic minds, with good information and of careful judgment, give him 50. The Gladstonian whips, who by no means wear their hearts on their sleeves, are understood to expect about 30. The Tory whips, equally discreet, are not thought to dissent very widely from this estimate. The authorities among those Liberal-Unionists whose political extinction has been daily predicted for years are more confident than their Tory colleagues.

Mr. Gladstone is expected to come back with a majority, but a majority too small to enable him to carry Home Rule, or such Home Rule as he wishes; too small to overawe the House of Lords; too small for permanent power. He will be obliged to produce some more of the Home Rule bill; he will fail to carry it, and another general election will follow at no very long interval. Such is the theory of prudent politicians, but to put it into the form of a positive prophecy is what no prudent person will do.

The war of words at Dublin has been followed by blows at Navan. An anti-Parnellite convention was held there on Wednesday to turn out the present Parnellite members for County Meath. It was the first note of hostilities between the two Nationalist wings. Mr. Davitt, Mr. O'Brien and other leading anti-Parnellites led the invasion. The priests took charge of the proceedings and the convention met in the Roman Catholic Seminary. Mr. Davitt was nominated against Mr. Pierce Mahony, the present member, and an unknown man against his colleague, Mr. Sheil. Then a public meeting was held. The crowd collected outside and when the delegates emerged from the seminary they were mobbed. Mud, not rhetorical only, but real mud, was thrown; then stones. Mr. Davitt was hit, as at Waterford, and blood flowed. Others were hit. Mr. Davitt was looked after by a doctor and departed for Dublin with a bandaged head. Cries followed him, "We will have no traitors here."

One of the wishes of the German Emperor is about to be gratified. The Czar has promised to pay him a visit at Kiel to last half an hour. To Berlin he will not go, but this rather casual and extremely brief meeting is supposed to be sufficient to soothe the long-suffering sensibilities of the German Emperor. There is a rumor of reconciliation between the Emperor and Prince Bismarck, improbable in itself and resting on no ascertained authority.

Guards Murdered By Spanish Convicts.

MADRID, June 6.—In the Valencia prison yesterday 274 convicts revolted as they were being marched to dinner. They killed three of the guards and put the rest to flight. The military was marched into the prison and the convicts were taken back to their quarters. The ringleaders will be shot.

Recovering the Buried Miners.

PRAGUE, June 6.—It will be two weeks before all the bodies are recovered from the Birkenberg silver mine and fully one month before the shafts can be reconstructed and the mine made safe by replacing the timbers that have been destroyed by the fire.

In the meantime the miners will be without work and much suffering will result. The fragments of bodies that were intact so far as the limbs are concerned were greatly swollen.

Only 13 of the rescued survived, while 27 of the men who volunteered for the work of rescue were killed by falling timbers or suffocated. The loss is 1,800,000 florins.

Alsatian Peasants Emigrating.

LONDON, June 6.—An enormous increase is reported in emigration from upper Alsace to America, caused, it is said, by the operation of the Zollverein treaty.

An Insult to Britain.

CARTAGENA, Colombia, June 6.—News has been received here from La Guayra that President Palacio has seized the breakwater works at that place belonging to British corporations.

An Immense Failure.

PARIS, June 6.—It is stated to-day that the liabilities of Blondel & Garnier, the bankers, whose failure was announced yesterday, amount to 6,000,000 francs. Their assets are absolutely nothing. The failure especially affects Lyons and Geneva.

THE STORM BURST.

Railway Property Demolished—A Church in Ruins—Fifty Children Maimed.

OMAHA, Neb., June 6.—McCook, Neb., was visited yesterday by a terrible cyclone. As the huge funnel-shaped cloud passed over the Burlington and Missouri shops and roundhouse it seemed to suddenly drop to the ground, first striking the business building owned by H. W. Cole, and with awful power raised the metal roof clear off the two parts in the rear, and whirling it around brought it down with terrible force in almost its former position upon the heads of the cigar-makers who were at work there. All escaped except one, who was severely injured. The storm centre seemed to raise up in the air and again drop to the ground about three blocks away. In a moment the air was filled with flying debris, and the cry was raised that the Congregational Church was in ruins and hundreds of children buried in the ruins. The children of the city were rehearsing for the children's day at the Congregational Church, and that edifice was packed to its utmost capacity with the little folks. But two minutes before the cyclone struck the building about two hundred of the smaller children had finished the exercises and gone home. The church was raised from its foundation and dashed down in one mass of ruins, burying about 60 children together with the pastor of the church and several teachers. Many of the children who were leaving were hurt by flying timbers, but so far as is known none seriously. With willing hands the fallen timbers were raised from the ruins and soon all were released from their imprisonment. Timbers, in falling, had formed an arch over the heads of those who were in the church. Several of the children are so seriously injured that it is feared they cannot live but a few hours. Many of the injured children have legs and arms broken, and still others seem to be hurt internally. The list of the injured is about 50, and as many were carried home at once it is impossible at this hour to get the exact number. Had the cyclone struck the church five minutes earlier at least 250 would have been buried in the ruins.

Why they are sold all over town for 25c and 35c. Gentlemen, you who have bought Ready-Made Goods before, come and see what we have. You will see something that will open your eyes; such fine work was never seen on Ready-Made Clothing in Peterborough before. You who have never bought Made-Up Clothing before, come and compare our goods with what you have been getting; try them on and see for yourself how they fit.

Now here is just a few prices that one would be inclined to doubt, but ask for them and see for yourself. Stop and think, a Pair Good Tweed Pants for 95c. These we always have in stock. We won't tell you we are just sold out when you ask for them. All Wool Tweed Pants, $1.25, $1.50, $1,75, $2.00 and up. Men's Suits, just imagine $2.75, $3.25, $3.95, $4.50 and $5. HEARTRENDING SCENES.

THE LATEST FROM TITUSVILLE AND OIL CITY.

No Reduction in the Death Roll—Hundreds Killed or Missing—Terrible Sights—Enormous Losses—Widespread Desolation and Destitution.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 7.—Had it not been for the heroic work of Tony Dahl and William Bennett the death list would have been increased by over 50 more. These two men set out in skiffs, and by most herculean efforts succeeded in placing the occupants of various dwellings in secure places.

Among the works destroyed are the following: Frank Woods, oil refinery, loss $40,000; L. Beebe & Sons, tannery, loss $30,000; freight station W. N. Y. and P. train, loss estimated at $40,000; Ira Blows, cooperage, $5000; McCarthy, cooperage, stock swept away, $3000; J. A. Loze, radiators, $10,000; M. Houghtaling, dwelling and shop, $5000; George Stephens, shops, building and stock, $23,000; American Oil Works, $1000; Rice, Robinson and Foggan, refinery, $40,000; J. P. Thomas, International refinery, $75,000; Standard Oil Co., loss not known.

The place is in a fever of excitement and many are the anxious enquiries being made all over town for missing friends.

The tracks are washed away in sections above this city for a distance of probably 15 or 20 miles, so that travel is cut off both to north and south. As Oil City cannot be reached except by driving, and horses and carriages are scarce, travel will hardly be resumed in either direction for possibly three or four days, and it will be as many weeks before the regular run of business is started.

It is reported here on reliable authority that John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Co., has instructed Joseph Zep, the buyer for the Standard here, to draw on him for $100,000 for the relief of this suffering district.

The body of Fred Leures, a lame watchman, was found this afternoon. This makes 88 bodies found. There are 15 bodies lying which are burned beyond recognition. The facilities for caring for a large number of dead are limited, and these burned bodies were placed in sacks and thrown to one side on the floor until they could receive attention.

Every bridge in the county with the exception of three railroad bridges have been swept away. In addition to this the roads have been so badly torn up that it will cost an immense sum to repair the damage.

Hundreds of families are homeless and great distress prevails. Assistance is urgently needed. Clothing and food are both essential. Committees have been organized for the care and comfort of the destitute and for the proper interment of the dead.

Death-Roll Two Hundred.

OIL CITY, June 6.—A day full of excitement and harrowing scenes has closed here, and thousands have been seeking for the dead and aiding the sufferers. All along the burning section can be see groups of persons still hunting for their loved ones. They do not seem to weary or despair, but dig into accumulations of filth and rubbish with bare and bleeding hands. For many of them the work will be without result, as it is now certain many of the bodies have either been burned to cinders or swept into flood and far away. At a late hour to-night 67 bodies had been taken from the ruins, and this practically ends the work of the searchers till to-morrow.

It is estimated that the loss of life will reach at least 150, and many put the figures at 200. The number of bodies recovered gives no fair estimate of the number lost.

The section where the loss of life is greatest was largely occupied by foreigners employed in the tube works. No one knows their names, and it will be impossible to ever learn just how many are missing.

In this section also were a large number of children; of all the bodies recovered only 10 were children.

The Relief Committee has received over $12,000.

ST. CATHARINES, June 7.—News was received here that William Bristol, formerly of this place, was drowned in the flood at Oil City, Pa., and that his body is being brought here for interment. He and Mrs. Bristol were on a visit to Oil City, and were stopping at the Exchange Hotel, where they were joined by Mrs. Bristol's mother of Toronto, Ont.

Whalebacks for the Atlantic Trade.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The whaleback is to be made a feature of the trans-Atlantic freight trade by a company, which includes some of the big men in the Northern Pacific Railroad. They are going to build a fleet of whalebacks in England that will compete for the ocean carrying trade. Among the men who are to be stockholders in the company are John D. Rockefeller, Colgate Hoyt and Joseph L. Colby, besides many more of the Northern Pacific following, both in New York and the west. It is said the capital already pledged is $10,000,000, which will be enough to build a large number of ships.

Dynamite as an Agent for Revenge.

LONDON, June 7.—A house was wrecked with dynamite in Inverkeithing, near Edinburg, to-day. All the occupants except a woman were absent at the time. She was severly injured. A man who lived in the house has been arrested. He is said to have quarreled with the other inmates and to have blown up the house to get revenge.

A Forger Skips.

STOCKTON, Cal., June 7.—County Recorder J. F. Mosely is missing. He owes $100,000, most of which is unsecured. Mosely has been a large speculator in land and gave notes in payment. Nine forged notes given by him have been discovered, aggregating over $60,000.

Want Non-Union Men.

BOSTON, June 7.—The Boiler Manufacturers' Association at a meeting this afternoon voted $5000 to bring non-union workmen to this city.

Cattle Prices.

MONTREAL, June 7.—A cable from Liverpool states that the prices for Canadian cattle have advanced materially over the low prices of last week.

Typhus In Newfoundland.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 7.—An epidemic of typhus fever is raging at St. John's, N.F. There have been over 80 cases during the past month.

New States In the Union.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The House yesterday passed a bill admitting New Mexico and Arizona into the union.

HOME RULE IN IRELAND

DISCUSSED IN THE HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

There Were Diverse Voices Heard—Each Side Had Its Innings—But Nothing Came of the Three Hours' Debate—Home Rule's Quietus for This Session.

OTTAWA, June 7—Yesterday was Ireland's day in the House. Mr. Devlin's Home Rule resolution, with amendments thereto, occupied the whole of the afternoon up to 6 o'clock, when the Speaker left the chair, and the probability is that Ireland will have to struggle along without Mr. Devlin and his resolution for another year at least, as the Government intends taking next Monday, and therefore the resolution will not be reached again this session.

Mr. Devlin, in speaking to his resolution, quoted from the resolution adopted by the Orange Grand Lodge at its recent meeting in Montreal, and the after dinner speech on that occasion of Mr. Clarke Wallace, M.P., in which much sympathy was extended to the people of Ulster in their opposition to Home Rule, and said that his (Mr. Devlin's) resolution was intended to counteract the effects of the action taken in Montreal. He then took up the objections which had been raised to his resolution on account of its inopportuneness, and contended that if the resolution was to be of any effect at all it should be passed now.

Mr. Devlin made an effective speech for about an hour and concluded by moving the following resolution:

That, in the opinion of this House of Commons of Canada, the time has arrived when a substantial measure of Home Rule should be granted to Ireland, and this House expresses the hope that at the approaching general election in the United Kingdom a majority will be returned to Parliament pledged to enact a measure which, while safeguarding the unity and interests of the British Empire, will satisfy the legitimate and natural aspirations of the Irish people by granting to them a parliament with jurisdiction over all matters of a local character.

The Amendment.

Col. Tisdale called attention to the fact that in 1882 this House had passed a resolution on a motion by Hon. Mr. Costigan to which Mr. Gladstone's Colonial Secretary, Lord Kimberly, had replied in a letter in which it was stated that, while Her Majesty would always be pleased to receive the advice of the Canadian Parliament on matters pertaining to the welfare of Canada, she could only receive advice from the Imperial Parliament on matters relating to the internal economy of the United Kingdom. This was a polite way of telling the Parliament of Canada to mind its own business. In 1886 another resolution had been passed on the motion of the Hon. Mr. Blake, as amended by the Hon. Mr. Costigan, which had been sent to the High Commissioner for Canada for the information of such members of the Imperial House as wished to get information from it, and in 1887 another Home Rule resolution had been passed on the motion of Mr. Curran, copies of which had been sent to Lord Salisbury, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell, and not one of the three had ever even acknowledged the receipt of the resolution. He thought that three times was enough, especially after the want of replies. He quoted from The Montreal True Witness, a leading Catholic paper, to show that Catholic feeling was opposed to Mr. Devlin's resolution. He moved in amendment that all the words after "that" in the main resolution be struck out and the following substituted:

That any expression of the opinion of this House on this subject being uncalled for at the present time, and this House not being desirous of expressing its views on the approaching general election in the United Kingdom, the orders of the day be proceeded with.

He Deemed the Motion Uncalled for.

Mr. Clarke Wallace, Grand Sovereign of the Orange Order, was at a loss to know why this resolution was introduced at the present time. In view of the opinion already expressed by the Gladstone Government in answer to similar resolutions the Canadian Parliament should not again obtrude itself upon the British Parliament. The mover of the resolution had gone back 251 years to find any cases of oppression in Ireland. He contended that the people of Ireland were well governed. The land laws were better there than they were in the province of Ontario. He had personally attended the land courts there and the tenants had many rights and many means of obtaining redress from the landlords which no tenants in Ontario possessed. The Parliament of England had given a form of local government to Ireland which was almost the same as that of England and Scotland.

Dr. Landerkin: We want to give them responsible government first.

Mr. Wallace: I do not think the honorable gentleman is very responsible for what he says.

Mr. Wallace continued at some length to argue against Home Rule government, holding that it meant the dismemberment of the Empire. He quoted from Mr. Parnell's celebrated speech at Cincinnati, from Messrs. Redmond, Dillon and other Home Rule leaders to show that what they really meant by Home Rule was separation from Great Britain.

After some remarks from Mr. Curran, in which he expressed the hope that the coming election in Great Britain would leave the two great English parties so evenly divided that the balance of power would be in the hands of the Irish members, in which case Home Rule would soon be an accepted fact,

Questions the Wisdom of the House.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy rose to move an amendment to the amendment. He referred to the previous action of Parliament, and particularly to the resolution of 1886, which was especially aimed at the Crimes Act then before the Imperial Parliament. This act, which the House then condemned, had in the four years that it had been in operation had the most beneficial effect possible in Ireland, so much so that it had been repealed in most parts of the country as being no longer needed, and Ireland to-day was freer from crime than almost any other civilized country. He was no believer in Home Rule, but he believed in local self-government. It would be impossible to give Ireland the power to make her own tariff. He was opposed to the motion and also opposed to the amendment. He thought that a mistake had been made in 1882 and again in 1886, and that it would be wiser if the House acknowledged its error and did not repeat it. He moved in amendment to the amendment:

That all after the word "that" be struck out of the amendment and the following substituted instead thereof: "This House is of opinion that [illegible] matters in question [illegible] extraordinary [illegible] question of Home Rule in [illegible] Ireland being [illegible] in which the great political parties in Great Britain and Ireland are divided is a matter on which it would not be advisable for this House to take action. That regard being had to the peace and prosperity which now exists in Ireland owing to the wise and firm administration of the law, beneficial changes which have been made in the agrarian laws, and the material aid which has been afforded to the impoverished portions of that kingdom, this House has reason to doubt the wisdom of the course adopted by it in the years 1882 and 1886 in offering to advise the Imperial Parliament as to the course it should take with reference to Ireland and in expressing an opinion as to the wisdom of the policy in favor of Home Rule for that portion of the United Kingdom."

"The Majority in Ulster For Home Rule!"

Hon. Mr. Costigan said that he moved the resolution in 1882 in response to requests which came to him from all over Canada. He regretted that the resolution had been moved at the present time for the reason that it would not get the support that it rightly deserved, and the enemies of Home Rule would be able to say that the feeling in Canada was not so strong on the question as it had been in 1882 and 1886. While he regretted this he would vote for the proposition, which he sincerely trusted would not be voted down. He was surprised to hear the member for West York (Mr. Wallace) speak of the majority in Ulster rejecting if Home Rule was passed. Why, the majority in Ulster was in favor of Home Rule; it was only a small portion of Munster which was opposed to it. He spoke of the fairness with which the Catholic majority in Ireland had always acted towards the Protestant minority, and said that there would be no danger of the rights of the minority being infringed on by Home Rule. He was as strong a supporter of Home Rule to-day as he ever was, and he wished it to be understood that he spoke as a Home Ruler.

Mr. Fraser made a few remarks, when, it being 6 o'clock, the Speaker left the chair, and, as stated above, it is most probable that this finishes the Home Rule question, as far as the Parliament of Canada is concerned, for the session at all events.

The Sunday Observance Bill.

After recess the bills from the Senate granting divorces to James Wright and Hattie Adele Harrison were passed on division, and the act respecting the Midland Railway of Canada received its second reading. The House went into committee again on Mr. Charlton's Sunday Observance Bill, which was discussed until 11.30, when the committee rose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

The evening was mostly taken up considering the railway clause, to which an amendment was offered by Mr. Charlton defining what trains might and what might not run on Sunday.

The Ministers Return.

Hon. Mr. Foster and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell returned from Washington this morning. The latter gentleman when seen expressed himself as well satisfied with the visit, but declined to state the result. The Ministers had two interviews with Mr. Blaine and were received by him with his usual courtesy. The question of canal tolls is understood to have been only once discussed.

In Memory of the Dead Chieftain.

In the centre of the clerk's table when the House met to-day stood a handsome old China bowl of generous dimensions heaped high with large bunches of glorious Marechal Neil, saffron and blush roses reposing on a thick bed of maple leaves. From the bowl streamed two long, broad white satin ribbons on which in purple immortelles appeared the words: "In Memoriam, June 6th."

The Appointment of Judge Hannington.

In the Senate this afternoon Mr. Poirier moved for all correspondence pertaining to the appointment of Judge Hannington. He claimed that the Roman Catholics of New Brunswick were not adequately represented on the Supreme Court bench, and that Judge Landry should have been promoted. Sir John Abbott totally dissented from the view which Mr. Poirier had expressed. A man's religion or nationality was not to be considered, he said, in cases of that kind. What the Government looked at was the fitness of the candidates for the position.

The Chignecto Marine Railway Bill was considered in the Senate this afternoon, and there was a general consensus of opinion that the interests of the original bondholders should be protected.

In Mr. Perley's Interest.

It is said that a large number of members of Parliament are signing a petition to the Government asking for the reinstatement of Mr. H. F. Perley, late chief engineer of the Public Works Department, who is still lying in his house dangerously ill. This is not done with the idea that Mr. Perley should ever resume work, but in order that he may be superannuated. In this connection it may be mentioned that it is currently reported that Mr. Louis Coste, who has been acting as chief engineer for nearly two years, will be appointed chief engineer on July 1.

Valuable Trotters Destroyed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 7.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the training stable at Woodburn farm, 18 miles from here, was burned to the ground. It contained 22 head of valuable trotters in training for this season's campaign, several of them being the get of the famous Electioneer. By hard work all but nine were saved. All the sulkies, harness, etc., belonging to the training stable were destroyed. The total loss is about $12,000 with no insurance.

Broke His Leg.

OTTAWA, June 7.—Mr. "Ned" Rooney, Ottawa's well-known horseman, met with a painful accident on Saturday, when he had his leg broken in two places by a vicious kick from a colt. The accident occurred at Mr. J. Erratt's Mountain View Stock Farm, near Plantagenet.

OUR CIVIC LEGISLATORS

Sit Until Midnight Transacting the Town's Business.

A Lengthy Session and Considerable Work Accomplished—A Long Batch of Communications—A Grant of $150 to the 57th Battalion—The Market Committees Report Referred Back—The Fire Alarm Bell to be Raised Six Feet Higher—The Street and Bridge Committees Report—The Auditors get a Brush—The Sewerage Report Discussed—Probability of Engaging a Second Engineer to Submit Plans—By laws Passed and Other Business.

A regular meeting of the town council was held in the council chamber last evening. There were present His Worship Mayor Kendry and Councillors Cahill, Best, Kelly, Young, Dawson, Bradburn, Ferguson, Mulhern, McIlwain, Dennistoun and Meldrum. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communications were read:

From E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, with form of a by-law, appointing an arbitrator on behalf of the town, respecting the extension of the main sewer through the township of North Monaghan.—Received.

Also form of by-law to make further provision for regulating the erection and maintenance of telephone poles and wires in the town of Peterborough.—Received.

From A. E. Dixon and several others requesting a sidewalk be built on west side of Reid street from Smith street north to Communication road.—Referred to Street and Bridge Committee.

From Lt. Col. J. Z. Rogers, of the 57th Battalion, asking a grant of $200 from the council towards defraying the expenses of the 14th Battalion on May 24th.—Received.

From J. Green, solicitor for several parties submitting that the illegal by-law passed in 1884, authorizing the closing up of a portion of Wolfe street and the conveyance thereof to the Ontario and Quebec railway company now merged into the Canada Pacific Railway Company, whereas certain ratepayers were cut off from access to their lots on said street and they suffered damage by the closing of said streets. Freight sheds and other obstructions have also been placed thereon. An order was obtained from the court in Toronto on 13th June, 1884, quashing the bylaw, and since then nothing has been done to remove the obstruction. The communication requests that immediate steps be taken as empowered by law to have such obstruction removed at once, either by indictment against the parties obstructing the highway or otherwise as may be deemed expedient.—Finance Committee.

From E. B. Edwards, stating that he had examined the contract with the Peterborough Water Company and the bylaw on which it is founded with reference to the question of street watering under the contract. The company is obliged to furnish street water for street watering in any part of the town. There is no special agreement on the part of the company to furnish stand pipes, but where these are wanting, water may be taken from the hydrants. The corporation is required to furnish competent men to use the hydrants, and is responsible for any injury clearly caused to such hydrants. This cooperation is required in any case to furnish stand pipes and keep them in repair.—Received.

From Wm. Scott, special agent of the Bell Telephone Company, stating that as the Bell intended acquiring the lease and plant of the Ontario Telephone Company amalgamating the system so as to make the most perfect and efficient service possible, requesting bylaw stipulating that the poles of the Ontario Telephone Company shall be the same as if originally erected by the Bell, with the consent and under the direction of the town council. The Bell Telephone Company will undertake to remove all parallel lines of telephones from all the streets of the town, unless with the express sanction of the council such poles are allowed to remain for electric light or electric railway purposes.—Finance Committee.

From R. F. B. Johnston, Toronto, Inspector of Registry Offices, asking that a new map of the town be placed in the county registry office.—Finance Committee.

From Jas. Frewds and others requesting that a sidewalk be continued westward on the south side of Homewood avenue from Walton street to the Monaghan Road.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, in regard to the street leading north from Hiawatha street, through the Dickson Company's property.—Received.

From Hugh Speare, calling attention to the gross irregularity in No. 2 assessment for 1892, and the incompatibility of the return of No. 2 for 1892.—Received.

THE PROPOSED STREET RAILWAY.

To His Worship the Mayor, and members of the Council of the Town of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN,—After consulting with my confreres in New York regarding the street railway matter, we have decided to take the matter up again, provided you grant us the following requests:

1st. The right to erect poles and string wires for light, power, heating and other purposes.

2nd. A liberal extension of time in which to commence work.

As you are no doubt aware we have recently closed some very large contracts for street railway work, and our factory is at present pushed to its utmost capacity to get them out, and this is one of the principal reasons why we would ask for an extension of time. In order that the matter may be taken up and definitely settled at your next meeting, I would ask that the extension of time be fixed for the completion of the road in July 1st, 1893.

I am, respectfully, yours,

M. D. BARR.

—Finance Committee.

From John R. Cobb, calling the council's attention to the resolutions which were passed at the Board of Health at its last meeting. The resolutions have already appeared in these columns.—Received.

From Dr. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, stating that he transmitted to the committee on Water Supplies and Sewerage of the town council the report of the committee on Water Supplies and Sewerage of the Provincial Board, which was adopted at its last meeting.—Received.

From A. G. Heath, stating that he had been assessed for a poll tax, and claiming that he ought to be adjudged exempt from the same for the reason that he was a house-holder and a ratepayer.—Court of Revision.

From George Dix, sr., applying for a sidewalk to his house on the corner of Monaghan Road, as he had been a taxpayers for several years.—Bridge Committee.

From Thomas Williams per C. W. Sawers, solicitor; N. T. LePlante per C. W. Sawers, solicitor; R. B. Lundy per J. J. Lundy; George Beaton, John Landy, Michael Bolton, Henry Best and G. M. Roger, claiming under section 4 of the Assessment Act of 1892 exemption for and in respect to certain ots.—Court of Revision.

From G. M. Roger asking that a foot bridge be built across the river on Boncoard street as it was needed and would be of great advantage to the public.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From Wm. Collins on behalf of North Monaghan objecting to the sewer being continued south of the town.—Received.

From E. B. Edwards giving his opinion on the same and appointing an arbitrator for the town.—Received.

From E. R. Hamilton, asking the council not to remove his storehouse but to allow it to remain on its present site.—Referred to the Street and Bridge Committee with power to act.

Moved by Mr. Cahill, seconded by Mr. Best that the petition of Geo. A. Cox, Esq., and a number of others be referred to the Town Solicitor to have a by-law prepared in compliance with the said petition and that the clerk be authorized to return the petition to the promoters for the purpose of having it further signed if necessary.—Carried.

To His Worship the Mayor, and Town Council:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Market Committee, to whom was referred the petition of R. H. Green, calling the attention of the council to the condition of the market scales, the want of sufficient protection therefor against rain or storm, the need of increased facilities for weighing purposes and office accommodation for the convenience of the market clerk and of the public generally, beg leave to report and recommend, after a careful inspection of the market grounds and consideration of the whole question, that a suitable building be erected to answer the purposes required and which your committee has been informed by builders, would not exceed in cost the sum of $500, and that this committee be empowered to have the necessary plans and specifications therefor prepared by the town engineer, and to ask for tenders for the completion of the same in accordance therewith, and to report to the council.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. C. WINGE, Chairman.

The report was referred back to the committee to settle upon a more economical plan for the erection of a suitable building.

THE BATTALION'S REQUEST.

On motion Lt.-Col. J. Z. Rogers was heard, and made a few remarks in support of the 57th Battalion's request from the council that they grant the sum of $200 to the battalion for defraying the expenses of the visit of the 14th Battalion here on 27th of May, and the expense in entertaining them.

Mr. YOUNG asked what the request of this grant was for, the railway fare, lunch, etc., or what? He wanted to know for what it was to be expended.

COL. ROGERS said they spent $75 in advertising and $50 in providing a lunch. They also made a grant to the band and non-commissioned officers.

Mr. MELDRUM said that the calls made on the council for this purpose were useful in advertising the merits of the town. He moved, seconded by Mr. McIlwain, that the 57th Battalion be granted the sum of $150 towards defraying the expenses connected with the visit of the Kingston brigade.

Messrs. DAWSON and MULHERN strongly opposed the resolution. The motion carried.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT.

Mr. Meldrum read the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee:

To His Worship the Mayor and Town Council:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Fire, Water and Light Committee beg leave to report as follows:—In accordance with your instructions we have purchased from Mr. Terry Smith three horses at $430 and a fourth horse at $150, making in all $580. While a large number of horses were offered, the prices asked were as much and in many cases more than asked by Mr. Smith, and as Mr. Smith's team had been accustomed to the work we considered it in the interests of the town to accept his offer, there not being the same risk of a runaway and consequent damage to the fire appliances. We received applications from John Beers, John Dorsey, E. J. Ferguson, James German, John A. Murphy, William Phelan, Hugh Stevenson, Wm. Wood and John McFarlane. Also in accordance with your instructions we appointed Mr. John Murphy in charge of the stable at a salary of $350, he to be responsible for the care and keep of the town's horses and to be constantly on the premises, and to see that everything in his department is kept in proper shape and to the satisfaction of the chief of the Fire Brigade, and the committee for second driver appointed Mr. E. Lawrence, who has for some time been with Mr. Smith, he to be subject to and under the control of Mr. Murphy while in the stable, at a salary of $300. Both drivers and horses to be under the control of the fire brigade either for practice or fire purposes. Your committee would also recommend that the driver in charge of the stable, Mr. Murphy, be empowered to purchase necessary supplies for the horses, subject to the written order from the chairman of the committee and a statement of same submitted to the committee on first of each month, and your committee would recommend that the whole fire department, together with drivers, be amenable and subject to the control of the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

Your committee would also recommend that provision be made by extending the stable at the back between hose tower and police station to accommodate the fire engine and hose reel, so that the fire hall can be put in shape for the proper training of the horses in connection with both waggons, so that both brigade and horses may attain the necessary efficiency.

Your committee would also report that the town bell was raised 36 feet and placed in the top of the tower as per contract with Mr. John Kincaid, but that the openings are not sufficiently large to allow sound to escape, and to make more openings would disfigure, to some extent, the tower, and would recommend that an open turret be placed on top of the tower similar to that on the Bradburn tower, and the bell raised 6 feet higher, making an elevation of 42 feet, the bell standing on top of the present tower and open on all sides; this, while costing more money, being preferable to cutting openings in top of the present tower, and that the matter be left in the hands of the committee to have same done at a cost not to exceed $100.

Your committee would also recommend that they be empowered to procure the requisite mattings and other fixtures, also a gong to be attached to present arrangements for opening the doors, so that the instant the doors open the sounding of the gong gives the signal for the horses to go to their respective places. Your committee would recommend after examination the purchase of a straw cutter now in use in the stables at the price of $19, and the heavy harness now being used drawing the water carts be purchased at a price of $20. These goods are the property of Mr. Terrance Smith.

All of which is respectfully submitted

W. H. MELDRUM,
Chairman.

MR. DENNISTOUN said that the town had gone to a $75 expense already, and he could not favour another $100 expenditure which was more or less an experiment.

MR. DAWSON was in favour of connecting with the Edison Works, Auburn Mills and Peter Hamilton's foundry, the same system as proposed last year and having their whistles blown at the time of a fire.

MR. MELDRUM thought that the clause in reference to the erecting of a turrit on the tower and raising the bell 6 feet higher—42 feet in all—at a cost not to exceed $100 should pass and the committee's report be adopted.

MR. KELLY concurred; it was absolutely necessary to have an improvement made in the sound of the public fire alarm. It should be heard all over the town, especially during the day time as the firemen who were working out had no other means of knowing that there was a fire.

MR. CAHILL said that the alarm in its present state was useless. He favoured the clause in reference to its improvement.

Mr. Meldrum moved, seconded by Mr. Ferguson, that the report be adopted.

Mr. Dawson moved an amendment, seconded by Mr. Dennistoun, that the clause in reference to erecting a turrit, etc., be struck out.

Mr. Kelly moved, seconded by Mr. Bradburn that it be referred back to the committee with power to act.

The original motion carried and the report was adopted.

In the case of the Edison sewer, your committee have been unable to decide upon the best means to get rid of the cause of complaint, but purpose to more fully consider the matter immediately, and hope to come to a satisfactory conclusion. For these reasons, the contract for crib work on Rink street has not been let. Your committee would suggest that the council very respectfully urge upon the trustees of the Nicholls estate, the advisability of purchasing that portion of Inverlee, lying east of Dennistoun avenue for a small park, this portion of the property being yet vacant.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOS. CAHILL,
Chairman.

The report was referred to the street inspector to estimate the cost of the improvements and to be referred back again to the committee.

MR. DENNISTOUN asked the probable cost of all these improvements.

MR. CAHILL thought $5,000 would cover the entire expenditure. He was in favour of having the functions of the Street Committee transferred to Street Inspector and of abolishing the Street Committee altogether.

MR. MELDRUM thought the suggestion of the chairman a good one.

The discussion was continued until Mr. Kelly set the matter to shame by a humorous sally. He said: Gentlemen, if one man, the inspector, can manage the Street and Bridge Committee, why could not the Fire, Water and Light Committee hand over their work to the Chief of the Fire Department, and so on? I move that this council be dismissed altogether. We have no work to do. (Laughter.)

THE BOUNDARY ROAD.

On motion a deputation who were present from North Monaghan, were heard.

MR. FORSTER, Reeve of North Monaghan, said he was there in the interests of the boundary road between the township and the town. The township had done more on the road in proportion than the town.

MR. JOHNSTON and MR. WM. COLLINS, clerk, also said that the three miles of boundary did not secure an equivalent expenditure from the town.

MR. CAHILL said the township were asking the council to do too much when they asked them to keep the road as well as the sidewalk in such good repair.

MR. DAWSON agreed. The town had always done its share in keeping in repair the boundary road.

Moved by Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Best, that the report be referred back to the committee.—Carried.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. Young read the report of the Property Committee.

To His Worship the Mayor, and Town Council:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Property Committee to whom was referred the petition of the Fire Brigade Band, for increased band stand accommodation in the park, beg leave to report and recommend, after a careful inspection of the present stand, that their request be granted, the same enlarged to a sufficient size to accommodate the numerical strength of the band, in order that the band may better be able to supply, and the public appreciate their music.

Your committee therefore council an inspection and estimates to be made of the probable cost for the same and are informed that the cost thereof will not exceed $75.

Your committee recommend that they may be empowered to have the necessary enlargement made.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. V. R. YOUNG,
Chairman.

MR. YOUNG stated that it was the intention of the committee to extend the band stand twelve feet. They would like to advertise for tenders along with this for the extension of the fire hall stables which had been recommended by the committee on Fire, Water and Light. By advertising for both at once he thought that the work could be done more cheaply.

THE AUDITORS' WORK.

MR. BEST asked when it was expected the auditors would have their work completed?

THE MAYOR said he had spoken to them several times and they assured him that they were working as hard as they could and were doing their best.

SEWERAGE REPORT.

To His Worship the Mayor and Town Council:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Committee on Sewerage beg leave to report that the suggestions contained in Mr. MacDougall's letter bearing date May 19th, 1892 and attached hereto, be adopted. [This letter was published some time time ago,] suggesting that the sewer from Townsend street to the outfall at the river be considered a main sewer.

That frontage tax on property north of Townsend street for sewerage shall be 75c. per foot frontage on each side of the street. That persons desiring to make connection with the main sewer south of Townsend street, shall be allowed to do so at the same rate per foot frontage.

That the Town Solicitor be instructed to have a bylaw prepared at once for submission to the qualified ratepayers for the purpose of raising money for the construction of sewers. The township council of North Monaghan having refused their assent to have Lock street used for conveying the sewerage to the river, your committee at once submitted the matter to the Town Solicitor who drafted a bylaw to appoint an arbitrator, which bylaw will be brought up before you this evening.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOS. CAHILL,
Chairman.

SEWERAGE DISCUSSION.

MR. CAHILL said he had been charged by many with killing the sewerage on one hand and also of showing undue favoritism toward Mr. MacDougall's report on the other. He believed if a by-law was submitted to the people it should be the best obtainable, and it was no disparagement of Mr. MacDougall's abilities as an engineer to seek the advice of another engineer. In Brockville they had reports from four different engineers. He believed in the first construction of George and Aylmer street sewers as trunks and extending the system as required. The council was proceeding as fast as it was prudent to go—the opposition of the townships had delayed progress. The bylaw would be submitted as soon as possible. He moved, seconded by Mr. Young, that the Committee on Sewerage be instructed to employ another first-class engineer to prepare a report on the proposed system of sewerage for the town, and also to verify the levels from the pump house on Water street to the outfall at the Otonabee River, and also levels on Aylmer street from Smith to Townsend streets.

MR. DENNISTOUN opposed the appointing of another engineer. Mr. MacDougall's amended report met all the necessities of the case. The bylaw should be submitted. He moved that the portion of the report referring to the bylaw be referred to the Committee of the whole council.

MR. FERGUSON opposed the motion and did not think another engineer was necessary.

Mr. Cahill's motion stood.

THE PROPERTY COMMITTEE AGAIN.

Mr. Dawson moved, seconded by Mr. Dennistoun, that tenders for the extension of the fire hall stables be asked for.—The motion was lost.

After some heated discussion, Mr. Young's motion, seconded by Mr. Bradburn, was carried, that the question of the extension of the fire hall stables be referred to the Property Committee with power to act, cost not to exceed $35.

Mr. Cahill introduced a bylaw to appoint an arbitrator respecting extension of main sewer through North Monaghan, which was passed, appointing Mr. Wm. Langford arbitrator.

TELEPHONE POLES.

Mr. Dennistoun introduced a bylaw respecting the erection and maintenance of telephone poles on the streets.

On the second reading after much discussion, Mr. Scott, of the Bell Telephone Company, was heard in reference to the matter. The amalgamation of the two companies made only one system of poles necessary. The company proposed putting in metallic circuits in Peterborough and Ashburnham, such as no other town or city in Canada had. The company proposed to put the best possible system in Peterborough.

The bylaw was read a second time and passed.

STREET WATERING.

Moved by Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Bradburn, that the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee be requested to see that the following streets be watered: Simcoe, from Aylmer to Rubidge; Hunter, from Aylmer to Rubidge; Rubidge, from Brock to Charlotte; Stewart from Hunter to Charlotte, to be done by the town team.—Lost.

THE TOWN TEAMS.

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. Ferguson, that the town's cheque be issued in favor of Terrance Smith for amount due him for horses and other articles purchased and referred to in the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, and that the town solicitor be instructed to prepare contracts with John Murphy and Ernest Lawrence, for the proper discharge of their duties—Carried.

PUBLIC SCHOOL DEBENTURES.

Moved by Mr. Dennistoun, seconded by Mr. Meldrum, that the Commissioners of the Town Trust be requested to re-issue the public school debentures in their hand to the Nicholls Hospital Trustees at the same rate of interest as formerly—Carried.

The council adjourned at 12.10 o'clock in the morning after passing two special motions to have the sitting extended after the usual limit—eleven o'clock.

A Wonderful Invention.

Our attention has been called to a remarkable instrument for examining and pointing out every defect and disease of the eye sight. It is the only instrument of the kind in existence, and being protected by patents, can be used only by the inventor, Dr. Jobb (formerly of New York), the renowned optical specialist. He is enabled with this instrument and his his many years of study and practice, to fit spectacles skilfully, when all others fail. Cures pain in and around the eye, headache, neuralgia, inflammation and granulation of the lids, lashes falling out, and straightens cross-eye and squint without an operation. "Seeing is believing." Read his testimonials. Owing to the pressure of appointments he will be compelled to remain till Saturday, June 11th, at W. R. Grantex's drug store. The only optician in Canada making the grinding and fitting of complicated lenses for the eye a specialty. Consultation and examination free. 2d132 1w

Health Department.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me." 4w

An Enjoyable Evening

At St. Andrew's Church Last Evening—Mr. Jackman's Interesting Lectures on the Edison Phonograph.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the tea and lecture given in St. Andrew's church last evening spent a highly enjoyable and profitable time. Tea was served in the Sunday school rooms from half past five o'clock until after seven by the ladies of the church. The spread was a creditable one. At eight o'clock an adjournment was made to the church which was comfortably filled. The pastor, Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, occupied the chair. The meeting was opened by the 100th Psalm being sung, after which prayer was offered. The church choir favoured with a fine selection, "Nearer My God to Thee." Rev. Mr. Torrance being called upon expressed his pleasure at being present. He congratulated St. Andrew's church upon its successful anniversary services. He then in a few eulogistic words introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. Dr. Jackman, in a humorous speech, thanked Rev. Mr. Torrance for his complimentary remarks. His subject was the phonograph, one of the greatest inventions of the age. He vividly described the construction of the machine as made by Edison. He said it was perfect in all its mechanism and sounds except in one or two, which he explained. The lecturer described how the human throat was constructed and also spoke about the vibration of sound and gave much other interesting data and information relating thereto. The choir again sang, "Make a Joyful Noise." At the close a vote of thanks was moved to the lecturer by Mr. John McClelland, seconded by Mr. Paton. "Who is there among you?" was sung, after which the meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. Mr. Torrance.

Golden Wedding Bells.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown Celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

The residence of Mr. J. R. Brown, 267 Reid street, was last night the scene of a very interesting festivity, the celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Brown. There were assembled a number of the many friends of the venerable couple, including members of the family from a distance. After a very pleasant time passed in congratulations, reminiscences, and admiring the beautiful presents contributed, the wedding banquet was elaborately set forth and the half-century bride and bridegroom duly toasted. After a delightful evening the company separated at 12 o'clock. The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Brown took place in Scotland on June 6th, 1842. In 1851 they came to Canada, settling in Quebec city, where they remained for a time, until Mr. Brown went into the service of the Brockville and Ottawa Railway, and the Canada Central Railway. From 1883 to 1887 he was in the saw mill and lumber business at Sudbury, leaving that place to remove to Peterborough. In that year he and Mrs. Brown spent six months revisiting their native heath and returning have since lived in town peaceful and happy lives. Of their five children, Mrs. A. C. Cook of Kippewa, P.Q., Mrs. R. McEwen, Sudbury, and Mr. J. R. Brown, jr., Montreal, were at the golden wedding. The others, Mrs. Geo. Bolton, Detroit, and Mrs. Albert Caswell, of Portland, Oregon, were unable to be present. Mr. and Mrs. Brown's descendant's also include thirteen grand children and one great great grand child. The EXAMINER joins with their many friends in hearty congratulations and best wishes, for a long continuation of happy days in the community where they are held in such high respect.

GEORGE STREET.

A Verdict of Wilful Murder.

The Jury Render this as their Verdict in the case of the Child Found at the Corner of King and Park Streets on Saturday—Dr. King Performs a Post Mortem Examination—Death Caused by Suffocation.

The inquest into the cause of death of the dressed infant girl, unnamed, whose body was found on the corner of King and Park streets on Saturday night by Messrs. Robert Middleton and J. R. Donsl was concluded yesterday afternoon before Coroner Bell, and a verdict of wilful murder was returned by the jury against no name, they did not know who, death in their opinion evidently having resulted from stiff cotton.

THE EVIDENCE.

ROBERT MIDDLETON, the first witness, being called, was sworn and said: I am a labourer. When I was returning from my work on Saturday morning I noticed this bundle on the grass at King street west of Park about 100 feet, between sidewalk and fence, on the south side of the street. It was rolled up in a dark shawl, and tied around it was a common beg string. I then started to open it but after taking off the old shawl I concluded that the parcel was done up by boys to fool somebody. When I was going past on Saturday evening with Mr. James Donsl, he told me to open the parcel, which I did, and when I lifted it up, the body dropped out. There was nothing seen tied tightly about it. I remained there while Mr. Donsl reported the find to the police. I remained there about ten minutes, when I returned to my work, Mr. Donsl remaining on the scene until Chief Ritzcome. Some other parties were also present; I do not know who they were.

To a Juryman—The bundle had evidently not been disturbed since I saw it in the morning. I did not kick the body when examining it.

DR. KING, next witness, sworn said: I made a superficial examination of the body of the child. There was no evidence superficially to give cause for death. I found certain portions of the body decomposed, especially about the face. It was a female child come to its full time, well developed, and had probably been born 24 hours. I should judge from appearances that no skilled attendance had been present at the time of birth. I should think if the child had been born alive it might have been two or three days old. It is quite possible, though, that the child may have died at birth.

A POST MORTEM PERFORMED.

It was the unanimous wish of the jury that Dr. King perform a post-mortem examination on the child to ascertain whether it had been born dead or alive.

Mr. J. R. Donsl was the next witness, and told of his finding the body when along with Mr. Middleton. He telephoned the police and Mr. Bellegham came and took the child away with him. Witness did not notice any marks of violence on the child. Did not notice any name on the newspaper which would lead to the identifying the child. The head of the child was discolored but the rest of the body was not.

CHIEF ROZELL told of his being notified of the finding of the child and how he had gone to the place where it was found. He found nothing different from that given in the evidence of Mr. Middleton. He notified the coroner and Mr. Bellegham of the child being found. Saw no marks on any of the cloths or paper wrapped around the child which would lead to an identification of the body or whose child it might be. The body which the jury viewed to-day was the same body that he found.

DR. KING being recalled after having performed the post mortem examination said: I have made a post mortem examination of the body. I find it to be that of a well developed female child of full time. There were certain discolored portions of the body which were post mortem results. Was unable to find anything pointing to any marks of violence. Skin was soft and macerated. The body was bloated with gas. On making a section through the thorax in front found the lungs somewhat retracted and all the other organs in natural position. On removal of the lungs found them slightly pinkish, floated in water, crepitated slightly under pressure. Heart normal, cavities quite separate and distinct. On opening the abdomen found all organs in their natural position. I am positive the condition of the lungs and heart that the child had lived but only a very short time. The stomach and bowels were empty. The child may have been suffocated. I would be led to believe it died from that cause. I think from the development of the child it would have lived had it been properly cared for. The child must have breathed as the lungs were expanded but how long it did breathe I cannot tell.

THE VERDICT.

The jury after being charged and addressed by the coroner retired, and after five minutes deliberation returned the following verdict—

That the said unnamed female child came to its death on or about the third day of June, 1892, evidently from suffocation and we find a verdict of wilful murder against some person or persons unknown.

A TERRIBLE WARNING!

There is Death in the Habit!—How True Life and Health is Obtained.

A MEDICAL gentleman said recently: "There is a growing demand for narcotics to produce sleep, that people so often drive from them, and afterwards so fondly desire. Opium, morphia, chloral, bromide of sodium and other dangerous drugs, are so freely used to induce sleep; and if the habit is continued in our young country, the result will soon be terrible."

This desire for narcotics comes from a class who should know better. The poor and laboring classes have no wish or desire for these poisons. Daily work and regular occupation are sufficent for them to produce natural and healthy sleep at the proper time.

The men and women who habitually use narcotics, are those who have plunged deep into the gaities and pleasures of life. Thousands have become sleepless, nervous, morose, anxious and despondent by giving way to excesses, intemperance and prodigality in living. Nerves are weak and unstrung; headaches, kidney and liver troubles make life a burden, and sleep is out of question.

Fortunately for such sufferers there exists an agent for giving strength and rest to the nervous system, and which is at the same time a sleep-producer. This heaven given remedy is Paine's Celery Compound—a medicine made from nature's purest and safest herbs, and without a trace or shadow of any poisonous substance.

Paine's Celery Compound has already been used with grand results by a class of people who would scorn to use any of the ordinary patents of our day. It has been the means of restoring lost health, of invigorating and strengthening weak bodies, and giving to those who were considered incurable, a new life.

Reader, if you are one of the weak, rundown, sleepless and broken up mortals, we counsel you to act with wisdom, if you desire a new life. Give that great remedy a trial at once; there is nothing else that can help you known to the medical faculty.

More cases of sick headache, ill, tousmer, constipation, can be cured in less time, with less medicine, and for less money, by using Carter's Little Liver Pills than by any other means.

A. Audette, proprietor House of Commons barber shop, Ottawa, says: A number of my customers are using Anti-Dandruff and it gives the best of satisfaction, and I consider it a success for the purposes advertised. dw

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Pills after eating. It will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system. dw

The Dreaded La Grippe.

Following this scourge of humanity come a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. Price 50c. and $1 00 per bottle. dw

The Bye-Elections

have passed by and we can now consider the best protection against disease. There is unrestricted reciprocity of sentiment between all people in Canada in pronouncing Burdock Blood Bitters the very best blood purifier, dyspepsia and headache remedy, and general tonic renovating medicine before the public. dw

"German Syrup"

Martinsville, N.J., Methodist Parsonage. "My acquaintance with your remedy, Boschee's German Syrup, was made about fourteen years ago, when I contracted a Cold which resulted in a Hoarseness and a Cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a Physician, without obtaining relief—I cannot say now what remedy he prescribed—I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received such quick and permanent help from it that whenever we have had Throat or Bronchial troubles since in our family, Boschee's German Syrup has been our favorite remedy and always with favorable results. I have never hesitated to report my experience of its use to others when I have found them troubled in like manner." REV. W. H. HAGGARTY, of the Newark, New Jersey, M.E. Conference, April 25, '90.

A Safe Remedy.

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

DEAR SIRS,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery, I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery.

C. C. HAUN,
Welland P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cummines, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself:
Messrs. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health.

Yours truly,
THOMAS CUMMINES,
Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.

THE ATTEMPT FAILED.

Three Hundred Convicts Make a Break for Liberty.

VALENCIA, June 6.—Much excitement was created here by the revolt of a large number of convicts yesterday. The scene of the trouble was the San Augustin prison. Three hundred prisoners confined there made a break for liberty. Gov. Salciedo appeared on the scene and fired a revolver at the mass of excited men, at the same time announcing that he would shoot down the first man who attempted to pass him. The Governor held the malcontents at bay until a body of military had been summoned to the prison. The soldiers soon had the unruly prisoners under subjection, and the latter quietly allowed themselves to be placed securely in their cells.

A Bomb in a Pennsylvania Town.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 6.—About 1 o'clock yesterday an explosion of dynamite occurred at Kensington, Pa., in the house of J. K. Turner, a jeweler.

Mr. Turner and Miss Emma Scheffer of Emleton, Pa., were instantly killed. Mrs. Turner and two of the children were badly injured.

It is believed the house was blown up deliberately, as Mr. Turner was never known to have dynamite in his dwelling or store. The explosion was of great force, breaking windows and doors at some distance. The authorities are trying to find a clue to the fiend who caused the explosion.

THE RAILWAY OUTRAGE.

Train Robbers Take a Slice of Poor Le's Money.

GUTHRIE, O.T., June 6.—It is declared positively that it was the Dalton gang which held up the Santa Fe express at Red Rock, I.T., on Wednesday, and that the robbers secured from the Wells-Fargo safe $50,000, which was being forwarded from the Treasury Department at Washington to the agent of the Sac and Fox Indians in part payment of lands recently purchased by the Government. Deputy United States Marshal Porter and a posse of 11 men are in pursuit of the robbers, and a fight is expected when they are overtaken. United States troops will cooperate with the officers in their attempt to capture the gang and obtain the money.

Snowstorm in June.

ST. PAUL, June 6.—Despatches received here last evening say that a great snowstorm is raging west of the Missouri River in South Dakota. At Deadwood snow has been falling fiercely for 10 hours, and lies on the ground to the depth of 10 inches. Traffic is almost suspended and the temperature has fallen below the freezing point. Nothing of the sort has ever before occurred in June in the Northwest in the history of the signal service.

Hiram A. Calvin Gets the Conservative Nomination.

KINGSTON, June 6.—At the Conservative convention of the electors of the County of Frontenac held Saturday to nominate a candidate for the seat in the Dominion Parliament made vacant by the appointment of Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Hiram A. Calvin of Garden Island was the unanimous choice and accepted the nomination.

Was He Murdered?

WINDSOR, Ont., June 6.—The body of an unknown man was found floating in the river at Sandwich last night. Behind the left ear was a hole evidently made by a blunt instrument or bullet. The body, which had evidently been in the river for some time, is that of a man about 5 feet 10 inches tall and about 35 years of age.

Struck Dead by Lightning.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., June 6.—James Sweatman, with his three sons, Reeves, Tilman and Walter, and Zach Sweatman, his brother, were fishing in the Chattagoochie River yesterday when a storm came up, and they took shelter under a tree. While there lightning struck the tree, killing Walter and the two elder men, and stunning Reeves and Tilman.

A Government Candidate Elected.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 6.—In the by-election in Annapolis County yesterday for the House of Assembly Mr. Munroe, the Government candidate, was elected by a large majority over Mr. Crosskull. Both were Liberals. The Conservatives largely refrained from voting.

For all forms of female weaknesses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing specific. She began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and two boxes has done her vastly more good than all the medicines she took from those doctors. Sold by all dealers. dw

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 7th 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its timekeeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. P. ATWELL.

Jules Simon's Opinion.

PARIS, June 4.—Jules Simon was asked yesterday whether war was likely to result from the fetes that are to be held at Nancy next week. His reply was: "Neither France nor Germany has any desire or intention of provoking a war, but we can never be sure. Some accident, trival, ever absurdly insignificant in itself, may precipitate the struggle." In answer to another question M. Simon said: "If there is war between France and Germany it is my firm conviction that France will be the victor in the fight."

THE HEAVY DOWNPOUR.

Crops Endangered for a Second Time This Year.

TUSCUMBIA, Mo., June 6.—The Osage River is within three inches of the high water mark of two weeks ago. All bottom lands are submerged and farmers are greatly discouraged, having just finished replanting from the other overflow. It is thought the river will rise 12 or 15 inches more.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 6.—The June rise is on its way here and with the Missouri rising from the local influences there is now no hope that the present flood can get out of the way before the melted snows of the mountains reach here. The river now stands at 33.7 feet and is rising one foot per day.

River men say the coming flood will reach close to the stage of 1844, the greatest known, and perhaps will surpass it.

MILLS BROS.

AN INSANE CLERGYMAN.

The Lady and the Preacher—They Went To the Falls and Get Married.

HAMILTON, June 7.—A man who has caused considerable trouble among some of Hamilton's citizens is now in jail here awaiting an examination into his mental condition, and there is a very curious story connected with his short stay in this city.

About a month ago there came to the city a young man apparently about 30 years of age, who called himself Rev. George A. Reedy. Even to his friends he told nothing of his past except that he came from Deanville, Pa., was on his way to Chicago, and would stay in Hamilton for a rest. He took up quarters in a Hunter-street boarding house, and with his gentlemanly manners and the prestige given by his clerical title succeeded in making many friends. He was supposed to be a Free Baptist or Universalist clergyman, and frequently conducted religious services in the boarding house.

Among the acquaintances made by Reedy was a young woman known as Katie Heming, who was visiting at the boarding-house where he was staying. They were apparently much attached to each other, and after a courtship of a very few days decided to unite their fortunes. On Tuesday last the pair visited an uptown notary for the purpose of obtaining a license. As Miss Heming is only 18 years of age the notary refused to issue a license. The would-be bridegroom, however, was not to be balked, and he and his inamorata, accompanied by a lady friend, went on the same day to Niagara Falls, N.Y., where the nuptial knot was tied.

The newly married couple returned to the city, and were seemingly spending a very pleasant honeymoon. On Friday night, however, a policeman was summoned to the boarding house by a boarder, who told him that Reedy was abusing his wife. Upon going to the house the constable found the bridegroom walking around in a state of nature, and showing symptoms of insanity. It was discovered that he had made his wife lie on the floor for over three hours. When seen she was in a fainting condition. She refused to make any charge against her husband, however, and the police could do nothing in the matter.

Reedy apparently regained his senses and nothing strange in his demeanor was noticed until Saturday night. While conducting a prayer meeting in the boarding house, he stood one of the participants on his head, saying "That's the way I'll treat my congregation, if they don't pay attention." The boarders became alarmed and caused Reedy's arrest on a charge of insanity. The demented man was not brought into the Police Court this morning. He will be kept in jail until the doctors can examine him. Since his incarceration he has been acting in an insane manner and there is no doubt that his reason is affected. His wife, who is an estimable young woman, feels keenly the position in which she is placed and much sympathy is expressed for her in her unfortunate condition.

Finished at Last.

HAMILTON, June 7.—All arrangements have been made for the formal opening of the Incline Railway on Thursday next at 2 o'clock. Invitations are being sent out to the mayor and members of the City Council, the Barton township councillors and representatives of the County Council.

Prince Michael's Trial.

DETROIT, June 7.—Judge Chambers yesterday granted a change of venue in the cases against Prince Michael. These are lewd and lascivious co-habitation with Eliza Court, and the charge of criminal assault preferred by Ellen Rawlinson of Toronto. The trial will take place at Ann Arbor, Tuesday, June 14.

Mother and Child Killed.

YAQUINA CITY, Ore., June 7.—A passenger train on the Oregon Pacific Railway yesterday ran into a handcar, on which were 10 persons. Mrs. Pratt and her child and a child named Manning were killed instantly. The seven others were severely injured.

THE PRESIDENCY.

The Rival Factions Come to Blows—Convention Opens To-Day.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 7. — Each faction keeps its mathematician and is prepared at all times to convince the doubting delegates of the certainty of success of each candidate. The highest claim for Harrison is 341 votes out of a total of 902. A conservative estimate gives Harrison 476, Blaine 417. Another conservative estimate gives Blaine 430, Harrison 415, and Michigan for Alger 28. These are the figures exhibited as conservative, but there is an uncertainty about some of the states. In the point of popular enthusiasm Blaine had the best of it to-day. The arrival of the Fort Wayne, Ind., Blaine Club, the Young Men's Blaine Club of Cincinnati and certain Blaine delegations from the far west were made the occasion of successive demonstrations in behalf of the ex-Secretary of State. But many of the enthusiasts are but private citizens attendant upon the convention, Republicans from the Northwest who have always been great admirers of the popular leader. The delegates to the convention for the most part, display no outward evidences of their allegiance and it is difficult to say how many of these will finally vote on the decisive ballot.

A Faction Fight.

Between 1 and 2 p.m. yesterday the Columbian Club of Indianapolis elevated a big picture of President Harrison and started in to sing a campaign song the refrain of which intimated that "Jimmy wasn't in it." The Blaineites resented this and massing themselves several hundred strong they charged upon the enemy. The Blaine men swept everybody before them, cutting a clear swath through the struggling mass of humanity, and outside the thunder rolled and the lightning flashed; inside men and boys shrieked and fought and tore at the clothing of those in front to save themselves from going down and being trodden under the feet of the mob behind. The Blaine crowd drove everybody before it clear to the second floor. The row continued almost without intermission for an hour.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Politics and nothing but politics reigned supreme at the Capitol Monday. The political situation was the interesting topic of discussion. The telegraph office was a place frequently visited and the wires were kept busy in the transmission of messages to and from headquarters of the political fight now in progress. So far as could be ascertained there was very little, if any, betting going on, the adherents of favorites, although sure of their nomination, not being willing to back their opinion in a substantial way. The Third Party in the House are in very high glee over what they regard as a split in the ranks of both Republican and Democrat parties, and Representative Watson, one of the Third Party's most prominent representatives, said this morning that they expect to profit by these dissensions.

JUST OUT!

MANUFACTURERS OF CLOTHING,

393 GEORGE STREET.

Something new every week. This week we give a few Skeptical Convincers.

Mothers, how about the boys? Just think we can give you a nice Blue Sailor made Suit for 75c., $1.25, $1.30, $1.75, $2.25, $2.50 and a Ball and Bat thrown in with every suit.

Did you see those Caps we have been showing for 5c., 10c. and 15c. The question has been asked, where do you get them and how do you sell them so cheap? Why they are sold all over town for 25c and 35c. It is the mystery of the present day how we get up such good goods, made equal to any work turned out in the town of Peterborough at just half the price.

Gentlemen, you who have bought Ready-Made Goods before, come and see what we have. You will see something that will open your eyes; such fine work was never seen on Ready-Made Clothing in Peterborough before. You who have never bought Made-Up Clothing before, come and compare our goods with what you have been getting; try them on and see for yourself how they fit.

Now here is just a few prices that one would be inclined to doubt, but ask for them and see for yourself. Stop and think, a Pair Good Tweed Pants for 95c. These we always have in stock. We won't tell you we are just sold out when you ask for them. All Wool Tweed Pants, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and up. Men's Suits, just imagine $2.75, $3.25, $3.95, $4.50 and $5. Navy Blue Serge, $2 a Suit and up.

Don't forget we keep just as fine a line of Tweeds and Worsteds as you can get made-to-order any place in town. Come and see them. We don't bother the life out of any one to buy.
